BRANTS TAKE ANOTHER GAME FROM CRISTALL

Got to Schroeder in First Inning For Two Runs and the Game.

Hamilton, May 26-Deneaus Brants registered another win yesterday afternoon at the expense of the Christalgazers. The Dykemen pounded Schroeder for three hits in the first inning, putting over two runs. After this the lanky southpaw settled down and pitched a masterly game, Brantford being unable to score again. The Hams, however were able to slip over just one tally, this coming in the 6th. Cresswell had them tied up throughout. He struck out twelve men and deserved to win. He received splendic support his team mates pulling off three snappy double plays, which helped some. Dunlop and Fried had a great day in the field,
