That drawn, squinting expression, een on the faces of many older people is often erroneously attributed to age, or "a life of care" or "raising a large family." Such alleged reasons may occasionally be valid ones, but the fact still remains that these unnatural facial conditions are often due to de-fective eyes and the need of right glasses to remove muscular and ner-yous strain. Save your nervous en-ergy. Let good glasses do the work now imposed on over-taxed muscular and nerve force. Glasses to fit any eye. E. J. MacIntyre, leading optician, opposite Grand Opera House.

HAD A LIVELY TIME. Residents of Park street were treated to a lively set to Tuesday evening in which bad language and a club wielded by a colorlanguage and a club wielded by a colored woman figured conspicuously. A man endeavored to effect an entrance into the residence of Sarah Bentley. The woman du't take kindly to his visit and met him half way with a club. She upper cut, under cut and lambasted the fellow until he cried for mercy. The man got a terrable beating but he managed to shuffle off and get out of reach finally.

IRISHMEN'S PICNIC. The Irishmen's picnic will be held at Ericau on Wednesday, 25 inst., and extensive arrangements have been completed to make it a great success. A long list of con-tests are being arranged for and the selec-tion of a number of valuable prizes has al-ready been made. An energetic committee has about perfected all details and the list will be published in a few days. Com-munications addressed to Geo. M. Baird, secretary, Blenheim, will have prompt at tention.

Chatham, July 12, 1900.

Editor of The Planet. Dear Sir,-We, who have been Mr. mith's associates in the Central schoo', wish to take this public way of stating that in the years we have known him he has been thoughly honorable and truly consider-ate towards us. While we fully appreciate the serious nature of what has happened, we cannot forget his many years of faithful and honest work; hence we still have con-fidence in the integrity of our principal. We regret that several of our associates are out of town, but we know that if they were here, their names would appear below with

A LAST MESSAGE. New York, July 12 .- A despatch to the Journal from Che Foo, July 8, says: A courier from Sir Robert Hart, in Pekin, has just arrived bringing this message, dated June 25: "Close to good-bye. Near the end."

LITTLE TO HOPE FOR. London, July 12 .- To-day's news tends to confirm the pessimism in London concerning the fate of the international colony in Pekin. Observ-ers see in the edict from Pekin and other information emanating from Chinese official sources only attempts to gain time, and desperate anxiety on the part of someone to make an apology for the outrages committed at the Capital. The latest news from Tien Tsin considerably intensifies the control alarm. The lack of cohesion general alarm. The lack of cohesion among the allies and the consequent failure to make headway render the situation critical.

Teacupful of Diamonds and Other Gems Found at Galesburg.

Supposed to Have Belonged to a My sterious Doctor Who Disappeared 40 Years Ago.

Galesburg, Mich., July 12. - Forty years ago an old doctor, who had prac-ticed in Galesburg for a considerable period, mysteriously disappeared. For a long time previous to the occurrence robberies had been frequent, bu no clue had ever been obtained. On Tuesday, in clearing out an ancient garret, there was found a skull which was identified as having belonged to

It was an object of considerable curi osity, and was frequently handled, and as some boys were looking it over, a hidden spring was accidentally touched, causing a section at the top of the ghastly relic to open, revealing a tea cupful of gems, largely diamonds, thus concealed.

It is believed the doctor was one of the old-time robbers and that the gems were a part of the spoil derived from the assassination of early set-
