

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., OCT. 16, 1908.

Editorial Notes.

The Western Chronicle professes great distress because of the participation of the clergymen in the present election campaign in this county. It makes a subtle threat that because of the action of the ministers the election may be voided. How about a cabinet minister attempting to buy a whole community with the promise of a post office? Does our contemporary fail to see the point?

Wolfville people will be glad to learn that we are to have a much improved light service in the near future. The Acadia Electric Light Co. has this week entered into a contract with the Canada General Electrical Co. for the installation of an up-to-date alternating current system, which will include new pole line and a new system of wiring. The apparatus will be the very best obtainable and the new system will be in operation by the middle of November.

The careful attention of our readers is directed to an article on the first page of this paper, headed "A National Bar." This article is copied from the Montreal Daily Witness, which can never be charged with trying to make political capital out of the statement. The Witness, as everybody knows, is a strong Liberal journal—though always a fair one. Its remarks will be of special value in view of recent statements made at a public meeting here concerning the abolition of the bar in the House of Commons.

Notwithstanding the very disagreeable night there was a good attendance of towns people at the opening lecture of the College, which took place last Friday evening in Assembly Hall. The faculty and students of the different educational institutions were also present. Rev. J. W. Brown, Ph. D., of Gasperau, was the speaker, his subject being "Gnosticism." The address was a scholarly one, indicating deep research and careful preparation. At the close of the lecture the new members of the College faculty, Prof. W. A. Coit, R. E. Bates and H. G. Hartmann, were introduced and made fitting remarks.

The Maritime Baptist.

The organ of the Baptist denomination of the Maritime Provinces says, "We have hope that the time may not be so very far away when the large body of honest and intelligent voters to be found in every constituency will refuse to be controlled by the party machines, when it will be imperatively demanded that the men put in nomination shall be in a high degree worthy of respect and support, when the man who is drunk or dishonest and the man who is known to have used the opportunities of public position to line his own pockets will no longer dare to ask for election to the Parliament of Canada."

Men addicted to drunkenness and dissolute habits, men shamelessly immoral in their lives, men whose great aim and effort in public life has been to triumph for their party rather than the welfare of the country, and men who are in politics purely for the sake of personal advantage, will no doubt be found in the coming Parliament, as such men have been in preceding Parliaments, and many votes of temperance men and Christian men will be recorded in their support.

This is the most discouraging feature of the whole situation, that so many of the best men in the constituencies still place party interests above the demands of righteousness. "Can this go on indefinitely? We hope not."

The Maritime Baptist, also quotes with approval from The Montreal Star as follows:

"Any man who sat in Parliament or its committees and openly obstructed enquiry into charges of wrongdoing or into suspicious accounts, should be removed from the path of the light. This country cannot afford to have a single member of Parliament who will sell his mandate for a private profit. It cannot afford to have a member of Parliament, who will use a position of trust for his own enrichment. It cannot afford to have a member of Parliament who will constitute himself a defender of 'grafters' and a bulwark of equities. It cannot afford to have men in public life of notorious evil characters. Yet it is clear that we cannot depend upon the parties to purge themselves. They are led in their professions, but their 'machinery' appears to be in the very grasp of men who hold their professions and will set the best intentions at naught. These latter secure the nominations and stand forth as the standard-bearers of purity, honesty and integrity. This is more than farcical; it is perilous to the public welfare. It teaches the rising generation that character does not count. It instills into our young men the lesson that the proper way to get on in life is to profess the highest principles for the getting of the simple and then to utterly ignore them in practice, that they may line their own pockets. To what end their teaching will lead, must be all too plain."

The cure now lies with the electors. They must purge Parliament. They must demand the men who have shown themselves unworthy of trust. They must not bow for their previous parties, for this policy, if followed everywhere, will be the ruin of the country. Better a Parliament of novices than a Parliament of men who have been tried and found wanting. And we say, best of all.

ME. W. R. Geldart has been engaged to give a number of addresses in the county. He will be at Gasperau this evening and will be able to tell all about the bar in the House of Commons.

The Candidates.

DEAR SIR,—The campaign now in progress and which will terminate on the 26th of this month is not merely a contest between the two great parties of this country, but a contest for the principles of righteousness on the one hand and the upholding of wrongdoing on the other.

We are willing to admit that all governments have sinned, but for glaring audacity, for the bitter defiance of law and morality, the shameless and reckless extravagance of the public domain and the rake-offs of the countless jobs manipulated by the members of the cabinet within the last twelve years, is without parallel in the history of Canada and calls with persistent and increasing force to every independent elector to protest and cast his vote for reform.

The present representative of the county of Kings and the reform candidate are characters of distinct and opposite types. The former has since his youth up been the subject of many scandals, and his political life has left a slimy trail of 'vain tricks and dark ways.' If elected and the government is sustained he will go back to be an abettor and conspirator with the grafters and continue the practice of irregular and questionable methods with doubtless greater degree.

The life of the reform candidate is one of conspicuous contrast. As a business man and a worker for the good of his fellow men his character is unimpeachable. The platform and principles on which he appeals to the electorate of the county of Kings is worthy of the serious consideration and hearty support of every voter, be he Liberal or Conservative.

The plea made the other day in defence of the character of the present incumbent by one of his ardent supporters, that if he sometimes got drunk and did wicked and foolish things it was because he couldn't help it for the reason that he inherited the drink habit, shows that with some party is stronger than right or honor or the religion they profess. Shall the county of Kings, on which providence has laid his bountiful hand, have been a menace to the morals of society and a check to the progress of righteousness? Voters! let your conscience speak.

The meeting held in the Wolfville rink in the interests of Sir Fred Borden has been reported as the largest ever held under such auspices. Many there were who went to the meeting thinking they would hear the opposition candidate. This factor with a lot of boys assisted materially to make up the audience, but enthusiasm was lacking. The meeting at Gasperau was conspicuously represented by two of Sir Fred's supporters who within the last year became insolvent and paid, or promised to pay, twenty-five cents on the dollar. Another prominent representative of questionable origin has been paid during the last dozen campaigns and between times, deals out the dope and other things at the approaching election day.

The sneers and intemperate made by those who oppose the platform of the normal reform candidate methinks is not going to assist the government candidate. Although the Liberal-Conservative party, as a party, is not organized to do aggressive work or support a party candidate in this election in this county, yet there is and will be a most persistent effort on the part of every Liberal-Conservative in this county with a view to many Liberals to run a clean election and support the reform candidate. ELECTOR.

Owes Cure to Zam-Buk.

Prominent Manager's Telling Testimony.

Mr. D. R. Gourlay, advertising manager for the well-known piano firm of Gourlay, Winter & Leeming, Toronto and Winnipeg, is amongst the prominent men and women who testify to Zam-Buk's great curative power. He writes to the Company as follows:

"Gentlemen,—I have pleasure in stating that upon the recommendation of a relative I purchased a box of your remedy (Zam-Buk), and by a few applications entirely cured a very severe sprain of the back. While not given to indiscriminate use of, or belief in, patent medicines, I can conscientiously recommend Zam-Buk."

"Sincerely yours,
(Signed) D. R. Gourlay."

That is just where Zam-Buk proves its superiority! It is treated by men and women who have tried it, as altogether different to ordinary preparations. Doctors, hospital nurses, trainees, matrons of convalescent homes—all give Zam-Buk a good word; and better still they use it. Zam-Buk is as good for muscular stiffness, sprains, rheumatism and sciatica as it is for skin troubles. Hockey players and athletes in general find it invaluable. For eruptions, pustules, scalp sores, itch, eczema, ulcers, boils, abscesses, blood poison, cuts, burns, bruises and abrasions, it is a speedy cure. Takes the soreness out of wounds almost instantly, and kills all disease germs, thus preventing festering and inflammation. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. a box, or post free from the Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, by price 6 boxes for $2.50. Send 10c. stamp for trial box.

Canning Items.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Alma Fay Melvin and Mr. Alfred Coffin Cox, to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Melvin, on Wednesday morning, Oct. 21st, at eight o'clock.

The pulpit of the Upper United Baptist church was occupied on Sunday evening by Rev. D. Armstrong, who gave a most helpful address. A social solo, "Beautiful Land of Beulah" was rendered very sweetly by Miss Rising, of St. John.

Mr. Jost Hennigar and bride, of Boston, are spending their honeymoon at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hennigar.

Rev. Horace Kinnaman with his mother and four children has moved into the Wallace Newcomb property, on Main street.

Mrs. Osgood, accompanied by her niece, Miss Millie Jodie, is spending a few weeks in Boston.

Among the recent visitors to our town have been Mr. and Mrs. Dowden, of Halifax; Mrs. George Patriquin, of Silvertown, Colorado; Mrs. Annie Roberts, of York, Mrs. Morris, of Parrsboro; Miss Folker, of Hantsport; Mr. Harry Loomer and bride, of Amherst; Miss Edith Ellis, of Dorchester, Mass.; Mrs. A. S. Gould and Miss May Gould of Lunenburg, N. S.

A goodly number of the people of Canning enjoyed the forceful and inspiring address given by Rev. Dr. Shearer, Secretary of the Social and Moral Reform League of the Presbyterian church in Canada, at the meeting of the Temperance Alliance held in Oddfellow's Hall on Tuesday evening, Sept. 29th.

The millinery openings of Miss Besse Hennigar, Missie Baxter and R. D. G. Harris were unusually attractive this year owing to the great variety of styles, and the beauty of the coloring of the material employed.

A meeting of the Liberals was held in the warehouse of the Cornwallis Trading Co., on Tuesday evening of last week, the speakers being Sir P.

Apples Wanted

FOR COLD STORAGE

AT ST. JOHN, N. B.

The New Brunswick Cold Storage Co., has room for 100,000 barrels of apples, fitted with the most modern equipment whereby the apples will be carried at a uniform temperature of 32 degrees which is considered ideal for carrying apples.

We give the full season until May 1st for 25 cts. per barrel or 10 cts. per barrel per month for shorter terms.

Transportation. We will take your apples from your nearest station and ship them via St. John for as low a rate as can be obtained via Halifax and give you the benefit of the best and fastest steamers from Canadian ports or we will take your apples to St. John from all ports in the Minas or Annapolis Basins for 15 cts. per barrel.

Insurance. We insure your apples with Lloyds at 50 cts. per $100.00 per year which our customers enjoy.

Advances. We advance One Dollar per barrel on good apples if desired, which can be repaid when apples are taken out if we forward them to foreign markets to be sold for your account, we retain this from the proceeds, or by refunding the advance you can ship to any one you desire or sell locally.

Forwarding. We act as forwarding agents and will send your goods to any market you desire, or we will sell them either in the local markets, or export them to those markets, which in our judgment will realize the best returns having responsible selling agencies not only with the usual buyers in London, Liverpool and Glasgow, but also in Manchester, Bristol, Cardiff, Birmingham, Sheffield, Bradford, Hull, Leith, Aberdeen, Dundee, Belfast and also on the continent in Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Belgium and France.

Condition. We are positive apples will carry better in cold storage than in fruit houses and will realize net more money to you after paying our charges than if stored free in the valley, especially in this true this season as our apples have suffered from the hot weather and will easily scald or burn before in your storages if you get any warm weather during the winter.

Buying. We are prepared to purchase 25,000 lbs. of your apples at going prices to show our faith in this proposition and to prove that they will keep when taken out of store will have on Exhibition at Kentville some of your apples grown last year that were exposed to very hot weather for a full week at the St. John Exhibition.

For further information apply to the Manager, H. R. Ross, St. John, N. B., or the President, J. J. Graham, Aberdeen Hotel, Kentville.
