

Hand Bags just brought to stock, also new lines of Boots and Shoes arriving daily.

Our stock is complete in every department and we ask the public to call and inspect the different lines and styles. We are the best kept stock and at the very lowest possible prices.

There are in the front rank and if you are looking for quality and popular prices will keep us in front of us.

MOWAT & JOHNSTON
THE PALACE SHOE STORE
1809 ESTABLISHED 1809
NORTH BRITISH AND MERCANTILE INSURANCE COMPANY
ONTARIO AND EDINBURGH
Head Office for Canada - Montreal
Capital $1,500,000
Funds Invested in Canada 4,482,762
Total Assets 5,982,764

Insures all kinds of property against Loss or Damage by Fire or Lightning at Current Rates.

E. A. BUCKMAN,
DISTRICT AGENT BROOKVILLE

COUNTY NEWS.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

BRANTFORD.
Monday, Dec. 4.—Mr. J. Bulger and wife were very pleasant party at Orchard Villa last Monday evening. Dancing was indulged in to 11 p.m. when a sumptuous tea was served to the guests.
Mr. Jas. Wight and wife celebrated the 16th anniversary of their marriage on Saturday last, by giving a party to invited friends.
Miss Kate Flood has left for Cranston to learn in 8 days (according to the recent American invention) the dress-making business, she will look out for her affairs and come this way to get nice fitting dresses.
Mr. T. Flood has gone to his brother Ed's ranch.
Miss Maggie Leader is learning the dress-making trade in Athens.
Mrs. Roman was a guest at Mr. Geo. Leader's last week.

FRONT OF SPONGE.

MONDAY, DEC. 4.—The Rev. Mr. Conley, of the Methodist church, notwithstanding the inclement weather, filled the pulpit of the Calistown church on last Sabbath. The congregation was very small.
The hall held in the hall in Westford last week was not a great success financially.
Mr. Ed. Andrew has taken into himself a new wife and has rented rooms from Mr. Henry Powell, of Calistown.
Mr. William White, of Calistown, has renovated the old house on the Carpenter property, which he recently purchased, and has just completed a very comfortable residence.
Mr. Bryant has rented a farm from Mr. Ezekiel Wilson for a period of one year.
B. Wilcock and H. Andrew have rented the new mill owned by George Stephens as a first class blacksmith shop.
We were very sorry to learn of the death of Dr. McChie. We were personally acquainted with the doctor, in years gone by, and said gentleman was then very popular in the north country.

A New Trial.

Barriar Lavel, of Smith's Falls, is in Toronto with the intention, it is said, of applying for a new trial for Charles Luckey. The Department of Justice at Ottawa will be asked to consider several points in the case. One is that the prisoner was acquitted and convicted on the same evidence at different trials, the first for the murder of his father. The Minister will also be asked to enquire into the homicidal tendencies of the prisoner and if these points have any weight the sentence may be changed to life imprisonment.

A Great Omen.

The Globe of Toronto is offering great inducements in connection with the weekly for 1894. To all subscribers who forward them one dollar by the end of December, they will send the Weekly Globe for 1894, and, in addition, present them with a copy of "Hints for the Million," published by Messrs Rand, McNally & Co., the celebrated publishers of Chicago and New York.

This work is an invaluable book of reference and handy for the household being a compendium of thousands of new and valuable recipes and suggestions on hygiene, medicine, business affairs, traveling, the workshop, laboratory, house, kitchen, garden, stable, etc. The regular selling price is 85c.; it is worth one dollar.

Press Notices.

Useful to an inquisitive and economical housekeeper.—New York Sun.
A book which will be found useful by everybody.—Boston Traveller.
A very useful thing for a handy person.—New Orleans Piousune.
The "Hints" are comprehensive enough, and the price is very reasonable. It is called a "Household Encyclopedia," Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.
More useful information could not well be crowded in the same space.—San Francisco Bulletin.
It will regulate household should be without a copy of "Hints for the Million."—Spirit of the Times.
In a wonderfully compact form a vast amount of information.—Manchester Union.
Great is the fence-viewer. Chief Justice Galt decided on Tuesday that there is no appeal from the decision of this rural authority on fences. Under the statute their finding is absolute. It was a case which Mr. DuVernet had from near Simcoe. The cattle of one farmer broke through the fence of another and caused $30 damage. The costs of the case are now over $400.

FAIRFAX.

SATURDAY, DEC. 3.—Misses Maggie Gwyn and Mary Lappan are at present visiting friends in Syracuse.
Dan McDonald and Lar Boyle spent Sunday in Delta.
Visitors: J. Donovan and wife, J. Lappan; H. and Mrs. B. Boyle; J. Bolger and sister at Mrs. B. Gwyn's; Mrs. Bolger and Hopkins at P. Lappan's.

SATURDAY, DEC. 2.—Mrs. J. A. Lawson was the guest of Mrs. B. Gwyn on Saturday last.
The lay press is in great prompt in the fulfillment of his duties about the church.
Messrs. J. Lawman and O. Sullivan passed through town this morning on their way to the country, where they intend buying a carload of horses

THE REPORTER
ATHENS, DEC. 5, 1899.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES EMPLOY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.

Local Announcements.

Billed Night Shows.

The Patrons of Industry have 170,000 members.

Last week Brockville jail contained eight male and two female prisoners.

J. P. Lamb, reeve, was in Brockville last week attending the session of the county council.

Carrriage built to order, repairing and painting done in first class style at moderate prices.—A. James.

No Reporter will be published next week, as we find it necessary to suspend publication for one issue in order to get out our Xmas number.

The first snow-storm of the season arrived on Sunday, a regular down-easter, making good sleighing.

Mr. Ransom, cattle buyer, of Delta, shipped a calf of this season, which tipped the beam at 665 lbs. He purchased the animal from James Caldwell, ir., Bristol, Que.

The Double Trace barber shop is in full swing, under the management of Mr. Wm. J. Conlin, a first-class barber from Smith's Falls, who will be pleased to meet all old customers, also all new ones.

Colonial chamber sets—pink, brown, blue and grey—only $2, and full dinner sets in all the new colors for $6.50, at China Hall, Brockville—T. W. DENNIS.

It is said that partridges are very scarce this year and that foxes are making great havoc. Our laws will have to be amended again so as to give us less fox and more partridges.

The question of a House of Industry for these counties was once more shelved by the counties council last week, though Reeve Connolly, of Calistown, made a vigorous fight in its behalf.

In the Methodist church on Sunday morning, the pastor read the report of about fifty candidates for membership, also the names of a dozen or more who will unite with other appointments on this week.

The chief state game protector is credited with saying that the past season has seen the largest slaughter of deer in many years. He estimates the number of deer killed in the Adirondacks since August 15, the opening of the season, at fully 1,200.

The illustrated number of the Reporter, which will be issued about the 15th Dec., will be sold put up in wrappers for mailing at 10c. per copy. Orders sent direct to the office will be promptly filled as soon as the edition leaves the press.

The anniversary services in the Baptist church on Sunday were well attended, though the unfavorable weather must have deterred many, from a distance from coming. Rev. Mr. Cain, of Drummond, occupied the pulpit morning and evening, and the service was, in particular, was very much enjoyed.

Our readers will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Frank H. McCrea, which occurred at Colton, Cal., on Friday last. Until a few years ago deceased resided near Brockville and was one of the most progressive farmers of the county. Failing health caused him to move to California, where he successfully conducted a large ranch.

Great is the fence-viewer. Chief Justice Galt decided on Tuesday that there is no appeal from the decision of this rural authority on fences. Under the statute their finding is absolute. It was a case which Mr. DuVernet had from near Simcoe. The cattle of one farmer broke through the fence of another and caused $30 damage. The costs of the case are now over $400.

Prohibitionists.

For the information of those interested, we would remind them that, according to the Plebiscite Act, the Town Clerk shall attend at his office on the second Monday in December, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of appointing agents to attend at the polling places, and at the final summing up of the votes. Two agents for each side of the question are allowed, at every polling place, and are selected by the Town Clerk from among the applicants for such appointment. Before any person is appointed he is required to make a declaration that he is interested in promoting or opposing the question, as the case may be.

THE REPORTER
ATHENS, DEC. 5, 1899.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES EMPLOY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.

Local Announcements.

Billed Night Shows.

The Patrons of Industry have 170,000 members.

Last week Brockville jail contained eight male and two female prisoners.

J. P. Lamb, reeve, was in Brockville last week attending the session of the county council.

Carrriage built to order, repairing and painting done in first class style at moderate prices.—A. James.

No Reporter will be published next week, as we find it necessary to suspend publication for one issue in order to get out our Xmas number.

The first snow-storm of the season arrived on Sunday, a regular down-easter, making good sleighing.

Mr. Ransom, cattle buyer, of Delta, shipped a calf of this season, which tipped the beam at 665 lbs. He purchased the animal from James Caldwell, ir., Bristol, Que.

The Double Trace barber shop is in full swing, under the management of Mr. Wm. J. Conlin, a first-class barber from Smith's Falls, who will be pleased to meet all old customers, also all new ones.

Colonial chamber sets—pink, brown, blue and grey—only $2, and full dinner sets in all the new colors for $6.50, at China Hall, Brockville—T. W. DENNIS.

It is said that partridges are very scarce this year and that foxes are making great havoc. Our laws will have to be amended again so as to give us less fox and more partridges.

The question of a House of Industry for these counties was once more shelved by the counties council last week, though Reeve Connolly, of Calistown, made a vigorous fight in its behalf.

In the Methodist church on Sunday morning, the pastor read the report of about fifty candidates for membership, also the names of a dozen or more who will unite with other appointments on this week.

The chief state game protector is credited with saying that the past season has seen the largest slaughter of deer in many years. He estimates the number of deer killed in the Adirondacks since August 15, the opening of the season, at fully 1,200.

The illustrated number of the Reporter, which will be issued about the 15th Dec., will be sold put up in wrappers for mailing at 10c. per copy. Orders sent direct to the office will be promptly filled as soon as the edition leaves the press.

The anniversary services in the Baptist church on Sunday were well attended, though the unfavorable weather must have deterred many, from a distance from coming. Rev. Mr. Cain, of Drummond, occupied the pulpit morning and evening, and the service was, in particular, was very much enjoyed.

Our readers will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Frank H. McCrea, which occurred at Colton, Cal., on Friday last. Until a few years ago deceased resided near Brockville and was one of the most progressive farmers of the county. Failing health caused him to move to California, where he successfully conducted a large ranch.

Great is the fence-viewer. Chief Justice Galt decided on Tuesday that there is no appeal from the decision of this rural authority on fences. Under the statute their finding is absolute. It was a case which Mr. DuVernet had from near Simcoe. The cattle of one farmer broke through the fence of another and caused $30 damage. The costs of the case are now over $400.

Prohibitionists.

For the information of those interested, we would remind them that, according to the Plebiscite Act, the Town Clerk shall attend at his office on the second Monday in December, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of appointing agents to attend at the polling places, and at the final summing up of the votes. Two agents for each side of the question are allowed, at every polling place, and are selected by the Town Clerk from among the applicants for such appointment. Before any person is appointed he is required to make a declaration that he is interested in promoting or opposing the question, as the case may be.

THE REPORTER
ATHENS, DEC. 5, 1899.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES EMPLOY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.

Local Announcements.

Billed Night Shows.

The Patrons of Industry have 170,000 members.

Last week Brockville jail contained eight male and two female prisoners.

J. P. Lamb, reeve, was in Brockville last week attending the session of the county council.

Carrriage built to order, repairing and painting done in first class style at moderate prices.—A. James.

No Reporter will be published next week, as we find it necessary to suspend publication for one issue in order to get out our Xmas number.

The first snow-storm of the season arrived on Sunday, a regular down-easter, making good sleighing.

Mr. Ransom, cattle buyer, of Delta, shipped a calf of this season, which tipped the beam at 665 lbs. He purchased the animal from James Caldwell, ir., Bristol, Que.

The Double Trace barber shop is in full swing, under the management of Mr. Wm. J. Conlin, a first-class barber from Smith's Falls, who will be pleased to meet all old customers, also all new ones.

Colonial chamber sets—pink, brown, blue and grey—only $2, and full dinner sets in all the new colors for $6.50, at China Hall, Brockville—T. W. DENNIS.

It is said that partridges are very scarce this year and that foxes are making great havoc. Our laws will have to be amended again so as to give us less fox and more partridges.

The question of a House of Industry for these counties was once more shelved by the counties council last week, though Reeve Connolly, of Calistown, made a vigorous fight in its behalf.

In the Methodist church on Sunday morning, the pastor read the report of about fifty candidates for membership, also the names of a dozen or more who will unite with other appointments on this week.

The chief state game protector is credited with saying that the past season has seen the largest slaughter of deer in many years. He estimates the number of deer killed in the Adirondacks since August 15, the opening of the season, at fully 1,200.

The illustrated number of the Reporter, which will be issued about the 15th Dec., will be sold put up in wrappers for mailing at 10c. per copy. Orders sent direct to the office will be promptly filled as soon as the edition leaves the press.

The anniversary services in the Baptist church on Sunday were well attended, though the unfavorable weather must have deterred many, from a distance from coming. Rev. Mr. Cain, of Drummond, occupied the pulpit morning and evening, and the service was, in particular, was very much enjoyed.

Our readers will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Frank H. McCrea, which occurred at Colton, Cal., on Friday last. Until a few years ago deceased resided near Brockville and was one of the most progressive farmers of the county. Failing health caused him to move to California, where he successfully conducted a large ranch.

Great is the fence-viewer. Chief Justice Galt decided on Tuesday that there is no appeal from the decision of this rural authority on fences. Under the statute their finding is absolute. It was a case which Mr. DuVernet had from near Simcoe. The cattle of one farmer broke through the fence of another and caused $30 damage. The costs of the case are now over $400.

Prohibitionists.

For the information of those interested, we would remind them that, according to the Plebiscite Act, the Town Clerk shall attend at his office on the second Monday in December, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of appointing agents to attend at the polling places, and at the final summing up of the votes. Two agents for each side of the question are allowed, at every polling place, and are selected by the Town Clerk from among the applicants for such appointment. Before any person is appointed he is required to make a declaration that he is interested in promoting or opposing the question, as the case may be.

THE REPORTER
ATHENS, DEC. 5, 1899.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES EMPLOY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.

Local Announcements.

Billed Night Shows.

The Patrons of Industry have 170,000 members.

Last week Brockville jail contained eight male and two female prisoners.

J. P. Lamb, reeve, was in Brockville last week attending the session of the county council.

Carrriage built to order, repairing and painting done in first class style at moderate prices.—A. James.

No Reporter will be published next week, as we find it necessary to suspend publication for one issue in order to get out our Xmas number.

The first snow-storm of the season arrived on Sunday, a regular down-easter, making good sleighing.

Mr. Ransom, cattle buyer, of Delta, shipped a calf of this season, which tipped the beam at 665 lbs. He purchased the animal from James Caldwell, ir., Bristol, Que.

The Double Trace barber shop is in full swing, under the management of Mr. Wm. J. Conlin, a first-class barber from Smith's Falls, who will be pleased to meet all old customers, also all new ones.

Colonial chamber sets—pink, brown, blue and grey—only $2, and full dinner sets in all the new colors for $6.50, at China Hall, Brockville—T. W. DENNIS.

It is said that partridges are very scarce this year and that foxes are making great havoc. Our laws will have to be amended again so as to give us less fox and more partridges.

The question of a House of Industry for these counties was once more shelved by the counties council last week, though Reeve Connolly, of Calistown, made a vigorous fight in its behalf.

In the Methodist church on Sunday morning, the pastor read the report of about fifty candidates for membership, also the names of a dozen or more who will unite with other appointments on this week.

The chief state game protector is credited with saying that the past season has seen the largest slaughter of deer in many years. He estimates the number of deer killed in the Adirondacks since August 15, the opening of the season, at fully 1,200.

The illustrated number of the Reporter, which will be issued about the 15th Dec., will be sold put up in wrappers for mailing at 10c. per copy. Orders sent direct to the office will be promptly filled as soon as the edition leaves the press.

The anniversary services in the Baptist church on Sunday were well attended, though the unfavorable weather must have deterred many, from a distance from coming. Rev. Mr. Cain, of Drummond, occupied the pulpit morning and evening, and the service was, in particular, was very much enjoyed.

Our readers will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Frank H. McCrea, which occurred at Colton, Cal., on Friday last. Until a few years ago deceased resided near Brockville and was one of the most progressive farmers of the county. Failing health caused him to move to California, where he successfully conducted a large ranch.

Great is the fence-viewer. Chief Justice Galt decided on Tuesday that there is no appeal from the decision of this rural authority on fences. Under the statute their finding is absolute. It was a case which Mr. DuVernet had from near Simcoe. The cattle of one farmer broke through the fence of another and caused $30 damage. The costs of the case are now over $400.

Prohibitionists.

For the information of those interested, we would remind them that, according to the Plebiscite Act, the Town Clerk shall attend at his office on the second Monday in December, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of appointing agents to attend at the polling places, and at the final summing up of the votes. Two agents for each side of the question are allowed, at every polling place, and are selected by the Town Clerk from among the applicants for such appointment. Before any person is appointed he is required to make a declaration that he is interested in promoting or opposing the question, as the case may be.

THE REPORTER
ATHENS, DEC. 5, 1899.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES EMPLOY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.

Local Announcements.

Billed Night Shows.

The Patrons of Industry have 170,000 members.

Last week Brockville jail contained eight male and two female prisoners.

J. P. Lamb, reeve, was in Brockville last week attending the session of the county council.

Carrriage built to order, repairing and painting done in first class style at moderate prices.—A. James.

No Reporter will be published next week, as we find it necessary to suspend publication for one issue in order to get out our Xmas number.

The first snow-storm of the season arrived on Sunday, a regular down-easter, making good sleighing.

Mr. Ransom, cattle buyer, of Delta, shipped a calf of this season, which tipped the beam at 665 lbs. He purchased the animal from James Caldwell, ir., Bristol, Que.

The Double Trace barber shop is in full swing, under the management of Mr. Wm. J. Conlin, a first-class barber from Smith's Falls, who will be pleased to meet all old customers, also all new ones.

Colonial chamber sets—pink, brown, blue and grey—only $2, and full dinner sets in all the new colors for $6.50, at China Hall, Brockville—T. W. DENNIS.

It is said that partridges are very scarce this year and that foxes are making great havoc. Our laws will have to be amended again so as to give us less fox and more partridges.

The question of a House of Industry for these counties was once more shelved by the counties council last week, though Reeve Connolly, of Calistown, made a vigorous fight in its behalf.

In the Methodist church on Sunday morning, the pastor read the report of about fifty candidates for membership, also the names of a dozen or more who will unite with other appointments on this week.

The chief state game protector is credited with saying that the past season has seen the largest slaughter of deer in many years. He estimates the number of deer killed in the Adirondacks since August 15, the opening of the season, at fully 1,200.

The illustrated number of the Reporter, which will be issued about the 15th Dec., will be sold put up in wrappers for mailing at 10c. per copy. Orders sent direct to the office will be promptly filled as soon as the edition leaves the press.

The anniversary services in the Baptist church on Sunday were well attended, though the unfavorable weather must have deterred many, from a distance from coming. Rev. Mr. Cain, of Drummond, occupied the pulpit morning and evening, and the service was, in particular, was very much enjoyed.

Our readers will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Frank H. McCrea, which occurred at Colton, Cal., on Friday last. Until a few years ago deceased resided near Brockville and was one of the most progressive farmers of the county. Failing health caused him to move to California, where he successfully conducted a large ranch.

Great is the fence-viewer. Chief Justice Galt decided on Tuesday that there is no appeal from the decision of this rural authority on fences. Under the statute their finding is absolute. It was a case which Mr. DuVernet had from near Simcoe. The cattle of one farmer broke through the fence of another and caused $30 damage. The costs of the case are now over $400.

Prohibitionists.

For the information of those interested, we would remind them that, according to the Plebiscite Act, the Town Clerk shall attend at his office on the second Monday in December, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of appointing agents to attend at the polling places, and at the final summing up of the votes. Two agents for each side of the question are allowed, at every polling place, and are selected by the Town Clerk from among the applicants for such appointment. Before any person is appointed he is required to make a declaration that he is interested in promoting or opposing the question, as the case may be.

THE REPORTER
ATHENS, DEC. 5, 1899.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES EMPLOY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.

Local Announcements.

Billed Night Shows.

The Patrons of Industry have 170,000 members.

Last week Brockville jail contained eight male and two female prisoners.

J. P. Lamb, reeve, was in Brockville last week attending the session of the county council.

Carrriage built to order, repairing and painting done in first class style at moderate prices.—A. James.

No Reporter will be published next week, as we find it necessary to suspend publication for one issue in order to get out our Xmas number.

The first snow-storm of the season arrived on Sunday, a regular down-easter, making good sleighing.

Mr. Ransom, cattle buyer, of Delta, shipped a calf of this season, which tipped the beam at 665 lbs. He purchased the animal from James Caldwell, ir., Bristol, Que.

The Double Trace barber shop is in full swing, under the management of Mr. Wm. J. Conlin, a first-class barber from Smith's Falls, who will be pleased to meet all old customers, also all new ones.

Colonial chamber sets—pink, brown, blue and grey—only $2, and full dinner sets in all the new colors for $6.50, at China Hall, Brockville—T. W. DENNIS.

It is said that partridges are very scarce this year and that foxes are making great havoc. Our laws will have to be amended again so as to give us less fox and more partridges.

The question of a House of Industry for these counties was once more shelved by the counties council last week, though Reeve Connolly, of Calistown, made a vigorous fight in its behalf.

In the Methodist church on Sunday morning, the pastor read the report of about fifty candidates for membership, also the names of a dozen or more who will unite with other appointments on this week.

The chief state game protector is credited with saying that the past season has seen the largest slaughter of deer in many years. He estimates the number of deer killed in the Adirondacks since August 15, the opening of the season, at fully 1,200.

The illustrated number of the Reporter, which will be issued about the 15th Dec., will be sold put up in wrappers for mailing at 10c. per copy. Orders sent direct to the office will be promptly filled as soon as the edition leaves the press.

The anniversary services in the Baptist church on Sunday were well attended, though the unfavorable weather must have deterred many, from a distance from coming. Rev. Mr. Cain, of Drummond, occupied the pulpit morning and evening, and the service was, in particular, was very much enjoyed.

Our readers will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Frank H. McCrea, which occurred at Colton, Cal., on Friday last. Until a few years ago deceased resided near Brockville and was one of the most progressive farmers of the county. Failing health caused him to move to California, where he successfully conducted a large ranch.

Great is the fence-viewer. Chief Justice Galt decided on Tuesday that there is no appeal from the decision of this rural authority on fences. Under the statute their finding is absolute. It was a case which Mr. DuVernet had from near Simcoe. The cattle of one farmer broke through the fence of another and caused $30 damage. The costs of the case are now over $400.

Prohibitionists.

For the information of those interested, we would remind them that, according to the Plebiscite Act, the Town Clerk shall attend at his office on the second Monday in December, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of appointing agents to attend at the polling places, and at the final summing up of the votes. Two agents for each side of the question are allowed, at every polling place, and are selected by the Town Clerk from among the applicants for such appointment. Before any person is appointed he is required to make a declaration that he is interested in promoting or opposing the question, as the case may be.

THE REPORTER
ATHENS, DEC. 5, 1899.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES EMPLOY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.

Local Announcements.

Billed Night Shows.

The Patrons of Industry have 170,000 members.

Last week Brockville jail contained eight male and two female prisoners.

J. P. Lamb, reeve, was in Brockville last week attending the session of the county council.

Carrriage built to order, repairing and painting done in first class style at moderate prices.—A. James.

No Reporter will be published next week, as we find it necessary to suspend publication for one issue in order to get out our Xmas number.

The first snow-storm of the season arrived on Sunday, a regular down-easter, making good sleighing.

Mr. Ransom, cattle buyer, of Delta, shipped a calf of this season, which tipped the beam at 665 lbs. He purchased the animal from James Caldwell, ir., Bristol, Que.

The Double Trace barber shop is in full swing, under the management of Mr. Wm. J. Conlin, a first-class barber from Smith's Falls, who will be pleased to meet all old customers, also all new ones.

Colonial chamber sets—pink, brown, blue and grey—only $2, and full dinner sets in all the new colors for $6.50, at China Hall, Brockville—T. W. DENNIS.

It is said that partridges are very scarce this year and that foxes are making great havoc. Our laws will have to be amended again so as to give us less fox and more partridges.

The question of a House of Industry for these counties was once more shelved by the counties council last week, though Reeve Connolly, of Calistown, made a vigorous fight in its behalf.

In the Methodist church on Sunday morning, the pastor read the report of about fifty candidates for membership, also the names of a dozen or more who will unite with other appointments on this week.

The chief state game protector is credited with saying that the past season has seen the largest slaughter of deer in many years. He estimates the number of deer killed in the Adirondacks since August 15, the opening of the season, at fully 1,200.

The illustrated number of the Reporter, which will be issued about the 15th Dec., will be sold put up in wrappers for mailing at 10c. per copy. Orders sent direct to the office will be promptly filled as soon as the edition leaves the press.

The anniversary services in the Baptist church on Sunday were well attended, though the unfavorable weather must have deterred many, from a distance from coming. Rev. Mr. Cain, of Drummond, occupied the pulpit morning and evening, and the service was, in particular, was very much enjoyed.

Our readers will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Frank H. McCrea, which occurred at Colton, Cal., on Friday last. Until a few years ago deceased resided near Brockville and was one of the most progressive farmers of the county. Failing health caused him to move to California, where he successfully conducted a large ranch.

Great is the fence-viewer. Chief Justice Galt decided on Tuesday that there is no appeal from the decision of this rural authority on fences. Under the statute their finding is absolute. It was a case which Mr. DuVernet had from near Simcoe. The cattle of one farmer broke through the fence of another and caused $30 damage. The costs of the case are now over $400.

Prohibitionists.

For the information of those interested, we would remind them that, according to the Plebiscite Act, the Town Clerk shall attend at his office on the second Monday in December, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of appointing agents to attend at the polling places, and at the final summing up of the votes. Two agents for each side of the question are allowed, at every polling place, and are selected by the Town Clerk from among the applicants for such appointment. Before any person is appointed he is required to make a declaration that he is interested in promoting or opposing the question, as the case may be.

THE REPORTER
ATHENS, DEC. 5, 1899.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES EMPLOY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.

Local Announcements.

Billed Night Shows.

The Patrons of Industry have 170,000 members.

Last week Brockville jail contained eight male and two female prisoners.

J. P. Lamb, reeve, was in Brockville last week attending the session of the county council.

Carrriage built to order, repairing and painting done in first class style at moderate prices.—A. James.

No Reporter will be published next week, as we find it necessary to suspend publication for one issue in order to get out our Xmas number.

The first snow-storm of the season arrived on Sunday, a regular down-easter, making good sleighing.

Mr. Ransom, cattle buyer, of Delta, shipped a calf of this season, which tipped the beam at 665 lbs. He purchased the animal from James Caldwell, ir., Bristol, Que.

The Double Trace barber shop is in full swing, under the management of Mr. Wm. J. Conlin, a first-class barber from Smith's Falls, who will be pleased to meet all old customers, also all new ones.

Colonial chamber sets—pink, brown, blue and grey—only $2, and full dinner sets in all the new colors for $6.50, at China Hall, Brockville—T. W. DENNIS.

It is said that partridges are very scarce this year and that foxes are making great havoc. Our laws will have to be amended again so as to give us less fox and more partridges.

The question of a House of Industry for these counties was once more shelved by the counties council last week, though Reeve Connolly, of Calistown, made a vigorous fight in its behalf.

In the Methodist church on Sunday morning, the pastor read the report of about fifty candidates for membership, also the names of a dozen or more who will unite with other appointments on this week.

The chief state game protector is credited with saying that the past season has seen the largest slaughter of deer in many years. He estimates the number of deer killed in the Adirondacks since August 15, the opening of the season, at fully 1,200.

The illustrated number of the Reporter, which will be issued about the 15th Dec., will be sold put up in wrappers for mailing at 10c. per copy. Orders sent direct to the office will be promptly filled as soon as the edition leaves the press.

The anniversary services in the Baptist church on Sunday were well attended, though the unfavorable weather must have deterred many, from a distance from coming. Rev. Mr. Cain, of Drummond, occupied the pulpit morning and evening, and the service was, in particular, was very much enjoyed.

Our readers will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Frank H. McCrea, which occurred at Colton, Cal., on Friday last. Until a few years ago deceased resided near Brockville and was one of the most progressive farmers of the county. Failing health caused him to move to California, where he successfully conducted a large ranch.

Great is the fence-viewer. Chief Justice Galt decided on Tuesday that there is no appeal from the decision of this rural authority on fences. Under the statute their finding is absolute. It was a case which Mr. DuVernet had from near Simcoe. The cattle of one farmer broke through the fence of another and caused $30 damage. The costs of the case are now over $400.

Prohibitionists.

For the information of those interested, we would remind them that, according to the Plebiscite Act, the Town Clerk shall attend at his office on the second Monday in December, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of appointing agents to attend at the polling places, and at the final summing up of the votes. Two agents for each side of the question are allowed, at every polling place, and are selected by the Town Clerk from among the applicants for such appointment. Before any person is appointed he is required to make a declaration that he is interested in promoting or opposing the question, as the case may be.

THE REPORTER
ATHENS, DEC. 5, 1899.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES EMPLOY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.

Local Announcements.

Billed Night Shows.

The Patrons of Industry have 170,000 members.

Last week Brockville jail contained eight male and two female prisoners.

J. P. Lamb, reeve, was in Brockville last week attending the session of the county council.

Carrriage built to order, repairing and painting done in first class style at moderate prices.—A. James.

No Reporter will be published next week, as we find it necessary to suspend publication for one issue in order to get out our Xmas number.

The first snow-storm of the season arrived on Sunday, a regular down-easter, making good sleighing.

Mr. Ransom, cattle buyer, of Delta, shipped a calf of this season, which tipped the beam at 665 lbs. He purchased the animal from James Caldwell, ir., Bristol, Que.

The Double Trace barber shop is in full swing, under the management of Mr. Wm. J. Conlin, a first-class barber from Smith's Falls, who will be pleased to meet all old customers, also all new ones.

Colonial chamber sets—pink, brown, blue and grey—only $2, and full dinner sets in all the new colors for $6.50, at China Hall, Brockville—T. W. DENNIS.

It is said that partridges are very scarce this year and that foxes are making great havoc. Our laws will have to be amended again so as to give us less fox and more partridges.

The question of a House of Industry for these counties was once more shelved by the counties council last week, though Reeve Connolly, of Calistown, made a vigorous fight in its behalf.

In the Methodist church on Sunday morning, the pastor read the report of about fifty candidates for membership, also the names of a dozen or more who will unite with other appointments on this week.

The chief state game protector is credited with saying that the past season has seen the largest slaughter of deer in many years. He estimates the number of deer killed in the Adirondacks since August 15, the opening of the season, at fully 1,200.

The illustrated number of the Reporter, which will be issued about the 15th Dec., will be sold put up in wrappers for mailing at 10c. per copy. Orders sent direct to the office will be promptly filled as soon as the edition leaves the press.

The anniversary services in the Baptist church on Sunday were well attended, though the unfavorable weather must have deterred many, from a distance from coming. Rev. Mr. Cain, of Drummond, occupied the pulpit morning and evening, and the service was, in particular, was very much enjoyed.

Our readers will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Frank H. McCrea, which occurred at Colton, Cal., on Friday last. Until a few years ago deceased resided near Brockville and was one of the most progressive farmers of the county. Failing health caused him to move to California, where he successfully conducted a large ranch.

Great is the fence-viewer. Chief Justice Galt decided on Tuesday that there is no appeal from the decision of this rural authority on fences. Under the statute their finding is absolute. It was a case which Mr. DuVernet had from near Simcoe. The cattle of one farmer broke through the fence of another and caused $30 damage. The costs of the case are now over $400.

Prohibitionists.

For the information of those interested, we would remind them that, according to the Plebiscite Act, the Town Clerk shall attend at his office on the second Monday in December, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of appointing agents to attend at the polling places, and at the final summing up of the votes. Two agents for each side of the question are allowed, at every polling place, and are selected by the Town Clerk from among the applicants for such appointment. Before any person is appointed he is required to make a declaration that he is interested in promoting or opposing the question, as the case may be.

THE REPORTER
ATHENS, DEC. 5, 1899.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES EMPLOY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.

Local Announcements.

Billed Night Shows.

The Patrons of Industry have 170,000 members.

Last week Brockville jail contained eight male and two female prisoners.

J. P. Lamb, reeve, was in Brockville last week attending the session of the county council.

Carrriage built to order, repairing and painting done in first class style at moderate prices.—A. James.

No Reporter will be published next week, as we find it necessary to suspend publication for one issue in order to get out our Xmas number.

The first snow-storm of the season arrived on Sunday, a regular down-easter, making good sleighing.

Mr. Ransom, cattle buyer, of Delta, shipped a calf of this season, which tipped the beam at 665 lbs. He purchased the animal from James Caldwell, ir., Bristol, Que.

The Double Trace barber shop is in full swing, under the management of Mr. Wm. J. Conlin, a first-class barber from Smith's Falls, who will be pleased to meet all old customers, also all new ones.

Colonial chamber sets—pink, brown, blue and grey—only $2, and full dinner sets in all the new colors for $6.50, at China Hall, Brockville—T. W. DENNIS.

It is said that partridges are very scarce this year and that foxes are making great havoc. Our laws will have to be amended again so as to give us less fox and more partridges.

The question of a House of Industry for these counties was once more shelved by the counties council last week, though Reeve Connolly, of Calistown, made a vigorous fight in its behalf.

In the Methodist church on Sunday morning, the pastor read the report of about fifty candidates for membership, also the names of a dozen or more who will unite with other appointments on this week.

The chief state game protector is credited with saying that the past season has seen the largest slaughter of deer in many years. He estimates the number of deer killed in the Adirondacks since August 15, the opening of the season, at fully 1,200.

The illustrated number of the Reporter, which will be issued about the 15th Dec., will be sold put up in wrappers for mailing at 10c. per copy. Orders sent direct to the office will be promptly filled as soon as the edition leaves the press.

The anniversary services in the Baptist church on Sunday were well attended, though the unfavorable weather must have deterred many, from a distance from coming. Rev. Mr. Cain, of Drummond, occupied the pulpit morning and evening, and the service was, in particular, was very much enjoyed.

Our readers will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Frank H. McCrea, which occurred at Colton, Cal., on Friday last. Until a few years ago deceased resided near Brockville and was one of the most progressive farmers of the county. Failing health caused him to move to California, where he successfully conducted a large ranch.

Great is the fence-viewer. Chief Justice Galt decided on Tuesday that there is no appeal from the decision of this rural authority on fences. Under the statute their finding is absolute. It was a case which Mr. DuVernet had from near Simcoe. The cattle of one farmer broke through the fence of another and