the Medes, and founded the Medo Per-of bracelets valued at nearly a million be adequately filled. sterling. One is remarkable for the "sea of light," a diamond said to be of unequalled lustre, but nearly equalled by the "Crown of the Moon" which adorns the other arm. His peacock throne, one of the spoils of India, carried off by Nadir Shah, is an object of great barbaric magni care than the finest race horses in Eu-wretched condition of Cooperage Hill Teheran was dotted with the bodies of executed under their direction during dead and dying, some of them half de King of kings hangs his ministers as a ful condition—dirt and rubbish making propitiatory offering to his suffering peo-ple. Our present visitor is only 43 years it almost impassable; and notwithstandsons will contain notes more important Sessions held here on the 7th inst., than those of naval reviews, dinners, and contains the following: dances in the evening, visitors to the "The Grand Jury beg to present that jesty appreciates the necessity of being in good condition." replies to various addresses have been well conceived and elegantly expressed,

all Prizer relcomed the Slate

the address, which was read by Sir W. so many burdens, will have the honor of mises since the closing, the old "Ram' H. Bodkin, and conveyed the usual comsharing the expense; and the glory, pliments and good wishes in sufficiently should any acrue from it, of this project.
Well-turned phrases.

The Herald and the Graphic have taken where he will doubtless remains come. His Majesty's reply to the address was up the matter, and we expect soon to learn that the required amount of money, time longer. The business is now carwelcome from the loyal subjects of Her made four hundred and sixty balloon as-Majesty the Queen in the same spirit as censions, his voyage in one case extendthat in which it is offered. He can never forget the early date and the long continuunce of the friendly relations which have existed besween the Governments have existed besween the Governments of the first of the distance across the Atlantic. "Objections," says the Graphic, "are out of date." The Herald has not only had a correspondent interview the Professor. of England and Persia, and, believing as he does, that the interest of the two countries are in the East to a great extent identical, he is perfectly satisfied that there interests are in the East to a great extent identical, he is perfectly satisfied that there is no countries are in the East to a great extent identical, he is perfectly satisfied that there is no countries are in the East to a great extent identical. The Herdita has not only had a correspondent interview the Professor, but publishes a strong editorial in favor of the enterprise. In the interview the balloonist told the correspondent that he

BÛK STÀX.

HARBOR GRACE, JULY 15, 1873.

voured by dogs. Often the famines oc- the past year could scarcely have been cur in districts because the roads are in more insignificant, or less satisfactory of age, but he has done something in the ing the fact that the notice of those hanging line, for one of the Persian whose duty it is to look after such matters statesmen of the present century, Mirza has been from time to time called therecan be governed; and judging from all state." If money has been voted for we know of him and his country, there is the construction and repairs of roads,

The Atlantic Balloon Project mot Abandoned.

Though Poston has failed to supply Professor Wise with the necessary funds to defray his proposed arial voyage not despair, and it is now likely that New York, whose broad shoulders have borned.

We are pleased to notice the re-opening of the mercantile premises formerly occupied by Messrs. Rutherford Brothers, and no less pleased to learn that our old friend G. C. Rutherford, Esq., has made his appearance at the head of the firm. Although changes have taken place in affairs connected with the pre-

where he will doubtless remain some

Society. LAYING THE CORNER STONE OF A

NEW HALL.

DEATH OF LORD MARJORIBANKS OF LADY ing been concluded, and His Lordship of Western Asia, subdued part of Nor- KIRK.—It is with profound sorrow that we having been moved to the chair, he next tenance of Persia in its territory and in the neighborhood fancied he heard thern Africa, aspired to conquest in South have to make the announcement that the proceeded to deliver to the assembled its importance as a Central Asiatic cries of children about one o'clock in the ern Europe, and was scattered by Alex. severe illness from which Lord Marjori- multitude an eloquent and affective ad- Power. ander the Great about 331 before the banks has been suffering for more than a dress, in the course of which he expatiat-John's brethren, at a dinner at Jocelyn's. guard against it, ticulars.- Ibid.

of wood or iron which separates life may be turned to good account, if only tent, and fears are entertained for the the lessons of a European journey have safety of some of the dwellings in the lessons of a European journey have safety of some of the dwellings in the lessons of a European journey have safety of some of the dwellings in the lessons of a European journey have safety of some of the dwellings in the latter settlement.

Once discovered and published to the latter settlement. world, these murderous machines must Mayor of London and the Alcalde of A STAINED glass window, to the WE are pleased to notice the re-open- be abandoned by their infernal con- Vigo.

MEWS TEMS.

of whom seven and a half millions reside in cities, towns, and villages, while the remainder are Kurds, Turkomans, Afghans, and Arabs, who claim the lordship of the dignity so recently conferred upon he brought before his audience in all its of coal and an abundance of provisions, stitution might carry him through, and it no small degree to the general prosperity of the country. His Lordship next representation of coal and an abundance of provisions, as it is intended that she shall supply was the sincere desire of men of all shades of the country. His Lordship next representation in the lordship of the country was the sincere desire of men of all shades of the country. His Lordship next representation in the lordship of the country was the sincere desire of men of all shades of the country. His Lordship next representation in the lordship of the country was the sincere desire of men of all shades of the country. His Lordship next representation in the lordship of the country was the sincere desire of men of all shades of the country. His Lordship next representation in the lordship of the country was the sincere desire of men of all shades of the country. His Lordship next representation in the lordship of the country was the sincere desire of men of all shades of the country. His Lordship next representation in the lordship of the country was the sincere desire of men of all shades of the country. His Lordship next representation is the country was the sincere desire of men of all shades of the country was the sincere desire of men of all shades of the country. His Lordship next representation is the country was the sincere desire of men of all shades of the country. His Lordship next representation is the country was the sincere desire of men of all shades of the country. His Lordship next representation is the country was the sincere desire of men of all shades of the country. His Lordship next representation is the country was the sincere desired in the country was the sincere desired in the country was th certain uninhabited districts, are completely uneducated, and derive their subsistence principally from their flocks, eat hard, black bread or barley or rye with their cheese or curds, and are friendly or the flower place upon Lord Marjoribanks' element, that the tidings of his death their cheese or curds, and are friendly or the flower place upon Lord Marjoribanks' element, that the tidings of his death their cheese or curds, and are friendly or the flower place upon Lord Marjoribanks' element, the Juniata carries a large steam better part of valour, and almost simulation of such, which had but recently been launch for 70 men, all parts of which are duplicates are duplicated, and the dignity so recently conferred upon he brought before his audience in all its bid like on July 4. Be will follow the Juniata on July 4. Be will follo unfriendly to the Government as suits come with all the more startling and sad-their convenience or inclination. The dening effect that they fall upon us in the ship referred in a truly impressive and fe Shah lives in magnificent state, and is midst of the excitement of a contest for licitous manner to the ultimate success of honoured by his courtiers in a way that the seat in Parliament rendered vacant the undertaking, now commenced under cisely similar can at once be constructed. of June, and on that day the slave British envoys decline to imitate, and by his elevation to the peerage. His death such happy auspices, and concluded by Two extra screws for this launch have market was closed. Whatever the mochoose rather to be at times excluded will create a void which will long be sen expressing an earnest hope, that those been also provided. The launch will be tives were which induced the Sultan to from the royal presence. He has a pair sibly and sorrowfully felt, and can never then present, might be permitted to par- used for sending out search expeditions take this course, even though the princiticipate in the inaugural ceremonies of the new Hall when completed. The audience were next addressed at some length dience were next addressed at some length the same purpose. The Juniata will land, still the result is none the less satin eloquent and appropriate language, by the Rev. Dr. Doyle, Rev. John Ryan (St. Patrick's) and also by the Hon High coal and then proceed to Disco, where it is hand, we are bound to carry it to Sheriff, A. T. Diydale, Esq., President is expected that either the Polaris or completion, and it is a matter of great H. G. Total Abstinence Society, M. Fene tidings of her will be found. If the Po- congratulation that we have obtained a lon and R. Raftus Esqrs. It having been laris is not there expeditions will be sent bloodless victory of as great or greater The people over whom the Shah rules are cheerful and social, fond of flowers and gardens, and not wanting in the arts the inefficient manner in which the work his lordship leave the chair, and that the of poetry and eloquence. They are splen. of road making is carried on. Not Very Rev. P. O'Conner, V.G., be called they expect Captain Buddington will be of the millions which that enterprise indid horsemen, and their thorough-bred long since we had occasion to call the thereto, and the usual vote of thanks at Disco when they arrive. Captain volved. Nowhere else did Sir Bartle Arab steeds are cultivated with no less attention of the Road Board to the having been proposed, seconded and Buddington's uncle, James M Budding- Frere find resistance. The ruler of adopted, His Lordship returned thanks ton, is the ice-pilot of the Juniata, and Muscat readily acceded to his proposals, rope. But with all their grandeur the subjects of he Shah are in a miserable condition, and the administration of the kingdom is rotten to its core. Famines seem to be periodical, and two of these in 1861 and 1871 were attended with fright. 1861 and 1871 were attended with fright avoid anything like a judicious dis- the officers and members of the Total pected that the Juniata will encounter Eastern Africa, ful tragedies The road from Ispahan to charge of duty; for the amount of work Abstinence Society of Harbor Grace, were extremely cold weather, and no extraentertained last evening by their St. ordinary measures have been taken to winter as to prevent the transportation of to the rublic. The passage leading victuals from one locality to another. from Water Street to Harvey, known days, some unpleasant rumours respecting news—not from him, but of him, at a why allow one inoffensive heir of Der-But instead of mending the roads, the as Martin's Lane, is in a most disgrace a case of the fatal poisoning of a child, meeting of the Royal Geographical So- wentwater to be falsely incarcerated, said to have taken place at Fogo, through carelessness in putting up medical prescriptions. The body of the child, it appears, has been brought to St. John's for ment that on the recommendation of gain the whole world and lose his own purposes of inquest and examination. ment that on the recommendation of gain the whole world and lose his own Unfortunately, cases of poisoning have, it the Premier, the Queen had granted soul?" Are tyranny, torture, and wrong Jukee Khan, who cut down useless ex to, no effort has been made with a view is said, been somewhat frequent in the the Doctor a pension of £300 a year the civil rights of the people thou rule penditure, and stopped numberless abuses, was put to a cruel death by the present king, Nasr-ud-deen. The king has professedly come to learn how nations to improvement. Not only are the minor of them have been fatal, unless the present king, Nasr-ud-deen. The king has professedly come to learn how nations

to improvement. Not only are the minor of them have been fatal, unless the present king, Nasr-ud-deen. The king has professedly come to learn how nations

to improvement. Not only are the minor of them have been fatal, unless the present king, Nasr-ud-deen. The king has professedly come to learn how nations

the moint a view same locality of late, though happily none
the recognition of the people thou rule same locality of late, though happily none the value of his researches in Central sent be an exception.—Chronicle.

Africa. Until the great traveller's rerogative to command; let right be done.

The crowns have fallen letely from the Information was received two days turn, which is now looked forward to The crowns have fallen lately from the since of the non-acceptance by the U. S with some confidence, the money will be regal heads of several princes in Europe. sufficient necessity for the lesson. It is why is it not judiously expended? This Government of the terms upon which the paid to trustees on his behalf, and as it And the greatest menarch that ever held said the Shah keeps a journal of his tra- is the proper season for road making; Washington Treaty was sought to be made will date (so at least hopes Mr. Glad- the English sceptre looked back and vels, and has with him also his own spe-cial correspondent, the editor of the offi-of employment. The presentment made has been brought under the notice of the dial correspondent, the editor of the offi-cial correspondent. The presentment made has been brought under the notice of the dial correspondent. The presentment made has been brought under the notice of the dial correspondent. The presentment made has been brought under the notice of the dial correspondent. The presentment made has been brought under the notice of the dial correspondent. The presentment made has been brought under the notice of the dial correspondent. The presentment made has been brought under the notice of the dial correspondent. The presentment made has been brought under the notice of the dial correspondent. The presentment made has been brought under the notice of the dial correspondent. The presentment made has been brought under the notice of the dial correspondent. cial gazette of Persia. Let us hope that by the Grand Jury, at the Quarter the journals of these distinguished perof pleasant tidings, He and his com-Gardens on Sunday.

But when a great Eastern potentate visits our shores, it is right to receive him in reality been done. Every effort has been made to amuse his Persian Majesty, and the arrangements have generally been carried out with great success. The shah is obviously grateful and pleased; nor are evidences wanting that his Majesty appreciates the necessity of being.

The statement concerning the manufacture of "Marine Infernal Machines," as coadjutors of Dr. Livingstone in before out of employment, and would recommend that they be employed on the roads.

The statement concerning the manufacture of "Marine Infernal Machines," as coadjutors of Dr. Livingstone in before out of employment, and would recommend that they be employed on the rivisted in May last. The fly leaf on the real out with a gold medal to hand want of a side drain, which causes an accommend that the proper and would recommend that the proper and that they be employed on the result in the Highlands," in commendation of "Marine Infernal Machines," which at first sight appeared romantic, out of employment, and would recommend that they be employed on the result in the Highlands," in commendation of "Marine Infernal Machines," which at first sight appeared romantic, which at first sight appeared romantic, out of employment, and would recommend that they be employed on the friending the negro. Dr. Livingstone in befunding the negro. Dr. Livingstone in befunding the negro. Dr. Livingstone in the Highlands," in commendation of water at every effort has a coadjutors of Dr. Livingstone in befunding the negro. Dr. Livingstone in the Highlands," in commendation in commendation of the negro. Dr. Livingstone in befunding the negro. Dr. Livingstone in befunding the negro. Dr. Livingstone in the Highlands," in commendation of the negro. Dr. Livingstone in befunding the negro. Dr. Livingstone in the Highlands," in commendation of the negro. Dr. Livingstone in befunding the negro. Dr. Livingstone in befunding the negro. Dr. Livingstone in the Highlands," hogog eids to any jury.

PAINFUL OCCURRENCE NEAR DUM-FRIES.—Recently a most distressing occurrence took place at Carronbridge, a RUSSIA ANGRY AT THE SHAH'S remote little village in the neighboure RECEPTION.—The brilliant reception hood of Thornhill. Dumfriesshire. Fanny "His Majesty desires to express his about $10,000, has been raised. The pro- ried on under the name of Geo. C. which the Shah is meeting with in this Aitken, the wife of Robert Kellock, thanks to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Bur- prietors of the Graphic offer to be among Rutherford & Co. We wish the en- country is producing an effect in Russia mason, Carroncroft, a young woman of gesses of Dover for the very kind and thirty subscribers of one hundred shares terprising proprietors every success, and which is worthy of note. Ever since twenty seven, had been in delicate cordial address which they have just pre-sented to him. He says he accepts this Graphic says that Psofessor Wise has liberal and hearty patronage.

The hope the public will extend to them respond to them liberal and hearty patronage.

The hope the public will extend to them respond to them liberal and hearty patronage. ing with close attention the development a powder on Wednesday night, and took of Russian policy in Central Asia, the it, remarking to her husband that she Russian Press has been full of venom did not see how she was to get on with towards everything British; and the all her troubles. He spoke a few words universal welcome given by us all to to soothe her, and they retired to bed, the Shah has produced an explosion their two children, John, aged three The Petersburg Press not only asserts years and ten months, and Alexander, with truth that "proud Albion is doing aged one year and seven months, sleep-Yesterday being the day appointed for all she can to astonish the Shah by the ing with them. Kellock did not awake that those interests will be strengthened and increased by his visit to this country. In conclusion he says that in entering In conclus the dominions of Queen Victoria he feels this proposed voyage must be looked members of the Total Abstinence and it adds the malicious and absurd states beside him and discovered the outer that he comes among friends and well- upon almost wholly as an experiment. Benefit Society of this city, met at about ment that "all this is only to outdo door standing open. He at once has-No one has ever crossed the Atlantic in a 9 a.m., and headed by their band march-Russia and to efface from his mind the tened to his mother's at Carronbridge, balloon, und, indeed, no one has ever ed in processional order to the Galway pleasing reminiscences he took with him supposing she had gone there, and found The Shah's Visit to London.

London has been amused for a week with what the Examiner calls "the extremely absurd spectacle of monarchs at play." Our country has been visited by "Our country has been visited by "New yed doen the King of Porcia have a contract of the Galway of the Galway of the Galway with him travelled so far over land in that way. But as the old saying goes, "Nothing ventured, nothing gained," and as that has been acted upon in the matter of every the from the latter place at an early hour, for the purpose of joining their brethren of sian hosts have despoiled him of a large portion of his dominions, whereas Brither in this case especially as the means can be very "pleasing reminiscences he took with him fravelled so far over land in that way. But has been acted upon in the matter of every when the Shah remembers that his Rustine hour of his dominions, whereas Brither in this case especially as the means can be very "pleasing." Wharf, for the purpose of receiving the Officers and members of the sister Society of Harbor Grace, who had embarked from the latter place at an early hour, for the purpose of joining their brethren of St. Petersburg." How far those treminiscences he took with him from St. Petersburg." How far those treminiscences can be very "pleasing," when the Shah remembers that his Rustine had been discovered drowned in the purpose of joining their brethren of St. John's, and of participating with the body of his wife and two children that the body of his wife and two children that way. Both the callebration of the Galway when the Galway with the body of his wife and two children that way. Both the callebration of the callebration of the callebration of the day. Both the callebration of Nar-ud-deen, the King of Persia, known by his own subjects as the King of Kings, the centre of the universe, and the point of the world's admiration He is sovereign of a kingdom eminent in its historic fame and great before any of our European kingdoms had emerged from obscurity. Nearly six centuries before the Christian era, Cyrus united his native Persians with the Medes, and founded the Mede Persians with the laving of the Corner Stope have uesponed min of a large them in the celebration of the day. Both Societies having mingled, proceeded from the place of landing, and continued their route through Cochrane Street and Military road to the Episcopal Residence, for the purpose of accompanying this Lordship the Most Rev. Dr. Power and Clergy to the site of the new building. The day are uesponed min of a large portion of his dominions, whereas Britatin has never taken from him an inch societies having mingled, proceeded from the place of landing, and continued their route through Cochrane Street and Military road to the Episcopal Residence, for the purpose of accompanying with good reason credited with designs with good reason credited with designs upon the most populous part of the Shah, the laving of the Corner Stope has a labor. The day are united in this case, especially as the means can be easily furnished, and the men who are them in the celebration of the day. Both Societies having mingled, proceeded from the place of landing, and continued their route through Cochrane Street and Military road to the Episcopal Residence, for the purpose of accompanying with good reason credited with designs with good reason credited with designs with good reason credited with designs and Clergy to the site of the new building. The usual proceeding in the control of the day and the men who are the min the celebration of the day. Both them in the celebration of with the laying of the Corner Stone hav-been steadfastly directed to the main- er who was attending to char-burning morning, but as they were not very disander the Great about 331 before the birth of the Saviour. At subsequent times great conquerors have risen among the Persians, but the tendency has been toward decrepitude, and now Nasr-ud-deen is king of only about ten million subjects is king of only about ten million subjects is king of only about ten million might carry him through, and it tinct he concluded they might be the ment of reason, caused by brooding on her bodily infirmity.

ZANZIBAR.—The Sultan of Zanzibar

THE Countess of Derwentwater, who remains a prisoner in Newcastle gaol, has issued an appeal to her Majesty, in THE admirers of Dr. Livingstone which she says: - Queen! mercy

HER MAJESTY has presented to Lady panions on their recent mission to Zan-zibar, had been welcomed everywhere from our Journal in the Highlands," being connected with a Fenian confrom death. The letter of an "Ex-Fires are still raging in the woods Yachtsman," in the "Times," has about the Eastern Telegraph Company hav-for life, for attempting to kill a man it a dreadful circumstantiality. We ing been successfully laid between the named David Murphy, who was form memory of the officers and men who

July Biar B 10-