President

Duty Demanded Hun Intrigue With Mexico and Japan is Hypocritical

Plaint of Berlin To-day. Berné, March 4.—Via Paris—Munich Neueste Nachrichten discussing the Zimmerman note, deems that any plot existed on the part of Germany to bring about war with America, but rather than German act out of foresight against possible eventualities. The Nachrichten maintains that the onus for the whole affair rests on President Wilson and continues:

"No plot was attempted by Germany, but President Wilson by plotting the stolen Zimmerman current, has probably accomplished his object in congress, which is chief aim."

The Nachrichten maintains that Mexican government under Gen. Carranza was rapidly establishing its status as an ally worthy of Germany or any other world power and argues that view that Germany that America might join Germany's foes, it was the duty of latter to secure new allies. The paper asserts that Mexico was so threatened by the United States that it probably could not allow any opportunity to strengthen the position to pass unutilized.

"It is not only the right, but duty," concludes the Nachrichten "of a country involved in a fight, to seek to secure new allies, and when that is impossible to engage them with new fighting force. The system of securing allies which now prevails, no matter how many may be said against it, is an old diplomatic method of our times and we have no other means at present of balancing the forces which have launched against one another."

The Frankfurter Zeitung comments in a different tone and no denials of Secretary Zimmermann's action. After expressing mild and apparent sympathy, it doubts as to the authenticity of note, and admitting that its publication strengthens immeasurably President Wilson's position. The Frankfurter Zeitung says:

"In the camp of our enemies vigilant joy reigns as the result of discovery and it is not an especially fortunate circumstance for us, aside from the political value of a whole move—that such an absolutely secret document should fall into wrong hands."

Tokio, March 5.—The mystery of the murder of Mrs von Saldern, a German war prisoner and daughter of an Admiral von Capelle, the German minister of navy, has not yet been solved. It is understood that Mrs von Saldern desired to leave Japan but that her husband prevailed to remain. After the murder of woman Lieut. von Saldern committed suicide owing to remorse.

HUN ATTACKS REPULSED BY THE FRENCH

By Courier Leased Wire. Paris, March 5.—A violent attack was made yesterday by the Germans on the Verdun front. Today's official announcement says repeated German attacks failed under the French fire, although north of Carrières wood, the attackers obtained a foothold in advance positions. The German losses were heavy.

The attack was made over front of 1.34 miles in the region of Carrières wood and Bezonaux, and was preceded by an intense bombardment. The French repulsed attempted raids at various other points on the Verdun front, taking prisoners.

Weather Bulletin
