THE LEADING BUSINESS TRAINING INSTITUTION OF AMERICA.

BUSINESS UNIVERSITY BUILDING 11-19 WILCOX AVE., DETROIT, MICH.

Offers Young Men and Women superior opportunities for preparing for the active duties of successful life.

THIS INSTITUTION has had over 30,000 students in attendance since it was established in 1850, and over 1,000 during the past year. The mission of this institution is to educate young men and women for usefulness, that they may maintain themselves in profitable independence. The University is composed of a "College of Business," "School of Shorthand," "School of Penmanship," "School of Mechanical and Architectural Drawing," and "English Training School." Each a complete school in itself, and all combined, form the Business University. Its courses of Theoretical, Practical, Actual Business, Office Training and Board of Trade work, are unsurpassed. Its teachers are men of large experience and superior ability. Its graduates find ready employment. It has the confidence of, and is patronized by practical business men. Students can enter any department any time for any length of time, and pursue one or more branches as desired. Day sessions during the entire year; evening sessions September 1st to May. Call or send for illustrated catalogue.
