NO MORE LEMON EXTRACT

The following was remarked by one of St. John's leading grocers in the St. John Police Court last week:

"I'll sell no more lemon extract. I've a store of it at the store but it's all going back to the wholesalers today, for I'm out of that business for good," said John W. Vanhook, of the police court yesterday afternoon at the conclusion of the case in which he was accused by Inspector Henderson with selling lemon extract without making an entry in the sale at the time in a book provided for the purpose by the government.

"That is splendid," said Magistrate Ritchie. "I'd like to see you on the back and I wish all the other dealers would follow your example."

BEAVERBROOK WAS PLEASED

Weak, Nervous And Run Down

A Condition Afflicting Thousands of People—How to get New Health

There are thousands of people who are enduring the pain and discomfort of minor ills in the hope that the indisposition is only temporary and will be outgrown in time. Often such illnesses are not serious enough to require the attention of a doctor, but will respond to intelligent home treatment if a reliable remedy is used.

Women, busy with a multitude of household cares, young women in offices or stores, or girls studying hard in school, easily fall a prey to that condition of bloodlessness known as anemia. The trouble need not be serious if prompt, effective measures are taken to check it in its early stages.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will restore the elements needed to bring the blood back to strength, and once the blood regains its healthy quality the entire body will soon show the benefit. Among the many who have found benefit through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Mrs. James J. Johnson, of Peterboro, Ont., who says: "I can personally strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills because of what they have done for me. About two years ago I felt poorly, was terribly weak, nervous and run down. I was easily annoyed and worried, and my heart would flutter at the least exertion. I tried several remedies but did not find a cure until I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I took seven boxes in all and am now enjoying perfect health, and have gained in weight. I calculate the cost small when I think of the benefit I received, and I recommend the pills to all weak people."

Rich, red blood is the whole secret of good health, and from the first to the last dose Dr. Williams' Pink Pills enrich and purify the blood. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
