Grand Fro Notes.

Evangeline Division celebrated its eighteenth anniversary on Monday evening. A musical and literary programme was presented and suitable refreshments were provided. A very pleasant evening was spent. The division is in a healthy condition with prospects of a successful winter's work.

The Methodists are making preparations for holding a "Goose Supper" about the 20th. The successful character of such entertainments in the past should be sufficient to ensure a full house on this occasion.

On Saturday evening, Nov. 14th, the members of "Evangeline" Division plan to pay a fraternal visit to Gasperon Division, when an enjoyable time will no doubt be had.

The farmers have had a bad time harvesting their crops this fall. Most of the apples are now gathered, but a great many potatoes are yet in the ground.

The Yarmouth Herald reports 500 men at work on the Coal Railway between Yarmouth and Barrington, and that Robt. G. Harvey expects to start work on the railway from Shelburne to Colodonia, Queens Co., to connect at New Germany with the Nova Scotia Central.

The members of "Lily of the Valley" Division at Port Williams gave a very pleasant Hallowe'en party in their hall last Saturday evening. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

One of the most enjoyable social events of the season was the party given by Mrs. J. M. Hayes, on Wednesday evening last. Music, and games of various kinds were provided, and a delightful evening was spent by all.

There was not much of a stir in town Hallowe'en. A few beds decorated with burnt cork, and a few "pepa yans devils," were in evidence, but there was no serious deviation from the accustomed serene and quiet order of things.

There was quite a little excitement occasioned in town on Saturday afternoon last by a pugilistic encounter in which one of our popular young townsmen figured most creditably. It is not safe to interfere with Her Majesty's mails. It's bad for the eyes.

The Amherst Record is no more. But the Gazette has risen phoenix-like from its ashes. Editor Black gets out a neatly printed and interesting sheet, and of late has adorned it with a handsome, red cloak, which together with its clean dress, makes a very stylish journal.

A meeting of the farmers and fruit growers of the County will be held at Kentville, to-morrow. Addresses will be delivered by Hon. Mr. Fisher, minister of agriculture, Hon. Dr. Borden, B. W. Chapman, Sec. of agriculture, and others. Matters of supreme importance to the horticultural and agricultural interests of the County will be discussed.

The members of Wolfville Division held a "Silver Social" in their hall on Wednesday evening, which was a most enjoyable affair. Besides the members and a few invited friends a number were present from "Lily of the Valley" Division, of Port Williams. The evening was passed in the usual social way, and closed with a short musical programme. Refreshments were provided during the evening.

To accommodate those who wish to attend the Farmers' and Fruit-growers' meeting in Kentville on Saturday, the A. railway have kindly made the following arrangements: Excursion return tickets at one first-class fare will be issued from Windsor, Kingston and Kingsport, and intermediate stations, to Kentville, and will return same day. Special trains will leave Kentville for Kingston at 4.00 p. m., and the express train going west will leave Kentville at 3.30 p. m. Meetings will be called to order sharp 2.00 p. m.

Pretty Autumn Weddings.

Forsyth-Neary.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Greenwich, on Wednesday afternoon, the contracting parties of which were Mr Charles E. Forsyth and Ethel D., only daughter of Mr Elijah Neary. The day was one of the pleasantest of the season, and between forty and fifty invited guests were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Hale, pastor of the Methodist church, Wolfville. The bride looked charming, attired in light green casimers trimmed with white brocade silk. The bouquet was of roses and maiden hair ferns. After the ceremony luncheon was served, and at 3.45 o'clock Mr and Mrs Forsyth, accompanied by a number of the guests, drove to Port Williams station, where express amid showers of rice and good wishes. After the bridal trip to Greenwich, where they will be at home to friends Nov. 17th, 18th and 19th. The ACADIAN extends congratulations. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and handsome presents, including a gold watch and chain, fifty dollars in cash, a full china dinner set, a full china tea set and abundance of silver-ware.

Stevens-Newcombe.

Another pretty wedding took place at the Baptist church, Port Williams, yesterday morning at nine o'clock, when Miss Ella Newcombe, daughter of Mr Henry Newcombe, of Church Street, was united in marriage to Mr S. A. Stevens, the popular young merchant of Port Williams. The church, which was tastefully trimmed for the occasion with evergreens and autumn leaves, was well filled with relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride wore a travelling costume of bangle cloth, and looked charming. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Louise Newcombe, while the groom was supported by Mr Percy Borden, of Kentville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr Martell, of Canard, assisted by Rev. Mr Ford. The happy couple accompanied by a number of friends, drove to the station, where they took the morning express for St. John, en route for a short wedding tour. They have the congratulations of a host of friends with whom the ACADIAN heartily joins in best wishes. The presents were numerous and handsome.

Money to lend on mortgage.

A valuable ox, belonging to Mr John L. Gertridge, of Gasperon, was killed by last Friday's evening express from Halifax.

The principal and teachers of Acadia Seminary will be at home to friends, and to all interested in the school, on Monday, Nov. 16th, from 2.45 to 4 o'clock, p. m.

Mr John McGorman, a highly respected resident of Horton, dropped dead at his home, while sitting in his chair, on Saturday morning last. Heart failure is supposed to have been the cause of death. Mr McGorman was about 65 years of age. The funeral was held on Monday morning, the services being conducted by Rev. F. M. McDonald.
