No. 19

VOL XXXVI.

YFATIVE

ROVINCES

represent have

XPOSITIONS

ED ALL THE

HIBITION

e minds of the PURCHASES

MANUFAC

should induce r you wish to o sell for from

ENT. LESS

PRICES.

s paper.

NSON,

llis Sreet.

RN, M. D.,

Surgeon.

inswick St.

KS

Pearse,

is religious

Friends.

her Papers.

tion of Christ-

the depths

VARDS

BITED.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The American Hebrew pronounces dollar-see that he gets it. -Ex. it impossible that "even with the sincerest and purest motives a non-Jew can be made a Jew," and deprecates the recent alleged conversions to Judaism as " mummery."

The United Presbyterian well says that " nothing so surely leads youthful persons to skepticism as bigoted defense of a proposition or dectrine that the religious common sense of the Church, if it do not at once know, must soon know, is incorrect, and hence untenable.

The Methodist Recorder writes :-"For those in the Established Church who hold fast the faith of our fathers, and are true to the traditions of the Reformation, Methodism an affection as it has ever had, but with Romanising priests, with Romish did make peace and it never will."

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Methodist, meditating among the tombs of great men, thinks a better monument than one of marble or granite would be a frontier church such as Chaplain McCabe proposes to build for every $250 sent him. These little chapels will be, he says, "beacon lights to souls that might otherwise enters the sanctuary.—Teras Adv. drift into the dark.

One hundred and thirty thousand seven hundred and ten dollars of excise money were last week distributed among the charitable institutions of this city. Charity, indeed, got the funds, but the rum-selling, from which the supply came, immensely added to the necessity for charity. Much the more economical way would be to stop the rum selling altogether, and supply the funds for charity by other methods. — Independent.

People whose tempers are sour and anllen sometimes deceive themselves by giving their troublesome disposition the amiable name of low spirits. They say, "We are very nervous and depressed to-day," when in truth they are very cross and fretful. Better far for themselves and others, would they occupy themselves "with things, not self. Better still, if to such useful, unselfish occupation, they would add the prayer of faith for the grace of cheerful patience. - Zion's Hexald.

The Rev. Mr. Fort, of Cooperdale, Epping, still pursues Mr. and Mrs. Hobson. He is forbidden to repel the aged couple from the communion, and he has tried to wound them in another way and to make people remember his own bigotry and indiscretion. He has hung in the church porch a placard containing the Prayer-book table cases as that of Mr. Hobson being prayed to such good purpose that the printed in 'extra large type, underevery parish.'-London Methodist.

There is a charming simplicity in the frankness of this recent statement of the Church Review, a ritualistic organ :- "The thing which English Catholics have in hand at present, and are likely to have in hand as their principal work for at least one genera-In its seat of honor, as the sun and centre of Christian wership." Yet turns out to be the stupid, inactive saw a people going farther and farwe call things by their own names, and describe these men as traitors to or it is valueless and probably harmful. the Protestant Church of England.—

Joyful News says :- 'We advise any of our friends who are spending a Sunday in the North, and who would like to see something to do them good, to contrive to have the Sunday in Stockton on Tees. They would we take it is one of the "sights of England." for there are six hundred one else take a leaf out of Mr. Alderunder Bible influence?'

Judge Fisher decided on Tuesday

-Baltimore Methodist.

The small deficit in your preacher's salary is a small thing to you, but it is not so to him. He needs every

A definite belief is good for anyone, ven as an intellectual exercise, for it gives tone and vigor to the faculties; but it is infinitely more valuable as a moral one, since it gives form and direction to one's living .- United

Our nobility still lives on. The reason is not far to seek. It is recruited from day to day, from year to year, from century to century, by the brains and the bravery of the nation. The mere inherited title is held but in little honor with us. - London Society.

The Parish Register thinks that a man needs to be converted three times -first his head, then his heart, then his pocket-book. When ecstasy takes has as deep a sympathy and as true a man so far from earth during the sermon that he finds it difficult to get back in time, for the offering, he will doctrine or Romish ritual, it never do well to examine the source of such

Some churches in the North have a committee for shaking hands with visitors. The idea is not a bad one. An improvement on it can be made when the Church is resolved into a committee of the whole and each member makes it his or her duty to say a kind word to every visitor who

The Churchman says:-"It does not sound well to say that the clergy are starved, but it makes one's ears tingle not a little when it is stated by Assistant Bishop Potter, in his article on "Ministerial Support," in the March Church Review, that their average of income is lower than in that of any other decent body of Christians

Keep to the country as long as you can. Live in it; rejoice and be glad in it; know when you are happy; who live in these great factories. The clover field is better than the hive. The honey of the new-blown blossem is sweeter than the honey in the cell, and there is life in the getting of it .- it could be done by commerce, educa-Christian Union.

abounding joy you felt during a time view many years ago it had been afof special religious interest, do not firmed, speaking of the triumphs of conclude that the blessing you then received is lost. That blessing was from God, and your Christian life has flowed in a deeper, stronger current to by half a dozen drunken, hard swearthis hour. The full river of God, ing infidels—if they could have escappouring through the soul, fortilizes it ed being eaten. We were prepared to forever, though the swell in its waters may subside. - Nash. Adv.

The Morning Star (Baptist) says: "Seventy five years ago several students of Williams College used to go out behind a 'haystack' in the vicinity of affinity, the part relating to such and pray for missions. And they nibals. The worst thing the missionoutcome was the inauguration in this scored.'- 'An educated gentleman in country of the foreign mission movement. There is need-most urgent need-of a 'haystack' in close proximity to the colleges of the present day, and to the churches as well. 'Wanted-Haystacks'!'

The anxiety that many parents and teachers have to push very young tween the ideals in the sacred books of children to the utmost of their powers tion to come, is the restoration of the is almost certain to sacrifice the very altar, the re-establishment of the mass objects at which they aim. The precocious little boy or girl usually very hard things are said of us because man. Education in young children must be at the same time amusement. A repulsive task should never be set slowly towards its ideal. The civilifor a child. - Medical and Surgical

"Did you ever think that a narrowminded man is a greater affliction to a Church than a bad man ! You can turn a bad man out and be done with him; but one of these little fellows then be able to visit Mr. John Alder- who will cry at the protracted meet- where their missionaries had gone son's Sunday-school for men, which, ing, and ask for prayer, and then at the next business meeting of the Church work up a row about some adults in attendance. Cannot some trifle, what can you do with him? Such a man is unusually afflicted with Christianity was put down originally son's book, and, in other towns, lay too much conscience, and he is conhold of the working-man and get him stantly hawking his conscience around for public inspection. -Rel Herald.

Somewhere in Nova Scotla, and in but this time it was the whole world last that the bequest of the late John this year of grace, 1884, a Presbyterian Gorsuch of $10,000 to the Bishops of of the Convenanter type had charge of the M. E. Church in trust for the a singing school in which Baptists, superannuated preachers of the Balti- Methodists, and Presbyterians of the more Conference cannot take effect. ordinary type, prevailed. He was a There is no doubt about the purpose successful teacher, and his pupils made of the testator, no doubt about the good progress under his instructions. a new mission, there was over a genuineness of the will. The Judge Religious meetings were held in the finds "vagueness" in the provisions section, attended by all. Hymns were of the bequest. We sometimes ques- sung occasionally; but the only pertion if our courts are not becoming a son fully competent to lead the singlittle too nice in their demands. It ing was the teacher. His conscience clamation of the Gospel. The Transare non-church goers. The collections does seem sometimes as if criminal law would not allow him to take part in vaal was the great highway into the average $20 a night, leaving a deficiwere a device to protect criminals singing hymns further than starting against justice, and civil law an elabor- the tune, and beating time. The Pate institution for setting aside equity. difficulty was compromised in this way. - Presbyterian Witness.

A CRITIC CRITICISED.

At a missionary meeting lately held in Manchester, Eng., the Rev. W. L. Watkinson said: He held in his hand criticisms upon their work by persons outside. He frequently found such criticisms to his own mind eminently had recently interviewed Mr. Monviews upon the universe in general. preached the truth to their own peo-He was asked what had impressed ple, and now in those regions there were him as the worst things in the world. | chapels built, societies established. of their own for not going. If he had converts, unknown, unpaid, unrecogin those fair islands of the Pacific Samuel, came down to him, and told sionaries upon whom he poured such tion, sanitary science. Why did they Because you no longer feel the not do it? In the Westminster Re-Christianity in Fiji, that the same results could have been accomplished acknowledge it when we saw it. Why did they not send these drunken, swearing infidels? We could have spared them-and if they had been eaten he would have been sorry-for the canaries had done was to turn these islands into a Patmos. The second fact that had impressed Mr. Conway was the spectacle presented in India of a religion gone rotten. He (Mr. Conway) looked with despair upon that rotten jungle of dead religions. He declared that there was a great gulf be-India and the moral condition of the people. How did Mr. Conway ac count for that? In those countries he ther away from its ideals, but in Christian lands he saw a people moving sation of India, said this disinterested witness, was getting more and more corrupt, while Christianity had worked great changes under their very eyes. In short, Mr. Conway had been impressed with the fact that they had done a great work, and that in these rotten civilisations of India there was no hope but in science. amongst just such rotten superstitions unmitigated contempt. They told us that should blossom as the rose. At the same meeting the Rev. Owen | during the sermon, and are under no Watkins said: In the Transvaal, where he was attempting to establish million of natives, and the Lord had they like the singing in the theatre. by a wonderful providence opened up in which all are expected to join. that part of the continent to the pro- About seven-eighths of the audiences interior of Africa. If Methodism was to plant the banner of the cross in the continue the services another season interior of the dark continent it would if the funds are forthcoming.

and it regenerated society, and once more it should vindicate its character,

have to pass up the great highway of commerce through the Transvaal. The Lord had by a wonderful providence been preparing the people for the missionaries. It was impossible to work the great diamond fields without native labourers, and they had come down from those regions to labour in consolatory and inspiring. The cor- those diamond fields, and there they respondent of the Pall Mall Gazette had heard the Gospel from the lips of our missionaries. They had then recure D. Conway, an eminent repre- turned to their homes in the more northsentative of the freethinking of the ern regions, they had carried the Bible metropolis. This gentleman had re- with them, and they had carried cently gone round the world, and he Methodism with them too. These gave to this special correspondent his men had, unknown to the missionaries, In reply, he said the first thing was and Methodist work done by people the Sabbatarianism of the Sandwich | who had never seen the face of a white Islands. He (Mr. Watkinson) said missionary. They were the fruit of that was a splendid testimony to the the labours of their own brothers who success of Christian missions. He had found Christ in the South. (Aphad heard that wonderful speech of plause.) A short time ago he was Sir A. Gordon in Exeter-hall in which sent into the Transvaal to mark out he gave his testimony about Fiji; and the boundaries of a new mission, which he had read Sir R. Temple's noble tes. was to be the first of a chain of outtimony to the results of missions in posts which he hoped would reach into India, but they were nothing to such the interior of Africa. When he testimony as this. Something was reached his post he found that the being done, this man being witness. work of God, in the form of Meth-Why did not Mr. Conway go to the odism, had been going on for years. Sandwich Islands fifty years ago? He Then he looked beyond into the dark might say he was not on the planet interior, and there to his great at the time. But that was not their astonishment he found that the work business. Why did not men of Mr. of God had also been going on. The Conway's type go? They had reasons work had all been done by Methodist gone at that time he would have seen nised, for years. One of these named something far worse than Sabbatari- him they had heard that he had been anism. He would have seen infanti. sent to help them. He accompanied envy not your less fortunate fellows who live in these great factories. The made the difference? The mis- and when he saw what had been accomplished by these converts he

> HOW TO REACH THE MASSES

ency of $800 a season, which is made thanked God and took courage.

Religious mass-meetings of a very Presbyterians, the Lutherans, the interesting character have been held Methodists. etc. in Philadelphia the past two winters. They were begun in an old church WANTED. which had accommodations for 1,300 people. Every seat was taken the first Sunday night, and there were no vacant places at any of the subsequent services. Last winter, St. Philip's having been sold for business purposes, the Bijou Theatre in the same neighborhood, was secured, and the services were equally successful, and it is stated that some nights the theatre was packed with 2,300 persons. The services were conducted by two ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church. They were informal in character. The sermons were extemporaneous, there was good singing, every attendant having a copy of the hymns printed on sheets, and the Scripture and a few collects were read. The theatre has two galleries. The upper one is generally filled by rough men, some of whom are intoxicated; the second gallery is also filled by men, but of a better class, while the floor is occupied by ladies with their escorts. Those who come drunk to the upper gallery reform and bring their wives and sit on the first floor. After meetings are sometimes held, at which over 700 persons have attended. Many have signed a pledge to attend service at least once a month for a year. Their names are sent to parties in their neighborhood who call upon them. In this way many may still preserve its modesty, deli- preach a sermon, deliver an exhortahave joined various congregations. The conductors of the meetings believe that the reason so many attend is because they can go in and sit down, without asking any one's permission, leave the place at any time, except restraint. They believe they are not wanted in the churches where the "order and decorum repel them," and

INFANT BAPTISM.

In a paper in the Independent on the new Congregational creed, Prof. Geo. P. Fisher, of Yale, says: Ac cording to our conception of the Church, the baptism of infants is just as significant as the baptism of adults. Dorner argues that it is even more consonant with the idea of baptism. If adult baptism began first when preachers were missionaries, and the Church was springing into being by missionary efforts, if infant baptism spread gradually and existed in some localities earlier than others, the same is true of other legitimate and recognized elements of polity and ritual. When did Christians first think of abstaining from work on the Lord's day? I will not discuss the question of the probable date of the first baptism of infants. I will simply remark that it was a familiar practice to Irenæus, who, in his youth, was well acquainted with Polycarp, and possibly with other disciples of the Apostle John. Those who would look into the ques tion of the agreeableness of infant baptism to the idea which Christ and the Apostles had of the Church, I respectfully recommend to weigh well the narrative of the reception of lit tle children who were brought to Jesus by their parents (Matt. xix, 13-16) and the declaration of the Apostle Paul, in I Cor., vii, 14, that the children of a believing parent are "holy." Among recent discussions of the subject, that of Dorner, in his "System of Christian Doctrine" (22 138-141) is one of the most instructive. If the omission of infant baptism from the creed would have promoted the cause of Christian union as regards our relation to a single denomination, it would have tended to create a new wall of separation between us and the other Christian bodies, such as - not to speak of the Greeks and Roman Catholics — the Episcopalians, the Christ?" They may freely visit and ter of the Spirit or letter? What has speak to their perishing sisters, who it been in your own experience? Are by the customs of that country are your people quickened by the ministry women in our own land. And what of preaching that kills? How much greater or more womanly work can of Sabbath-school teaching which enter the zenanas, and make the dull and profession which kill? Every dark lives of those who live in titled life, every preacher has a ministry; They can teach to India's womanhood of the letter; a ministry which gives the true nobility of living, and thus life or kills. -St. Louis Adv. its children shall not be cradled in superstitinos ignorance and degradation as they now are. They can show the people how an actively useful life than for any other Christian duty. To cacy, purity; and what an added tion, counselthe ignorant or to comcharm to woman is the refinement of fort the sorrowful, you need talents, a true education. Now, while this gifts, power. But holiness is possible noble work is open to all loving, ear- to him who has the fewest grains of nest, educated ladies, and is being common sense conceivable. Jesus accomplished by some-notably by A. came to save us from our sins, and He L. O. E., who has consecrated to this knows much, though we may know work of love the decline of a beauti- but little. There is an ocean of Diful life-it is specially in need of la- vine blood for us to wash in. The dies who have studied medicine as a Holy Ghost came to dwell in usprofession. They are in demand in apply the blood, and keep us clean.any and every part of India to do a Western Advocate. work that men cannot possibly do. -

STEALING RIDES.

There is a set of boys in every large city who make a practice of catching on behind street cars, or omnibuses, and stealing a ride to their homes, or as far in that direction as they safely can. They are like those larger boys who get on the railroad trains and dodge the conductor, or who use the turn pikes and evade the payment of tolls. In our hearts we despise such actions, and feel that the boy who does such things degrades him-

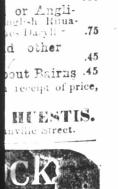

Are there some in the Church who thus demean themselves? We speak not of the poor. Let us make every poor man feel that his small contribution to the expenses of the church is as large in God's sight, and as highly esteemed, as the rich man's larger gift. But we are thinking of those who have enough of this world's goods for comfortable living, and yet they evade the payment of their share in support of the gospel. While they spend a dollar a week on tobacco, they promise the deacons, perhaps, twenty cents or ten cents a week for the Lord's work. When the collection for Foreign Missions, or education for the ministry, is taken up, they drop in a dime. When repairs are needed on the church building, they evade the deacons, or (if they subscribe) are careful to be very slow in paying.

Is it any better to hang on thus at the rear of a church, trying to get the benefits of its work without paying. than to steal a ride on the rear end of a street car ?-Louisville Observer.

This letter preaching deals with the surface: does not penetrate the heart of life; no profound insight into the hidden life of God's word. It may be attractive, but it is not the attraction of life; it may impress, but not for God or eternity. The failure is in the preacher; he has never penetrated into the inner life; never has been The world wants women-in some initiated into the mysteries of the places vastly more than men. It Spirit; the deep things of God have would not be wise, nor would it be never been sought, studied, fathomed, polite to say we have too many of our experienced. He has never stood befair friends in these kingdoms. Wo- fore "the throne, high and lifted up." men of the right sort are greatly and heard the seraphim song, and in needed everywhere, and even our own the vision and rush of that awful holiland can ill afford to lose them. But ness, utterly undone, in despair and such women as "labored with Paul in alarm, had his life and heart touched, the gospel" are specially needed where purged, inflamed by the live coal from the gospel preached by Paul is never God's altar. His ministry may draw heard by millions of their sex. In people to him, to the Church, to the India there never was such a splendid ceremony and form, but no true drawfield for female workers as there is to ing to God; no sweet, holy, divine day. Let our ladies read Mr. Arthur's communion induced; life is suppresspamphlet on "Woman's Work in In- ed; frost in the air; repression and dia" if they want light on the great arrest in the soil. Does your preachquestion, "What can we do for ing kill or give life? Are you a minisdebarred the privileges enjoyed by to a new and holier life? How much women do than this? They can even kills? How many examples, lives, ignorance glad with God's salvation. a ministry of the Spirit, or a ministry

Man requires less talent for holiness

Said Joseph Cook. "You must They that would not eat the forbid- judge religious movements not by the den fruit must not come near the for- men who make them, but by the men

NESS,

STATE JOURNAL

ABE & CO. t Baltimore and ?