THE BURIAL OF THE DANE.

Blue Gulf all around us,
Blue sky overhead—
Muster all on the quarter,
We must bury the dead!

It is but a Danish sailor,
Rugged of front and form;
A common son of the forecastle,
Grizzled with sun and storm.

His name, and the strand he halted from,
I love you to my latest breath;
We know — and there's nothing more!
But perhaps his mother is waiting
On the lonely island of Fohr.

Still, as he lay there dying,
Reason drifting a wreck,
"This my watch, he would mutter,
"I must go upon deck!"

Aye, on deck—by the foremost!
But watch and look-out are done;
The Union Jack laid o'er him,
How quiet he lies in the sun!

Slow the ponderous engine,
Stay the hurrying shaft,
Let the roll of the ocean
Cradle our giant craft—
Gather around the dying,
Carry your mesmate aft!

Stand in order and listen
To the holdest page of prayer:
Let every foot be on deck,
Every head be bare—
The soft trade-wind is lifting
A hundred locks of hair.

Our captain reads the service,
(A little spray is on his cheeks),
The grand old words of burial,
And the trust a true heart seeks—
"We therefore commit his body
To the deep"—and, as he speaks,

Launched from the weather railing,
Swift as the eye can mark,
The ghostly, shotted hammock
Plunges away from the shark,
Down a thousand fathoms—
Down into the dark!

A thousand summers and winters
The stormy Gulf shall roll
High o'er his canvas coffin—
But, silence to doubt and dole!
There's a quiet harbor somewhere
For the poor and weary soul.

Free the fettered engine,
Speed the tireless shaft!
Loose top-gallant and top sail,
The breeze is fair about!
Blue sea all around us,
Blue sky bright overhead—
Every man to his duty!
We have buried our dead.

—Henry Howard Brownell.

THE BRIDE.

Weave me no wreath of orange-blossom,
No bridal white shall me adorn;
I wear a red rose in my bosom,
To-morrow I shall wear the thorn.

Bring me no gauds to deck my beauty,
Put by the jewels and the lace;
My love to honour and to duty
Was plighted ere he saw my face.

I hear his impatient charger neighing,
I hear the trumpets blow fanfare!
His comrades ride, as to a Maying,
Jesting and splendid to the war.

Why is my lady-mother weeping?
Why is my father grieving sore?
Oh, love, God have you in His keeping,

Belgian Clergy

VICTIMS OF HUN BRUTALITY.

London, Jan. 8.—At the request of the Belgian Legation in London, the British Press Bureau today issued detailed allegations of the mal-treatment of Catholic clergy in Belgium and the destruction of their institutions by German troops.

This statement says that churches and religious houses were destroyed or profaned in almost every village, and in many towns, where the German troops passed. In most cases the edifices were utilized as stables and prisons, and when not placed in safe hiding the sacred vessels were stolen.

The statement makes the declaration that members of the clergy have been exposed to special indignities at the hands of German soldiers. In the dioceses of Liege, Namur, Malines and Ghent many priests and others connected with the churches were either shot or hanged.

Many other priests were carried off to Germany, where they appear to have been "subjected to abominable usage."

The following specific instances are given in the statement of the Press Bureau:

"August 27, an American and a Spanish priest, among a group of seventy civilians, were dragged about from place to place all day and molested, insulted and threatened with military execution. They were taken to the church at Campenout and shut up for the night.

"August 21, the priest of Duechene, an invalid, seventy-seven years old, suffering from disease, was accused by the Germans of having fired on them. He was arrested, hoisted on a cannon, tossed into a ditch, tortured and shot.

"A witness deposes that he saw the priest Getrode brought into Aershot on August 24 with three wounded men. The Germans said he was an English spy, and took him to the town hall. The following day they beat him with rifle butts and then on the Demer bridge they shot him and cast his body into the river.

"A priest makes the following deposition:

"On August 15 German soldiers swarmed into the village of Schaffen and began to burn and pillage on the pretence that shots had been fired on them. One hundred and seventy houses were burned and twenty-seven civilians were murdered.

"The Germans maltreated me in every way. They erected a gallows on which they said they proposed to hang me. They thrust me into a house which was on fire, but dragged me out again. They sent me off, and at a distance of 200 yards they began shooting at me. I fell and pretended to be dead, and so escaped."

Continuing, the statement says the commission of inquiry collected evidence that in the diocese of Malines alone twenty-six priests were killed without cause. Similar atrocities occurred in other dioceses.

In the Liege diocese ten priests were shot and in the Namur diocese twenty priests were killed. The priest of Spontein was first hung up by the feet and then by the hands and pierced with bayonets. In the diocese of Tournai a bishop, seventy-four years old, was seized as a hostage and struck by a soldier. Three ecclesiastics were shot in this diocese.

The statement concludes with these words:

"Nothing can demonstrate more clearly the tendencies of the Germans in dealing with members of the clerical body than the words of a proclamation posted by the German authorities at Givenege, September 6, which says:

"When the stages are taken the priests, burgomasters and members of the communal administration are to be put at the head of the list."

"Cascarets" Always Straighten You Up

If Costive, Headachy, Bilious, Stomach Sour, Breath Bad—Clean your Liver and Bowels.

Get a 10-cent box now. You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, fermenting food and the foul gasses; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular, and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.

Revival of Religion

IS STIRRING ENGLAND.

London, Jan. 7.—The Manchester Guardian, which is published in the centre of virile Protestantism, says: "If a simple religious leader should prove himself stronger than an army of millions, it would not be the first time in the history of the world."

One indication of the grave mood in which England is preparing for continuance of the war is that the National Council of Evangelical Free Churches, representing about half the English church-going community is conducting in some churches a campaign of definite invitations at the rate of 5,000 daily, which are being issued especially to men to attend church the last two Sundays in January.

This paves the way to renewal of the lost habit of regular worship. Preachers are asked on these two Sundays to use old hymns and old tunes and give direct simple gospel addresses. The Salvation Army, Methodist Church, Brotherhood organizations, and some sections of the Church of England are co-operating.

The German maltrated me in every way. They erected a gallows on which they said they proposed to hang me. They thrust me into a house which was on fire, but dragged me out again. They sent me off, and at a distance of 200 yards they began shooting at me. I fell and pretended to be dead, and so escaped."

At the City Hall.

The weekly sitting of the Municipal Board took place last night.

A general discussion took place over the collecting of horse taxes. The consensus of opinion was that 7 1/2 p.c. was too high to be paying Balling Roll. The matter was deferred until a new system of collecting is being considered.

Regarding James Murphy's claim, the Solicitor needs a fuller report from the Engineer before offering his opinion.

The Engineer and West End Road Inspector reported that the damages complained of by Messrs. Murphy and Savage, were caused by the sidewalk on one side of the street being higher than the other.

The Engineer recommended that the bill for water pipes, supplied by the Council to Mt. Cashel, be paid less ten per cent for defective pipes. Mr. Withers offered the opinion that the outlay was not a fair charge on the city. A discussion began with Mr. Mullaly, which the Chairman ruled out of order.

Payment to the trustees of Cochran St. Methodist Church for hire of land in Ylavin St., was ordered.

The Chairman reported that he with the Sanitary Committee and Architect Barter visited the Sanitary Stables to select a site to build the new stables on. Fences in keeping with the plans were ordered to be put up.

A lively discussion followed between Messrs. Gosling, Mullaly, Withers, Anderson and McNamara over financial statement made last week, which the Chairman said was not official.

On motion of Messrs. Harris and Withers, it was ordered that Engineer Ryan be paid for extra services performed, though Mr. Mullaly dissented and moved as an amendment that the Engineer's salary be increased by $200 a year, but not to get any extras.

It was ordered that an extra amount be also paid the Secretary for
