

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

RT. HON. SIR WILFRED LAURIER, LL.D.,	15
Qualities as a Leader—Ancestry and Education—Choice of a Career—His Student Characteristics—Admission to the Bar—Beginning of his Public Career—Member of the Dominion Parliament—As a Cabinet Officer—A Popular Orator—National Leadership—A Skillful Parliamentarian—His Far-reaching Influence.

CHAPTER II.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER, K.C.M.G., LL.D., D.C.L.,	25
Birth and Lineage—Early Education—Graduated in Medicine from Edinburgh University—Early Professional Career—Enters Public Life—Becomes a Vigorous Political Leader—Provincial Secretary—Provincial Premier—Minister of Public Works—Minister of Finance—Prime Minister of Canada—His Political Policy—His Public Measures—Recipient of Many Honors—Personal Characteristics.

CHAPTER III.

RT. HON. SIR DONALD A. SMITH, LL.D., LORD STRATHCONA AND MOUNT ROYAL,	33
His Scottish Lineage—Limited Education—Entered Employ of the Hudson Bay Company—Early Hardships—Relations with the Indians—Public Service in the Territories—Member of House of Commons—Lord High Commissioner for Canada in London—The Canadian Pacific Railway—Honors Received—Raised to the Peerage—His Philanthropies—Personal Traits—Social Life.

CHAPTER IV.

PROFESSOR GOLDWIN SMITH, LL.D., D.C.L.,	40
One-time Professor in Cornell University—Residence in Toronto—Career at Oxford—Anti-Slavery Sentiments—Prominent in Canadian Educational Circles—Journalistic Career—His Stand for Public Morality—Attitude toward Religion—His Literary Workmanship—A Model Citizen.	