

What Society is doing

AMERICAN ANSWER
(By R. W. Lillard)

Rest ye in peace, ye Flanders dead,
The torch ye threw to us we caught,
We've taken up, and we will keep
True faith with you who lie asleep.
With each a cross to mark his grave,
And poppies blooming overhead,
Where "Gee" his own life-blood ran
So let your rest be sweet and deep
In Flanders fields.

Fear not that ye have died for naught
The torch ye threw to us we caught,
Ten million hands will hold it high,
And Freedom's light shall never die,
We've learned the lesson that ye taught
In Flanders fields.

Many Brantford friends were sincerely sorry to hear of the sudden death in Montreal, following a slight operation, of Sir George Gibbons of London, one of the most prominent lawyers in this section of Ontario. Sir George was often a visitor to this city.

Mrs. Barron and Miss Alice returned home this week and are staying with Mrs. Barron's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Weibing, Nelson street. They were living in Germany when war was declared, but managed eventually to get to Switzerland, where they have been residing for the past four years or so. They only left there for this country after experiencing great difficulties in securing passports and transportation.

Quite a large number of the younger crowd motored over to Port Dover on the evening of Civic Holiday and took part in the cabaret dance at that popular resort. Dainty refreshments were served at small tables, the dancing taking place around them. The event was for Red Cross purposes and was under the auspices of the I.O.D.E. of Port Dover, a very substantial sum being realized. Mrs. Harvey Watt and Miss Hilda Hurley of Brantford were among the ladies who were responsible for this very successful affair.

A notable event transpired at Montreal last Saturday when Mr. H. B. Mackenzie, General Manager of the Bank of British North America, son of Archdeacon Mackenzie of this city was given a complimentary dinner and presented with a magnificent cabinet of silver by the staff of the Bank. Representative managers of the bank were present from all parts of the Dominion. Mr. Mackenzie is recognized as one of the leading bankers of Canada. He has occupied the chief position in the B.B.N.A. for some eight years, being the first Canadian to fill the General Manager's chair of that institution. It is understood that when the Bank of Montreal takes over the B.B.N.A. he will still retain a very prominent position indeed, with the united institutions.

A very pretty birthday party was held on Tuesday evening of this week at her residence, 12 Drummond street, for Mrs. J. W. Oles. Some twenty of her friends called, and after congratulations and good wishes had been exchanged, a dainty tea was served on the lawn. After tea, the guests spent the evening socially, the greater number remaining on the lawn as the coolest spot.

The military marriage which took place in St. Luke's church, Finchley, London recently of Miss Rusch to Lieut. Hale, R.E., recalls very vividly to the mind of musical Brantfordites the father and mother of the fair young bride, Mr. Rusch, who was on the B. B. N. A. here, a quarter of a century ago, was a pianist while above the ordinary amateur. Lieut. Hale, R.E., was a very brilliant pianist indeed. After the marriage here, Mr. and Mrs. Rusch returned to England, where they took up a prominent place in amateur musical circles in the Metropolls.

Miss Rosseter, England, who is on the staff of the Bishop Strachan School, has been spending a few days in the city the guest of Miss Edna Hately.

Mrs. Jas. G. Cockshutt has returned from St. Andrew's-on-the-Sea, where she has been spending the summer, and where there are a large number of guests from Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Boston, New York, Philadelphia and other leading centres.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Editor of "The English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.")

LESSON FOR AUGUST 11

HELPING OTHERS.

LESSON TEXTS—Luke 10:33-37; Galatians 6:2.

GOLDEN TEXT—Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

EVANGELICAL READING—Galatians 6:2-3.

PRIMARY LESSON MATERIAL—Luke 10:33-37.

INTERMEDIATE, SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—Who needs our help, and how can we best give it?

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Proverbs 17:7; Matthew 5:4; Romans 12:10-13; I Corinthians 13:1-3; I John 3:15-18.

1. Being a Neighbor (Luke 10:33-37).

The story of the Good Samaritan is Christ's answer to the lawyer's question: Who is our neighbor? He shifts the question so as to show that the supreme concern is not who is our neighbor, but whose neighbor am I? If I am Christ's, my supreme concern will be to find those who have need that I may be a neighbor to them. If we love God supremely, we shall find all along life's highway souls who have been wounded and robbed by sin, whom we can love as ourselves. To be a neighbor is to—

1. See those about us who need help (v. 33).
2. Love to discern need. Let us be on the lookout for those in need of our help.
3. Have compassion on the needy (v. 33).
4. Christ's pity was aroused as he came into contact with those who were suffering and in need. All those who have his nature will be likewise moved.
5. Go to those in need (v. 34).
6. Many are willing to give money to help the poor and needy, but are unwilling to personally minister to them. Many bring the help in need, but it is important that the material aid. We should give ourselves as well as our money.
7. Bind up the wounds (v. 34).
8. Many indeed are the wounds today which need our attention.
9. Bring to the inn and take care of our beasts while we walk (v. 34).
10. This is a proof that the love is genuine. Christians will deny themselves in order to have something to give to those who have need. This kind of sympathy is greatly needed today.
11. Bring to the inn and take care of the unfortunate (v. 34).
12. Genuine love does not leave its service incomplete. Much Christian service is spasmodic; helps once and then leaves a man to care for himself.
13. Give money (v. 35).
14. Give a good deal to be a neighbor. Love is the most expensive thing in the world. It cost God his only Son; it cost Christ his life. May we go and do likewise!
15. Living and Walking in the Spirit (Gal. 6:2).
16. Those who are truly justified in Christ will conduct themselves as follows:
  1. Restore the sinning brother (v. 1).
  2. Restore is a surgical term which means the placing back of a dislocated member in its place. We are members of the body of Christ, and the sinning of a brother ought to be as really give us pain as the dislocation of a member of our body. This service is to be done in the spirit of meekness, lest we also be tempted.
  3. Bear one another's burdens (v. 2).
  4. Support teachers of God's Word (v. 6).
17. Many are the burdens of life, burdens of weakness, temptation, sorrow, suffering and sin. Christ is the supreme burden-bearer. When we do this we fulfill the law of Christ.
18. Bear our own burdens (v. 5).
19. There are peculiar burdens incumbent upon each one to bear. These burdens cannot be borne by others.
20. Support teachers of God's Word (v. 6).
21. It is incumbent upon those who are taught in the Word of God to give of their means for the support of the teacher. To repudiate this obligation is mockery of God, for he ordains that they who preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel (I Cor. 9:14).
22. Be earnest in well-doing (v. 9).
23. Some fail of the reward because they give up when the goal is about to be reached.
24. Work for the good of all men (v. 10).
25. The one who is free in Christ will have sympathies and interests as wide as the race. He will especially strive to help those who are members of Christ's body.

True Service.

There is no service like his that serves because he loves—Sir Philip Sidney.

Vaunteth Not itself.

Put a seal upon your lips, and forget what you have done. After you have been kind, after Love has stolen forth into the world and done its beautiful work, go back into the shade again, and say nothing about it.

A Paradox.

It is one of the happy paradoxes of spirit that without dependence there can be no independence, and that precisely in proportion to our faith will be our intellectual and moral activity.—Susan B. Blow.

SIXTY FIVE HUNDRED MACHINES WERE BROUGHT DOWN

By Courier Leased Wire

London, Aug. 10.—Sixty-five German airplanes were destroyed by British aviators or driven down out of control in the fighting of August 8, when the allied offensive in Picardy opened, to-night's official statement on aviation operations showed fifty British machines are missing, the British losses being chiefly due to fire from the ground. The statement says:

"On Aug. 8, our airplane squadrons co-operated with other units on the battle front throughout the day. The line reached by our attacking infantry was reported by our contact airplanes. The position of the hostile artillery in action and columns of German infantry and transport on the march were signalled to our guns by our artillery machines. Other machines supplied our advance troops with ammunition from the air. Co-operation with the tanks was carried out systematically. Our machines assisted the tank crews in attacking strong points and other opposition with bombs and machine-gun fire and by dropping bombs along the line of their advance assisted to conceal the approach of the tanks from the enemy."

"Our bombing squadrons flying a few hundred feet from the ground attacked trains, railway junctions and bridges.

"Forty-eight hostile machines are reported as destroyed by our airplanes and seventeen others were driven down out of control. Five hostile balloons were shot down in flames. Fifty of our own machines are missing, most of these casualties being due to fire from the ground. One of our night-flying machines also failed to return."

"On August 9th our airmen continued the work of co-operating with the British Infantry, artillery, cavalry and tanks on the battlefront. German troops and transports were again attacked with bombs and machine-gun fire from a low height. The Somme bridges were heavily bombed by day and night."

"Elsewhere along the British front the activity in the air has been slight, but the work of photography, reconnaissance and observation has been carried on."
