SIGNS OF THE SEASON

Dedicated to my friends the authors of "If I were Crawl" and "If you were Crawl."
This is not a poem of cackling hens, singing birds, nor balmy days. Nothing soft about it but the soap which your good wives may perhaps use. It will not serve to bring Heaven any nigher, nor make mankind any happier. On the opposite, the things about which I have written, will, I think, have a tendency to bring the more snuffy place of the two perpetuities within hailing distance.

Faithfully Your Friend
Crawl.
When at night your wife gets restless and she kind of hints at bugs, And at morning takes to hunting 'neath the mattresses and rugs, When she talks of new wall paper and she squints at window panes, And her eyes see finger marks on everything and stains, When she starts to get up early dons a tattered dress and blouse, Don't you think that she's gone batty, she's just going to cleaning house.

You will eat upon the washstand, and you'll sleep upon the floor, On the sapsuds you'll be sliding and this life will be a bore, You will find your Sunday 'rousters mixed with kettles, pots and pans, And for a while you'll have no regular place to wash your hands, For one whole week and over she will shake and dust and douse, It will be a taste of hades when she gets to cleaning house.

You will find your christy chumming with the oil can in the sink, And the smell of disinfectives will make you sneeze and wink, You will find your shoes and rubbers in the woodshed or the yard, And for your books and papers they won't have the least regard, She'll have an ancient huzzy to help her dust and shake, And with her you'll have to settle and fix the things she'll break.

Course she will do the grunting but the lifting's up to you And you'll be bruised and battered before the thing is through, For bedroom, kitchen, pantry she will scrub and rub and souse, Till the spasm has subsided and she's through a cleaning house.

District News

FRANKVILLE
After a year's illness, Mrs. George Eaton passed away on the 12th inst. in her 70th year. There was a very large funeral, service being conducted in the Methodist church by Rev. W. Henderson. Mrs. Eaton had a deeply religious nature and was a faithful wife and sympathetic mother. She is survived by three sons and one daughter, viz.: Jasper in New York city, Clark and Frank here, and Mrs. Lett Kelly, Athens.

ELOIDA
A son was born to Mr and Mrs C. Kilborn.
The young people spent a very pleasant evening at the home of Miss Iva Hause.

Fred Scovil and Austin Craig unloaded their car of hay last week.
Mr Tweeddale, recently arrived from the Old Country, settled in A. Henderson's house, with whom he has engaged for the summer.
A. Cole has moved to the Kincaid house.

Wm Henderson has sold his horse to Bissel, for the West.
Mrs H. Crummy is ill, under Dr. Dixon's care.
The roof of A. Henderson's horse barn collapsed, owing to the heavy weight of snow.

PRINTED BY REQUEST

Mix the following by shaking well in a bottle, and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime.
Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Karger, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. A local druggist is the authority that these simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at nominal cost from our home druggists.
The mixture is said to cleanse and strengthen the clogged and inactive kidneys, overcoming Backache, Bladder weakness and Urinary troubles of all kinds, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Those who have tried this say it positively overcomes pain in the back, clears the urine of sediment and regulates urination, especially at night, curing even the worst forms of bladder weakness.
Every man or woman here who feels that the kidneys are not strong or acting in a healthy manner should mix this prescription at home and give it a trial, as it is said to do wonders for many persons.
The Scranton (Pa.) Times was first to print this remarkable prescription, in October, of 1906, since when all the leading newspapers of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and other cities have made many announcements of it to their readers.

THE TWO INVINCIBLES

Cod Liver Oil and Iron
Cod Liver oil and iron in some form or other are prescribed by physicians the world over, more than any other two remedies the world has ever known for anemia or poor blood, weakness, convalescence, and all wasting and pulmonary diseases.
Iron, because it is the basis of the blood and without a sufficient amount the blood is impoverished, watery, pale and impure.
Cod Liver Oil, because it contains curative and reconstructive qualities greater than that possessed by any other medicinal agent.

In Vinol, modern science has given to the world a combination of these two world-famed tonics—Cod Liver Oil and Iron, but shorn of all useless oil or disagreeable features.
Vinol is made by a scientific, extractive and concentrating process from fresh cod's livers, combining with peptonate of iron all the medicinal, healing, body building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil.
As a body builder and strength creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, after sickness, and for Chronic Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles, Vinol is unexcelled.

We ask Athens people to give Vinol a trial. It won't cost anything unless it gives satisfaction. J. P. Lamb & Son, Druggists, Athens, Ont.

GLEN MORRIS

March 9.—A young resident of Charleston undertook to snuffly our Glen with members of the foline tribe, but the supply was greater than the demand, so "the cat came back."

Miss Cora Langdon, Greenbush, has been visiting friends here for the past two weeks.

Mrs Eugene Howard has returned from a recent visit with friends at Glen Buell.

Mrs B. Beale and sister, Miss Payne of Charleston, and Mrs James Hanna and son were guests of Mr A. Wilson and family last week.

Mrs S. Halladay, Ellisville, has returned home after a pleasant visit with her daughter, Mrs A. W. Thornhill.

Miss Minnie Burns visited her sister Mrs Ed Foster last week.

Mr Wesley Morris has sold his pony to a village resident, and it will be much missed from our street.

Miss Addie Gibert, Soperton, was the guest of Mrs C. B. Howard last week.

A fire broke out in the pocket of one of our popular young men but his quick movements served to promptly extinguish it.

We take pleasure in offering congratulations and extending a hearty welcome to Mr Charles Heffernan and bride, who will be near residents of this section.

Mr and Mrs A. Hawkins made a visit to North Augusta friends last week and attended a wedding there.

Mr Geo Gibson and family have moved to the Clark Wiltsie farm on the stone road.

Mr Royal Moore and son have sold a large number of cedar posts this winter.

Mr and Mrs Wesley Davis and Mr and Mrs Johnson Frye, Soperton, were guests at Mr Johnson Morris' on Sunday.

Mar. 16—Mr A Wiltsie has returned after visiting his niece Mrs George Langdon, Greenbush.

Mrs Landon, Lyndhurst, was recently a guest of her sister Mrs James Hanna.

The mysterious disappearance of a bag of grain belonging to Ed Foster is causing considerable wonder through the neighborhood.

The Misses Wiltsie, Athens, Miss Gertie Young, Athens, and Miss Effie Gallagher, Newboro, were guests of Mrs E. A. Thornhill on Saturday last.

Mr M. Bailey, Winchester, is the guest of his sister, Mrs Kolar Wiltsie.

Mrs N. Trickey and two children are spending a few weeks here, the guests of her father, Mr Sam Covey.

Mrs James Hanna went to Elgin last week to visit her mother, who is very ill.
Mr W. J. and Miss M. A. Earl of Philippsville were guests of Mr Johnson Morris last week.

IN THE LIME-LIGHT

Since the Ontario Legislature opened Brockville's representative, Mr A. E. Donovan, M.P.P., has been very much in the lime light of publicity.

At the annual banquet of Ward 4 Conservatives, Toronto, Mr Donovan occupied a seat at the guest table in company with Hon. George Foster, Hon. J. J. Foy, Hon. Dr. Pyne, Edmund Bristol, M.P.; Claude Macdonell, M.P.; W. K. McNaught, M.L.A.; and Dr. Beattie Nesbitt.

The Toronto World says: A. E. Donovan, M.L.A., was introduced as the man who cleared the docks at Brockville, and he took the opportunity of reminding the working men that if they had any hopes for the future they lay in dependence upon Premier Whitney. Mr Donovan spoke at some length, and introduced vocal interludes in his remarks.

And the Toronto News, in its "On the Side" column, publishes a singing likeness of Brockville's member, followed by the classic stanzas here given:—

TWAS AT A Tory meeting, Stephen Burns was in the Chair, There was a smile on every face, for Jimmie Foy was there, And Pyne, so fair and beautiful and George E. Foster, too, And little Claudia Mac-don ELL with eyes of stately blue.

Oh, it was such a noble chance to flagellate the foe, So Foster waved his ghostly arm and let his language flow, He mined, and sapped, and drilled and dug to stop the grafters' raid, He walloped ev'rything in sight and called a spade a spade.

And ev'rybody grinned a grin about six inches wide, And strong vociferous "Hear-hear's" were heard from ev'ry side, But in the great assembly there was not a single man So full of joy and fierce delight as A. E. Donovan.

He hissed the name of Laurier, he flouted poor Brodeur, He gloated o'er the scandals that are likely to occur, He cheered for "Sliver" Foster with a wild ecstatic joy, And closed his eyes in rapture at the fervent words of Foy.

The night wore on, and Steve declared with an entrancing smile That Mr A. E. Donovan would spell-bind for a while, "I won't SAY anything, But if the Chairman will permit, I shall attempt to sing."

Ah, how can words describe the scene, the horror and dismay, The hunted look in every eye, the faces ashy grey, And who can tell how silently the fellows sought the door, Their scalding tear drops making mud upon the dusty floor.

The song was dead. The echoes died. The Hall was strangely still, For those who had not fled away were feeling faint and ill. "By George, it ain't so worse, As soon as I am well again, please sing another verse."

A GREAT DEBATE

The debate under the auspices of the Epworth League on Monday evening proved interesting, profitable and entertaining. The subject was Resolved—"That in the affairs of men love is a more potent force than the force gained from all possible knowledge."

Affirmative—Rev C. J. Curtis of Addison (leader), Rev D. W. Pomeroy Miss Duncan, Mrs Towriss.
Negative—Rev W. N. Scott (leader) Mr J. E. Burchell, Miss Cummer, Miss McLean.

Chairman, Rev S. J. Hughes; time-keeper, Mr H. H. Arnold; judges, Rev R. B. Patterson, Rev I. N. Beck and G. F. Donnelly.

The debate was conducted on a high plane in respect to both matter and manner of delivery, and whether the arguments were advanced in tones of Demosthenic declamation or in the soft pleadings suited to the presentation of domestic love as a force, not a harsh note was struck. It was an intellectual battle worthy to rank with the higher class of intercollegiate contests.

The judges retired and after giving the merits of the debate full consideration they returned and reported the verdict to be two to one in favor of the negative.
Music was furnished by the Misses Gairford in cornet duets and by Mr W. B. Percival with his Victor gramophone.

Warm sugar was served in the basement, and the large audience spent a very sweet and sociable hour there.

ST. REGIS LUMBAGO CURE
INDIAN REMEDY.
Guaranteed to Cure Lame Back or money refunded!
An excellent remedy for Rheumatism, Lame Back, Etc., Etc.

Read the following testimonial from a man you all know:
Portland, Feb. 8, 1908.
Mr. W. A. Singleton, Crosby, Ont.
Dear Sir—In the winter of 1905 I was laid up with La Grippe and unable to get relief from several other patent medicines. I was convinced by several of my neighbors to try St. Regis Lumbago Cure, and I can thankfully say it was the first-thing that gave me immediate relief. Since that time I have never been without it in my house, and cannot speak too highly of it, especially for children, as it will break up a cold at once. I have also found it a sure cure for lame back.
You are at liberty to use my name for reference if you wish to publish it for the benefit of others. I am yours truly,
W. A. VANKOUGHNET.

If your dealer does not keep this medicine kindly ask him to order same for you as any sized order will be filled promptly.
