THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE.

On the fifth day of August, 1695, a line of procession, made up of all the inhabitants of the city, together with their clergy, left the Church, after Vespers, and advanced to-wards the home of Monsieur Le Ber, one of the richest and most respect-ed among the citizens, likewise one of the most plous; in order, as history tells us, to lead an innocent maiden,—already a recluse of five years' standing, in her own home—

maiden, —already a recluse of a years' standing, in her own hom Jeanne Le Ber, the godchild of de Maisonneuve, to her new cell devotion, destined, as she was,

be, for the whole country, a victim explatory and a hostage of praise to the Lord. Gladly she steps on the threshold, wearing a religious dress, and all radiant with joy at the thought that she was going to ful-fil her act of accritics in genuing.

fil her act of sacrifice in seclusion entire and irrevocable. She bids a lasting farewell to the home of her father, her act of separation being complete, leaving aside all that the world could offer of honors, riches, and heriimte ambition to a wall dowered heiress, leaning on the arm of her virtuous father, accompanied by a goodly number of relatives and friends invited to take part in the touching ceremony, she wends he way in the wake of the procession newly-built church of the Congrega tion de Notre Dame. The emotio was felt by all; many shed tears. All were still more profoundly im pressed when, once having entered the church and having reached the vestry-door and after having listen-

d to the short exhortation of the venerable priest who directed this ceremony altogether new of its kind, she entered forever the little room, which she had caused to be set up to spend the remaining days of her life in adoring and contemplating Jesus in the Holy Eucharist.

the surface of things, this was simply a case of one lone person's con-secration to the exclusive service of God in His temple; but, for a town born, so to speak, of the Blesser Eucharist, within whose walls, up

Blessed Sacrament had admirably continued to live, and which had hitherto proved the mainstay of the Eucharistic devotion in the fields beyond and afar, in supplying mission safe to

to the time, devotion to the aries and altars, is it not on a level with the tabernacle the

and,

new church.

thus, directs her steps to the and legitimate ambition to a

to

well-

im

Local and Diocesan News.

LOCAL CALENDAR- St. Peter Gonzales.
St. Benedict Joseph Labre
Patronage St. Joseph.
St. Apollonius.
St. Leo IX.
St. Agnes of Monti Pulcian Fri. Sat. Sun. Mon. Tues Wed. April ...

21. St. Anselm 44

FORTY HOURS' DEVOTION .- April 13, St. Elzear;
April 15, St. Clothilde;
April 17, Rosemount;
April 19, St. Monique;
April 21, St. Catherine Friday, Tuesday, Thursday, Convent; Saturday, April 23; Gabriel's, St

ARCHIEPISCOPAL MOVEMENTS Archishop Bruchesi left Monday might, accompanied by the Rev. Abbe Ouellette, of St. James Church, for Antigonish, where he delivered the oration at the functal service of the late Bishop Cameron.

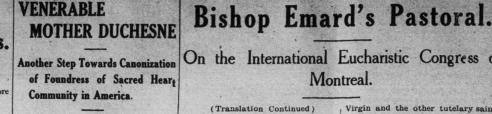

AGNES CHORAL UNION CON-CERT.-The annual concert of St. Agnes Choral Union will take place on Thursday, April 28, in the Audito-rium Hall, Berthelet Street, under the patronage of His Worship the the patronage of the account of the patronage of the pro-gramme will be the Great Irish Ora-torio "King Conor," by T. D. Sul-livan, rendered by the full chorus of 150 voices, under the direction of 150 voices, under the direction of Prof. J. J. Shea. Some of the best talent in the city has been secured to take part in the concert, which promises to be one of the greatest musical events of the season. It might here be explained that It might here be explained that King Conor MacNessa, a pagan Irish chieftan, was wounded in the head by a ball while fighting against a neighboring tribe which had raid-ed his territory. (The pagan Irish warriors sometimes took the brains out of champions whom they had various sometimes cook the brans out of champions whom they had slain, mixed them up with lime, and rolled them into balls, which they preserved as trophies. It was with one of these balls, which had been extracted from his armoury, that Conor MacNeessa was wounded.) He was carried home as dead but He was carried home as dead, but revived, only to learn that unless he led a life of absolute seclusion. led a life of absolute seclusion death would ensue. Living, there fore a life of quiet and enforced re tirement, he was one day startled by a great upheaval of nature, and a darkness which covered the land, "from the sixth to the ninth hour." When it had subsided, he sent for his chief Druid asking for an explanation, and offering -to appease the wrath of the gods by a sacrifice. The Druid (to whom it had been that there was but one God, "the Eternal," and unfolded to him the story of the Christ and His sacrifice for mankind. King Conor, filled with love for this unknown Savior. Him, rushed to the armory for his weapons, and, forgetful of his wound, hurried on his mission, when in the excitement the ball leaped from his forehead, and he fell dead.

The funeral of Mrs. Thurgood, wife of Mr. G. J. Thurgood, took place from her late residence, 346 St. George street, at 8.80 o'clock on Monday morning last to St. Patrick's Church and was very largely attended. The chief mourners were G. J. Thurgood, husband; s. W. C. and J. G. Thurgood, Mrs, J. G. Kavanagh, daugh-G. ter; seven nephews and six nieces; Mrs. N. C. Thurgood, Mr. J. G. Kavanagh. The body was received, at the church by Rev. Gerald McShane, the church by Rev. Gerald McShane, pastor. The solemn requirem "wass celebrated by Rev. F. Elliott, as-sisted by Rev. J. Killoran and Rev. F. Singleton. Burial took place in the family lot, Cote des Neiges in the family lot. Cote des a Cometery. The deceased lady Commetery. The deceased lady was born in Waterford Co., Ireland, six-ty-six years ago, and was loved by all who knew her for her kindness and generosity. She had been a re-sident of St. Patrick's parish for the self-sa

During the last few weeks it has been announced from the Holy See that Phillipine Rose Duchesne, usu-ally called Mother Duchesne, has been pronounced Venerable.

VENERABLE

Mother Duchesne should interest Americans, because, although a French woman, by birth, it was in the United States that she fulfilled the United States that she fulfilled most of her mission. She lived , a great part of her life there, and died in that country. Her life is a remarkable example of devotion, self-abnegation and charity.

Mother Duchesne was the first to ound the Sacred Heart in America She was born at Grenoble in 1769 and died at St. Charles, Mo., in 1852. Aside from saying that she was brought up in a convent of the 1852 Visitation Nuns, and that later or she joined the Society of the Sacred Heart, founded houses at St. Charles, Mo., and St. Louis, the en-cyclopedia has little to say about her, and it was necessary to have recourse to some one who knew more about this wonderful woman, even the N V. Times says the N. Y. Times.

Therefore, the Convent of the Sa-cred Heart at Madison Avenue and Fifty-fourth street was visited.

Beatification and canonization do not really mean as much as many non-Catholics imagine," said the reverend mother. "Much information is required before a person can be beatified. A searching investigation is made into the life and conduct, the savings and doings and writ ings of those whose reputation sanctity is under consideration, for pecfally as to their habits of vir-tue, whether they have reached so high a level as to be called heroic virtues which might be called colossal, larger than life, nobler than ordinary experience.

Inquiry is also made as to the power of working miracles during life, or as to miracles obtained after death by the application of relics, or through the intercession of the holy person whose virtues are under dis cussion. The last inquiry is so searching, the medical and other scientific scrutiny so severe as to the cure of diseases or other details which have to be established, that the late Pope Leo XIII. was heard to say that the greatest miracle in these days is to get a miracle proved in Rome.

"Documents must be legalized by authentic signatures, the originals carefully preserved, and the copies must be verified. The second step is an investigation conducted either by the Bishop or by a Roman off-cial delegated for the inquiry as to whether public worship, forbidden by the bull of Urban VIII. until permission has been granted by Holy See, has been given to the the saint

'The result of these two preliminary reports is forwarded to Rome. Then the whole proceedings are sus-pended for ten years, a delay long enough for the most ardent zeal to temper, so that only cases of ex-treme merif will be brought up. After that time the. Postulator, that is to say the Cardinal who works for the introduction of the for the introduction of the cause, petitions for 'remissorial letters,' that the inquiry may proceed to the next stage, which is called the Apostolic Process. If these letters are granted then the servant of God received the title of Venerable. This is what has just been granted Mother Duchesne.

ing, in sublime full-heartedness, the faith, love, thanksgiving, and even the explations of all those whose prayers and offerings the gentle re-cluse was, theneforward, going to offer the Divine Master, each day 'The Apostolic Process is carried on in Rome, and is conducted by the Congregation of Rites, and now the cause of the Venerable Servant of God must pass through more se-vere tests than those of the first ex-amination or ordinary and at every moment, until the very end of her earthly life, in the midst of the rays of her own gloriou. Thabor, or in the fulness of the sor rows of her own Calvary. vere tests than those of the first ex-amination or ordinary process. There are the judges, Cardinals of the Sacred Congregation, advocates for the cause, the postulators, and an advocate to plead the opposite side whose true title is Promoter of the Faith, but who is popularly known as the Devil's Advocate. That very day, the Most Blessed Sacrament was placed in exposition, Known as the Devil's Advocate. "After a decision has been reach-ed the whole process is reviewed from the beginning, the evidence for virtues and miracles reconsidered, the objections are put in the bal-ance, and the refutations weighed against them A public and formal declaration of the judgment of the Pope is then read at the ceremony of the beatifi-cation which takes place at St. Pe-ters in Bears of Charlet read at the ceremony of the beatifi-cation which takes place at St. Pe-ter's in Rome. Canonization is granted only after two new miracles have been wrought by the interess-sion of the beatified servant of God. If these miracles can be proved, then there is another cession in the Congregation of Rites, at which the Pope presides, then the canonization takes place. Mother Duchesne has only arrived at the stage of Venerable, but there seems to be little doubt that the beatification will soon be proclaim-ed. The stories told of her exemp-lary life are innumerable. She came over to the United States in 1818, when transportation was not what it is now. She and three other Staters established a convent at St. Charles, Mo. One of the nuns who knew her told about her untiring devotion. When she was old, over 80 years, h the night time she would go to the dormitories of the poor children, look over their clothes, and if there were ary holes to he mended she would sit up to all hours to do it. The children were never told who the stories while they slept.

the Most Blessed Sacrament, to adore in her lieu and stead, during the hours she had been ac the hours she had been accustomed to so pray and adore, and that, both by day and during the night, until she piously breathed her last. She died, after having received Holy Communion as her Viaticum, a death truly Eucharistic, on Octobe 3, 1714.

Jeanne Le Ber had been the friend. the mainstay, the extra ordinary be-nefactress of Marguerite Bourgeoys, who, in those very days, was laying down the foundations of popular education in Montreal. The work of the Congregation de Notre-Dame was itself built upon devotion to the Most Blessed Eucharist, and not in any haphazard way, either, as it sometimes happens in the case of like undertakings; but, indeed, through the manifest will of God, venerable the Sacrament; in the the gentle Master filled her soul with ineffable consolations. Each time, writes her biographer, that she ap-proached the Holy Table, she be-

The Divine Master held a greater favor in store for her. It happened in 1650, Assumption Day, the prin-cipal feast-day of the affiliated mem-bers of the Congregation among whom she ranked. The Most Bless-od Scouract heir generation of the Bles pretty beyond description in mortal flesh, she now made us of the things life make necessary In more things life make necessary, but through sheer obligation and without any feeling or taste. These were precisely the dispositions God wanted in her, for the designs He was to make known to her in call-ing her to work in Geneda was to make known to her in call-ing her to work in Canada. During ten long years, Marguerite Bourgeoys had been preparing her-self unconsciously for a mission about which she knew nothing. In about which she knew nothing 1653, all was made clear and decision reached; she was to bid farewell to France and come to Montreal. or Ville-Marie Trials Montreal, or ville-marie. Thats continue, however, and multiply; she had even gone as far as Nantes, and contradictions awaited her. One day, as she found herself the prey of goading inquietudes and of a deep desolation of soul, she en-tered a church; and there, prostrate before the Most Blessed Sacrament in exposition, she unburdened her soul, while she shed abundant tears; she asrucetty deplayed that her sole of she earnestly declared that her sole she earnestly declared that her sole desire was to know and fulfil the will of God in all things. At that very moment, she rose with her soul filled with the joy of heaven, while her mind was illumined with living light; she feels resolved to persevere unto death in the intention of serv-ing God in Willo Marie. unto death in the intention of serv-ing God in Ville-Marie. In an in-stant, she writes, all my troubles were changed; there, too, did I ex-perience a very strong impression and a very great assurance that I DODDS PILLS 23 THE must needs undertake this voyage, and I came forth from the church fully convinced that God wanted me to go to Canada. Having arrived in Montreal, she began her work under the conditions of poverty we all know. She as-sembles the children she is going to instruct around her, and in a stable. She gives of hersell to all, independent of any distinction, but, as the historian of her life says again, her ardent love for Jesus in the Blessed Eucharist causes her to redouble her care and attention for the children preparing themselves to redouble her care and attention for the children preparing themselves for their First Communion. You thus see, Beloved, it is ever the same burning devotion that in-spires Marguerite Bourgeoys, and with which she means to fashion the young hearts committed to her care. The Holy Eucharist, for the rest, lords it over her whole work, just as later it should dominate the whole history of the Congregation she founded. As, one day, she was sending forth some of her com panions on mission work, the saintpanions on mission work, the saint-ly foundress spoke these words to them, which sum up her whole thought and all her feelings: "Re-thought and all her feelings: "Re-member, my dear Sisters, that in your mission you are going to gath-er up the drops of Jesus' blood which are being lost. Oh! how happy a Sister sent on mission will be, if she only remembers that forth she is going, by God's order, and in His company; if she is mindful of the fort that in this service she can the fact that in this service, she can Him from Whom she has received all things. Oh! rest assured that she things. Oh! rest assured that she shall find nothing hard or bother small find nothing hard of bother-some! She would, rather, be wil-ling to eat of all things, to be de-spised by all, to suffer all manner of torments, and to die even in utter ill-account."

ill-account. These were the sentiments of Mar-These were the sentiments of mar-guerite Bourgeoys and the kind she sought to give her companions. One may truly say that they were given their supreme expression towards the end of her career, when the con-stitutions of the Community which she hed founded were finally and de she na finitely av 24, she had founded were finally and de she had founded were than y and de-finitely approved, and when, or June 24, 1698, the Sisters of the Congregation had the happiness of receiving these rules from the hand of Mgr. de St. Vallier, who had had come to Montreal for the occasion The following day, during Holy Mass, before receiving Holy Com-munion, the Sisters made their vows in the presence of the sacred Host, which the Bishop held in his hands. Each religious received name, by which she was afterwards known, which was that of some saint or mystery. But, and it is worth noting, Marguerite Bourgeoys, out of love for the Blessed Eucha rist, chose the name of Sister of the Blessed Sacrament. At the same time, she set aside her claims to superiorship, willing, as she was, to be the humblest and most obedient among the religious

(To be continued.)

Homeseekers' Excursions.

The Grand Trunk Railway has is sued a circular authorizing agents in Canada to sell Homese all ers' Excursion tickets to points in Western Canada. This is interest-ing information for those desiring to take advantage of these Excursions take advantage of these Excursions on certain dates from April to Sep-tember, 1910. The Grand Trunk route is the most interesting, taking a passenger through the populated centres of Canada, through the me-tropolis of Chicago, thence via Du-luth or through Chicago, and the twin cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul Ask Grand Trunk cents for Paul. Ask Grand Trunk agents for further particulars.

An Oil Without Alcohol.-Some oils compose the famous Dr. Tho-hol as a prominent ingredient. A judicious mingling of six essential oils, compose the famous Dr. Tho mas' Eclectric Oil and there is alcohol in it. so that its effects are lasting. There is no medicinal oil compounded that can equal this oil in its preventive and healing power.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Beauharnois Light, Heat & Power Company will at the next session of the Legislature of the Province of Quebec, apply for an act amending Quebec, apply for an act amending its charter 2 Edward VII, chaptes 72, as follows to wit: by (a) in creasing its authorized capital stock and borrowing power; (b) extend ing the territory in which it may exercise its powers, (c) authorizing the enlargement and extension of the feeder mentioned in section nine of its charter and its continuation to one or more new junction point feeder mentioned in section nine of its charter and its continuation to one, or more new junction points with the Saint Louis River or its replacement in whole or in part by 'a new feeder, and if found necce-sary the changing of the course of a part of the said river; (d) increas-ing the company's powers of expro-priation; (e) authorizing the com-pany to engage in all manufacturing and other businesses using electric power, and to acquire shares and se-curities of other companies; (f) re-moving or modifying restrictions now existing on the exercise of its powers, especially those requiring in certain cases the consent of mu-nicipal or other corporations; (g) changing conditions under which stock' and bonds may be issued'; (h) authorizing the company te self and supply for municipal or other purposes water taken from Lake Saint Francis, and to do all that may be necessary to that end and authorizing municipalities to make arrangements with the com-pany to take water from it. BEAUHARNOIS LICHT, HEAT &

Vol. LIX., No.

UNITY AMO

Daty of Irishmen Pr in Lucid M

The following lett

publish in part, recentive Paterson, N.J., E

bears out very st

we have always

Editor Paterson Even

Time and circumsta

much to scatter th

as widely in optnion tical subjects as they

in geographical posit

in geographical posit heppy consideration one occasion annually gen of all shades of Trish political question can unite in heart ar hating the greatest history of their fait doubt not that St. in 1010 will long with satisfaction and collection by the men Ancient Order of Hibbo

mbers of the Order members of the order every meeting, dance the one absorbing top discussed, will be the nouncement issued by officers and board of officers and board of having a peace confer other Irish American organizations, to the bring about a better

Irishmen and

UNITY OUR T

this continent and abuse and mudslinging other in the respective

"Mistakes, perhaps have been made at society trials and con ing the past twenty y leaders of Irish opin ments, and the question and confronts the men seace: Are those me

peace: 'Are those me those errors never to b forgotten?' Some arg end justifies the means in euphemism could in euphemism could over their faults, and resourceful argument

one fundamental and re

and one afraid of

and one airaid of would hesitate and dra Only the strong can be lity. It seems that a cause shall be 'tried t is the truth of ages an been with the cause of thew Cummings, natic of the A. O. H., has p record as being in favo of the Irish race thro seople, and to

IRISH S

GRAND TRUNK SYSTEM Colonist Excursions

ONE WAY SECOND-CLASS COL-ONIST TICKETS to Western Points onist TickETS to Western Pol in Canada and United States sale until April 15th, 1910, greatly reduced fares. Homesechers' Excursions ints onat

HOMESEEKERS' ROUND TRIE EXCURSION TICKETS to Western Canada via Chicago, on sale Tues-day, April 5th, and every second "mesday thereafter until September. 20th, at very low fares. Western Canada

The Finest Farming Country in the World is to be found along the line of the GRAND TRUNK PACI-FIC RAILWAY in the Provinces of Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatche wan. Descriptive literatures with beautifully engraved maps: and giv-ing full information about Pre-Homesteads and how to obtain them. Homesteads and how to obtain them. et Office.

CITY TICKET OFFICES, 130 St. James St. 'Phones flain 6905, 6906' 6907, or Bonaventure Station.

ing Montreal are supplied with purest spring, water from the celebrated Sugarloaf Mountain Springs, situated near Campbellton, N.B. CITY TICKET OFFICE:

CITT INCRAT 130 St. James Street. Tel. Bell M. our-H. A. PRICR, GEO. STRUBBE, Asst. Gen. Pass. Agt City Ticket Agt

-

of the Irish race thro world, and is willing happy differences of the Irishmen shall be forging gotten, and has sanc bringing together of the twee of the various I organizations in a peak so that a better under prevail. Some of Mn friends and supporter. prevail. Some of Min friends and supporters a be against him for aidd sisting in such a mover count of some of the m with the project, but al sider for the sake of p frain from saying unkti-alleging ulterior motive neven forget that all po-most tyrannical, rests u-public opinion. Our Ir in the years gone by h did differences. Irish 1 ism has been justified b has been justified b

.y and fervor, just as it was lat-er to mark the begannings of Ville-Marie with a special imprint and cha-racter. It was while she kneit in adoration at night, before the Most Blessed Sacrament, that the recluse was seized with the fatal malady that was to bring her to the grave. Confined to her bed through burning fever, and the malignity of her ail-ment preventing her from saying her wonted prayers, she asked, as a fa-for, that a nun should remain before the Most Blessed Sacrament, to and in virtue of the acts and senti ments through which the venerable foundress gave answer to her voca-tion. We cannot but instance a tion. few happenings which will, in all truth, suffice towards establishing this historically truthful assertion. From the age of 22, Marguerite Bourgeoys, who was born at Troyes, France, had given herself to God all-souledly, and that while even she still lived in the midst of world lings, awaiting the knowledge God's designs upon herself. Sh already a devout servant of Most Blessed Sacrament; j midst of the most cruel trials,

The day following, which was the feast of Our Lord's Transfiguration on Mount Thabor, Holy Mass was celebrated, for the first time, in the came the favored of extraordinary sweetness, and the sacred fire which Full-hearted Christian burnt within her soul, was so ar-dent at times, that she could hard-ly control the sensible impressions as he was, Monsieur Le Ber was pre sent to offer the holocust of his fatherly love and affection, whose sweet joys he willingly sacrificed; while, at the same time, his daughof its holy ardor ter was to begin the twenty years of loving captivity she was to spend in utter seclusion from the world, and, by the side of the Divine Pri-soner of the Tabernacle Himself. On the swifer of this twen the work of ed Sacrament being exposed, as was the custom, the saintly Marguerite was appointed to remain in the church during the procession held that day. After having spent seve-ral hours adoring Our Lord, she suddenly felt constrained to lift we suddenly felt constrained to lift up her eyes toward the Most Host And wondrous the most Biessed Host. And wondrous thought! Just at that moment the God of the Eucharist is willing to manifest Himself unto her, under the form of a child about three years old and aries and altars, is it not safe to say that the heroic act of Mademoi-selle Le Ber furnished, in a way, the highest and most exalted expression of Ville-Marie's fundamental devo-tion as a colony. It was as if the soul of a whole people was center-ing, in sublime full-heartedness, the faith love thenkeriving and even

The vision caused her to experience the most soothing movements of divine love, and inspired her with a deep contempt for the false beau-ties of earth. As would an angel over forty years, and always took a deep interest in parochial societies May her soul rest in peace.

Correspondence.

A WORD TO THE WISE. To the Editor, True Witness: Sir,-As we have in our midst a certain number of unscrupulous vendors of picture post cards caricatur-ing the Irish, so also have we an-other class who try the base means of advertising their wares in shop windows by deriding Irish names. In the windows of one of the many to-bacconists of St. Catherine street west may be seen a number of mon-key headed tobacco receptacles bear-ing such names as Teddy O'Flynn, Tom Flannagan, etc. If the proprie-tor of the store in question thinks it necessary to use such a means of catering to a certain class of his brainless customers, he should be taught that he does so at the cost of his Irish trade. M. F. C. dors of picture post cards caricatur-

M. F. C.

Mgr. Dontenville to Become Superior General of Oblates.

On Thursday last a reception was tendered to Mgr. Dontenville at Ot-tawa University. His Lordship, who is one of the most distinguished members of the Oblate Order, has resigned his see in New Westminster, B.C., to become Superior-General of the Oblates in France.

Sacrament was placed in exposition, and the Forty Hours' Devotion be-gun for the first time. Shortly af-terwards, together with Marguerite Bourgeoys, Mademoiselle Le Ber be-gan the holy practice of perpetual adoration, throughout the long hours of the day, in the chapel of the Congregation, which pious cus-tom has been kept up to this day in the community. Thus the day tom has been kept up to this day in the community. Thus, the admir-able recluse lived in solitude the most complete, and under the most austere mortifications, by the side of the Tabernacle, which was the constant object of her contempla-tions busying herself with the sa-tions, busying herself with the sa-cred needs of the altar, which she herself had dowered with all the necessary linen and with valuable ornaments. It may, then, be said that, if she was not the foundress, she was the inspiration of that ad-mirable work of endeavor which cares for God's holy tabernacles, which work is still very actively carried on in the same holy place, that is, among the gentle Sisters of the Congregation, and which has given shape and pattern to organi-zations of a kindred nature, later established in other dioceses. "Be-sides all the ornaments which are tions, busying herself with the zations of a kindred nature, Tater established in other dioceses. "Be-sides all the ornaments which are presently in the possession of the Congregation," as was declared in writing, in 1721, "Mademoiselle Le Ber has furnished all the north and south parishes of the Government of Montreal with chasubles, altar-fronts, flowers, and other ornaments ("Ornaments" is here taken in its strictly French meaning). Instead of weakening, Mademoi-

Instad of weakening, Mademol-selle Le Ber's devotion to the Bless-ed Eucharist increased with each succeeding day, until the end of her life. And this devotion, actuated and sustained by that other itself, whose object was the Most Blessed BEAUHARNOIS LIGHT, HEAT & POWER COMPANY. By FLEET, FALCONER, OUGHT RFD, PHELAN, WILLIAMS BOVEY, Its Attorneys. Montreal, 22rd February, 1910.

THE TRUE WITNESS is printed and published at 816 Legauchetiers street west, Montreel, Can., by G. Plumbett Magnam.

Province of Quebec. District of Montreal District of Montreal. No. 1175. SUPERIOR COURT. Dame Elizabeth Alice McIntosh, of the City and District of Montreal and Province of Quebec, wile com-mon as to property of Lorne Mc-Dougall Cairnie, of the same place, contractor, duly authorized to ester en justice, plaintiff. vs. The said Lorne McDougall Cairnie, defendant. The plaintiff has this 14th day of March, 1910, taken an action in separation as to property against the Defendant. Montreal, March 16, 1910, TRIMEY, BERCOVITCH & KEAR-NEY. Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Attorneys for Plaintiff.

NOTICE. Superior Court, Montreal. Dame Alexina Laurencelle, of Outremont, wife of Béla Barthos, furrier, of the same place, has, this day, instituted an action for separation as to pro-berty against her husbans. Montreal, March 17th, 1916. SIDO E. MATHIEU, Atterney for Plaintiff.

ism has been justified b ary leaders and disputed differences of conflic have been expressed, and y criticized for their ad vice-versa. But those m mated with a spirit oo Thre patriotism is the m tion of duty and honor and exalted, the sublim patriotism which, soarir heaven, arises far abou low or selfish things an ed by one soul-transport that of the good and gi-country, as in the present MATTHEW CUMM It is this spirit which It is this spirit which furmings when he is y neet in conclave with a have been his most cons ponents. Sincarity, the all eloquence and the bu-therater, has in this if fustrated by this act of a sis seldom made in an neet conviction, wheth them right or wrong, we but when such conviction a and made good by at replete with self-de-bumility, with fortitude borbearence, then all men to the how far the sub-tanseends.

"It is not in contemp the intention of Mr. Cun the men who favor peace opinions or policies are t d or agreed on, or to arence in such matters. working for Ireland's free