OBITUARY.

Death of Mrs. Freeman—Funerals of the Day.

Mrs. Jane A. Freeman, widow of the late Mr. R. K. Freeman, of Toronto, died on Saturday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. P. McBride, 20 Wentworth street south, after an illness of four months. Her husband died last December, and she was taken sick soon afterwards. Coming to this city to her daughter's home, she received every care and kindness that loving hands could bestow. She suffered with patience towards the end, but passed away peacefully. She is survived by one son, Mr. Fred Freeman, of Toronto, and one daughter, Mrs. McBride. The interment took place today at Clarkson. A service was held at the house at 12:45 p. m., conducted by Rev. R. J. Treleven, and the pall-bearers were Messrs. A. Turnbull, C. Gardner, T. Leeming, N. Ellis, B. Sloan and J. H. Land.

The funeral of Roy, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Robson, took place yesterday afternoon from his parents' residence, 175 Gibson avenue, Rev. H. G. Livingston conducted the services. A large number of floral tributes were laid on the casket.

The funeral of James Burgess took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 247 Park street north, and was largely attended. Rev. J. C. Sycamore conducted the services, and the pall-bearers were George, William, Ira, Frank and Ford Burgess and H. Siple.

The remains of Anthony Walker were laid at rest yesterday afternoon, the funeral taking place from the residence of his brother, William Walker, 433 King street west. Rev. P. W. Philpott conducted the services, and the pall-bearers were G. Crawford, E. Rolston, A. James, D. Crawford, J. Harper and M. Crawford.

Mrs. Alice Osborne, widow of Landen Osborne, died at the City Hospital on Sunday after a lingering illness, in her 47th year. She had been a resident of this city for fifteen years, and leaves one son, who does not reside in the city. The funeral will take place on Tuesday at 2 p. m., from her late residence, 464 Herrie street east.

George Horne, for the past two years an inmate of the House of Refuge, passed away this morning after a brief illness, he was seized by a big crowd of angry natives, tied up and severely beaten. His wives and children were carried off, his goats killed and eaten and all his property was destroyed—Laurencia Marques Guardian.

Albert Brock, a bright lad of seventeen years, died at the residence of his parents, 10 Jones street, yesterday afternoon, after a lingering illness with Bright's disease. He was employed at the M. Eager box factory until his sickness, and was a favorite with all whom he came in contact with. The funeral will take place on Tuesday at 2:30 p. m.

Hon. Thomas Crawford laid the cornerstone of the new College Street Methodist Church on Saturday. The total loss approximates about eight thousand dollars with only two hundred dollars insurance.

Walkerville, Ont., April 27.—The building of the Tecumseh Boat Club was burned to the ground during the prevalence of a severe thunder storm last night. Four racing shells, six row-boats, three canoes and two launches were lost in the fire but the severest loss to the club is that of the ten oared barge "Ellie" which was the club's by Mr. Walker and Sons, and valued at $1,000.

Mass., and his wife, married in February, committed suicide because he could not get work.

There is nothing new in the situation regarding the Buck moulders' strike. The union men still have pickets on duty, notifying all incomers that a strike is on at the shop.

The Brantford & Hamilton Radial Co. is taking on a large number of men this week, to rush matters for the completion of the entrance along the canal bank in this city.
