

Thursday, June 7th, 1792.

PRAYERS.

The House being met, and no Business before the House;

Then the House adjourned till To-morrow at Ten of the Clock.

Friday, June 8th, 1792.

PRAYERS.

William Cotnam Tonge, Esq; returned duly elected for the Township of Newport, took the usual Oaths and his Seat.

Member for New-Port, take his Seat.

The Committee appointed to prepare an Address in Answer to His Excellency's Speech, reported a Draft, which being twice read, was agreed to unanimously, ordered to be engrossed, and is as follows :

Address reported.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY

JOHN WENTWORTH, ESQUIRE.

Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief in and over His Majesty's Province of NOVA-SCOTIA, &c. &c. &c.

The humble ADDRESS of the HOUSE of REPRESENTATIVES in GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

May it please Your Excellency,

“ HIS Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Representatives of the Province of Nova-Scotia, now in General Assembly, beg leave to return our best Thanks for Your Excellency's Speech at the opening of the Session.

“ We very sincerely congratulate you, Sir, on your Appointment to the Government of this Province ; and acknowledge with Gratitude His Majesty's Goodness in committing the Charge of this Part of his Dominions to a Person whose Zeal and Abilities have been so eminently distinguished, and which we are convinced will be exerted for the Happiness and Prosperity of his Subjects here.

“ We are fully sensible of the Value and Importance of our Connection with the Parent State, and that it is both our Duty and Interest to strengthen it on every Occasion as the best and surest Means of deriving essential and lasting Benefits from those natural Advantages which this Country possesses ; and we shall make it our Study to improve them by all the Means that are in our Power.

“ The