UNION BRICKLAYERS AND MASONS STRIKE.

Special to the Evening Telegram. MONTREAL, July 3. The long projected fight between the Union bricklayers and masons of the city and the master builders will begin tomorrow morning when 1,500 men will lay down their tools and report at the Labor Temple instead of their jobs, and will draw strike pay until further orders. This was decided this afternoon when the Unions were fully represented and an unanimous vote was taken to strike for recognition of the Union and a steady rate of pay the year round.

The Gustave Prosper sprang a leak while at the Banks, and although the men worked heroically to keep her afloat they were unable to do so. The men were picked up by the Mariette, every one being saved.

THE MAIL ORDER HOUSE.

A Disgraceful Act.

About 11.40 Saturday night the nurses and other attendants at the General Hospital were thrown into a state of excitement when they heard a man walking over the roof of the main building of the Institution and believed, and correctly so, that a thief was trying to enter the building. He evidently climbed to the roof by means of one of the ladders at the side of the building and was watching his opportunity to enter and loot the place.

When the outcry was raised, Dr. Bert Tait, who is now in charge of the Institution, was called from his room, and was going through the wards to ascertain if the marauder had entered the place, when he saw a man go through one of the corridors and quickly vanish into a cupboard or small pantry near Miss Hannaford's room. The police by this time had been telephoned for, and in the meantime Dr. Tait had beard the man who stood in the cupboard and secured from him 6 bunches of keys which he had purloined and with which he could gain access to every room in the building especially to that of the Matron, Miss Southcott, where there was a deal of money and valuables. The doctor then thought to detain the man until the police arrived, but putting his hand in his pocket as if to draw a weapon and threatening at the same time to shoot the medico he ran away and made for his home.

He was by this time recognized by some of the nurses as John Sullivan, of Georgetown, who had been in the hospital ill for several months, and was only released on the 28th April past. He was concerned in the robbery of a slot meter and was given a long term in the Penitentiary from which institution he was transferred to the hospital. While in the hospital it was noticed by the Matron and others that the man was of a prying disposition, visited all the rooms and paid special attention to the cook's department.

Sciatic Rheumatism

Unable to work or sleep—Six years of suffering—Cured by DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD. Mr. Alex. Ethier, Jr., Clarence Creek, Russell Co., Ont., writes:—"My nervous system was run down to such an extent that I suffered a great deal from weakness of the nerves and sciatic rheumatism, and at times was like one paralyzed. I could not work, was unable to sleep and had no appetite. Nothing seemed to build up my nerves until I made use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. After having used about $12.00 worth of this medicine I feel like a new man. I can walk all right, do a great deal of work, have a good appetite and sleep well every night."

When you have tired of experiments you can turn to Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food knowing that persistent treatment is bound to be rewarded with lasting beneficial results. But you must get the genuine, bearing portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., 50 cts. at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for free copy of Dr. Chase's Recipes.

He was warned to keep to the ward to which he belonged, and it would now appear evident that he was by so acting keeping in view some future design on the building. Officers Hummer, Whelan, Fitzgerald, Devine and others hurried to the scene in answer to the telephone call, but the man had gone before they arrived. Hummer and another officer were left to guard the building for the rest of the night, and Officers Keefe, Whelan, Fitzgerald and Devine went to the man's house, and finding him home arrested him. It is now believed that the man went to the hospital in the evening and secreted himself in the building to await an opportunity to steal at night, and that the party heard on the roof was an accomplice whose name the other stoutly refuses to impart to the police. The finding of the man created much excitement amongst the patients.

Survey Ship Arrives.

The Norwegian Fishery Survey ship, Michael Sars, Capt. Iversen, arrived here at 1 a.m. yesterday to replenish her bunkers. The vessel is engaged in scientific research connected with the fisheries and left Norway for her cruise about the latter part of March, proceeding to Plymouth, England, and thence to the Azores. Sir John Murray an English gentleman and one of the principals in the expedition left the vessel to come here via New York. The cruiser visited the Banks and other fish resorts on her work and struck a severe storm on the Grand Banks, about a week ago being badly buffeted. Her rudder was somewhat damaged but beyond that there was no other very serious damage, while the storm progressed a big sea ran but the vessel proved herself a good sea boat. She has on board five scientific gentlemen from Norway, Professor Gran, Dr. Melland Nawsen, Dr. Koefoed and Dr. Njord. The cruiser is the property of the Norwegian Government, built in 1906 and is a ship of 226 tons gross. When the ship coals and refits she will sail for Norway via Scotland and should arrive home in August. Sir John Murray the gentleman alluded to above is a Canadian by birth and is one of the greatest authorities on marine life alive to-day. Mr. Tasker Cook, Norwegian Vice Consul is looking after the supplying of the vessel.
