FIVE GERMAN MINISTERS OF STATE RESIGN PORTFOLIOS

Von Kuehlmann, Former Ambassador to Constantiniple, Becomes the New Foreign Secretary; Liberal Press Dissappointed by Changes

Berlin, Aug. 7—Official announcement was made yesterday that five Ministers of State, including Foreign Secretary Zimmerman, and four Secretaries of State, including Finance Minister Lentze and Interior Minister von Loebell, had resigned their portfolios.

Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann, the German Ambassador to Turkey, has been appointed Secretary for Foreign Affairs, in succession to Dr. Zimmermann.

The Ministers and Secretaries of State, who resigned were:—

Ministers of State
Minister of Justice—Dr. Beseder, appointed November, 1905.
Minister of Ecclesiastical Affairs and Instruction—Dr. von Trott zu Solz, appointed July, 1909.
Minister of Agriculture, Domains and Forests—Dr. von Schorlemer, appointed in 1910.
Minister of Finance—Dr. Lentze, appointed August, 1910.
Minister for Interior—Herr von Loebell, appointed May, 1914.

Secretaries of State
Imperial Postoffice—Herr Kraetke
Imperial Secretary of Justice—Dr. Lisco.
Secretary for Foreign Affairs—Dr Alfred Zimmermann, appointed November, 1916.
President of the Food Regulation Board—Adolph von Batocki.
Dr. Richter,—Under Secretary of the Imperial Home Office, also resigned his post.

Dr. Karl Helfferich will continue to be the representative of the Imperial Chancellor and a member of the ministry of state and temporary Minister of the Interior.

Split up Economics Ministry
The Landrat Von Graevnitz was appointed to succeed Arnold Wonschaffe as Chief of the Imperial Chancellery.

The Ministry of Economics will ultimately be separated from this Ministry of the Interior, and Herr Waldraat, Mayor of Cologne, will be appointed Minister of the Interior; and Herr Schwander, Mayor of Strassburg, Minister of Economics, with the titles of Excellency.

In addition to the appointment of Dr. von Kuehlmann as Secretary for Foreign affairs, Herr Ruedlin was made Director of Railways and Minister of Posts and Privy Councillor von Krause was named Secretary of Justice. Vice President John Waldow was appointed Chief of the Department of Army Nourishment.

The vacant Prussian Ministerial posts were filled as follows;
Minister of Justice, Dr. Peter Spahn, leader of the Catholic Centre party in the Reichstag.
Minister of Interior, Under Secretary Dr. Eves.
Minister of Instruction, Ministerial Director Schmidt.
Minister of Agriculture, Dr. Essen Hartruthe.
Minister of Finance, Dr. Hertz.

Liberals are Disappointed.
Copenhagen, Aug. 6—The Liberal press of Germany is outspoken in its disappointment over the selections Chancellor Michaelis has made of his colleagues in the new Imperial and Prussian Ministries, which are held to show that the change effected is one of names only and not of the system. All the papers of this class agree in the view that there is not the new order of things. It is evident, comments The Vossische Zeitung that the course is set to the right-about from the liberal ideas now inspiring the people. Vorwaerts, the Socialist organ, speaks of the new Administration as one of "enlightened bureaucracy." The Tageblatt characterizes the new Ministers as in the main successful administrative officials. The nomination of two members of Parliament cannot, it says, be regarded as even a step toward Parliamentarism, because in the first place neither of the two is particularly liberal in his views or a strong believer in reforms in the direction of Liberalism, and in the second place both must under the present constitution resign their seats.

Dr. von Kuehlmann alone of the new officials is given favorable treatment by the Liberal organs. The Conservative and Pan-German newspapers are correspondingly aggrieved over his appointment.

Opposes Ruthless Sub War.
Amsterdam, Aug. 6—In a character sketch of Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann (just appointed German Secretary for Foreign Affairs), The Nieuwe Courant of The Hague says that Dr. von Kuehlmann has always been a vigorous opponent of ruthless submarine warfare. He is also, says the newspaper a disciple of the policy of doing everything possible to avoid the further alienation of Great Britain, believing that after the war friendship between Great Britain and Germany is necessary to the latter.

Dr. von Kuehlmann, The Nieuwe Courrant adds, is an anti-annexationist, and the newspaper expresses the opinion that in the Foreign Office von Krause will use his utmost to bring about an understanding with England at the earliest possible time.

GREAT AIR RAIDS MADE BY ITALIANS

Giant Plane Used In Course Of Attacks Upon Pola

(By PERCIVAL GIBBON.)
Italian Headquarters, Aug. 7—The Italians are launching against the Austrian naval port of Pola vast and startling flights of giant Caproni airplanes, each with a crew of four or five men, and as if to place upon the enterprise the final cachet of Italian perfection, with each raid there travels in the leading machine the single man whose words and gestures are followed breathlessly throughout the country, Gabriele d'Annunzio, the acclaimed poet of Italians. The Austrians, too, have been raiding lately, sprinkling bombs on many villages far from military objectives.

The Italian raids upon Pola during the nights of August 2 and 3 were not merely reprisals for many useless murders, but an assault upon the nest of submarines, airships, airplanes and war vessels with which Austria seals the entry to the Gulf of Trieste. The results, which are yet to be confirmed and balanced, are surely great. I have heard the statement of an aviator who took part that Pola as a naval base is already extensively damaged.

Thirty-six Machines in First Raid.
The first raid was carried out by thirty-six machines, including fast fighting machines, which escorted the great Caproni bomb droppers. It was like watching a flotilla of destroyers go to sea as the great machines moved off at four-minute intervals, taking up a perfect alignment against the sky. Motor boats were out to guide them to the Austrian coast, for there was a fog over the sea. The following night they again returned to the attack. This time a light fog favored the aviators, and eight tons of explosives were deposited where they were likely to do the most damage. The results were well observed, and are described as entirely satisfactory. I must await the precise details, but I hear on all hands that these will be startling.

HARVESTERS READ THIS.
The best way to the harvest fields of Western Canada is by the Canadian Northern Railway. Special through trains will be operated from Toronto to Winnipeg on excursion dates. The equipment will consist of electric lighted colonist cars and lunch counter cars specially designed to cater to the needs of large bodies of men at moderate rates. West of Winnipeg the demand for labor is correspondingly high. All particulars from John S. Dowling and Co. Ltd., town agents, or General Passenger Depts., Montreal, Quebec, and Toronto, Ont.

fire start up, either in the arsenal or in the submarine depot. Six and a half tons of bombs were dropped in all, and there would have been more but that the third wave of attackers failed to find purely military targets.

W. F. NICKLE, M. P.
of Kingston, who made an attack on the income measure, which he declared "involved no sacrifice as far as the rich man was concerned."
