Lajestic Theatre TO-DAY

He carved his name in the granite hills of the North. Made 'round. And left out love. when wife, daughter, friends and power were gone-Another inspiring Gilbert Parker romance, as full of the big ine things in human hearts as Melford's "Behold My Wife."

IONDAY-

GLORIA SWANSON and MILTON SILLS in another Big Paramount Special Production

The Great Moment

Battered by Tempests And Seas.

TRAMP STEAMER SHORT OF FUEL ONE OF CREW WASHED

OVERBOARD. S.S. Bellingham, Capt. Henry Morterday short of coal. The ship has Baltimore. On January 30th or six days after leaving Falmouth, the ship ran into a N.W. hurricane. Mountaneous seas swept the decks smashing the ventilators and other fittings. As night came on the fury of the storm increased. Huge seas threatened to engulf the ship at any moment, one of these swept seaman E. C. Head off the forecastle deck to his doom. Three other seamen managed to save themselves through being caught under a tarpaulin which was ripped off No. 1 hatch by a heavy roll of wire which broke the decks, Capt. Morgan, taking big Bell Island Star Society. chances put his ship about in an attempt at rescue and although a dili- ANNUAL MEETING AND ELECTION gent search was made not a sign of the unfortunate man was seen. On Feb. 3rd another gale was experi-Bellingham had a desperate encount- | President. er with the elements and the ship Bro. W. F. Billingsley was moved the following clipping taken from officers, with Bro. J. . Connors as Sec- at the passing of our Second Assistant loyalty to their leader is the only the Daily Mirror of Jan 15th:-"After retary, and a large number of can- Vice-President, Mr. John J. Moore. experiencing terrific weather and didates was nominated, the various steamer Bellingham has arrived at elected for 1923:-Falmouth. She was bound from Rouma in Finland. On the steering J.P., elected. gear being damaged she was left at the mercy of the waves which were phy, re-elected. so high that they smashed down the steamers funnel and it seemed cer- elected. tain the fires would be put out. The lst Asst. Vice-Presiposition was perilous, as the Belling-iel Steele, re-elected.

help of steam winches." It was practically a repetition of Peter Kent, elected. the above experience, Capt. Morgan told a Telegram reporter, that befel James Flynn, elected. him since leaving Falmouth. The passage was marked by continuous Bro. Eugene Kelly, elected. storms with only one fine day. On Numerically, the Star Society is ful veyage. Every part of the ship ly equipped sporting ground, the pre-also 5 stowaways on board. (These smallest sized rigging assumed the pleted, with new arena, grandstand; proportions of towing cables so waiting rooms, etc., will be second to coated were they with icy spray. none of its kind. Captain Morgan who is only 36 years old has had 22 years experience of erally, is being improved, and during that double column contribution to the sea. For the past 8 or 9 years | last year considerable work of a pro he has been sailing in the North gressive character was accomplished. Atlantic and he says during all his Within a very short period the So-time he never had such an experi- clety has built up an enviable record, in the same storm but most of them still further advancement during the of all sense of decency. more or less damaged made for the coming year, when it is believed that Azores. The Captain feels keenly its general influences for the common the loss of seaman Head. He was a welfare of Bell Island as a community young man of excellent education will be appreciated. being a college graduate. Considerwas well liked by his shipmates. He Pastor of St. Michael's Parish, was meet the arguments of Capt. Jesse fas well liked by his shipmates. He once more unanimously chosen as

nia. The Bellingham is taking 500 vanetti as Medical Advisor. tons of coal from S.S. Modena. After | The Mother Society in St. John's-

The Annual Meeting of the Star enced during which the rudder of the Sea Society was held in the meeting of the Benevolent Irish So-like oxen his yoke of mental slavery, chain snapped leaving the ship Star Hall, Bell Island, on Sunday ciety, was held yesterday evening, the helpless, with huge seas continual- afternoon, the 11th inst., when there President, W. J. Higgins, K.C., prely being swept by sea. During the was a record gathering of members. siding. Fourteen new members were little to tax-ridden people of this evening repairs to the rudder chain President P. F. Power, J.P., presid-admitted. After the various reports country what Capt. Winsor's private were made and all went well till the ed, and when the usual reports had had been submitted and adopted, the or business character may be. The next day when a storm, with sleet been submitted and adopted, address- Vice-President, J. C. Pippy, paid a well point we have to deal with is not the and snow, set in. For three days es of a deep fraternal character were merited tribute to the memory of the man's reputation but the question the ship was hove-to and not until delivered by Rev. E. J. Rawlins, late 2nd Asst. Vice-President, J. J. whether his political doctrine be the 8th inst could progress be made. Brothers Dr. H. A. Giovanetti, W. J. Moore, and proposed the adoption of same one or not. Previous to leaving Falmouth the Power, and J. M. Greene, Honorary the following resolutions of condol-

Vice-President-Bro. Andrew Mur-Chancellor-Bro. John Doherty,

1st Asst. Vice-President-Bro. Danham was being washed fore and aft 2nd Asst. Vice-Pres.-Bro. John ter of a century.

and was in danger of being lost with Connors, re-elected. her crew of 40 hands. There were Fin. Secretary-Bro. F. J. Burke, family in their sad bereavement." were landed at Falmouth.) Two life elected. boats were smashed, the top of the Treasurer-Bro. R. D. Walsh, wheel house was carried away, hatch elected. covers and all deck fittings were Asst Treasurer-Bro. John Kent. overboard. Working like tro- elected gans for many hours, the crew even-Grand Marshal-Bro. F. Noftall, tually managed to secure the rud- elected. der amidships with wire hawsers and Asst. Marshal-Bro. M. Kelly, electthe Bellingham was steered by the ed. Chairman Building Committee-Bro.

Secretary-Alan Doyle, W. B. Skin-Chairman House Committee-Bro. Chairman Amusement Committe

Tuesday the ship came through one of the strongest on Bell Island, about 110 miles of field ice. When and has a membership of nearly 400. she arrived in port yesterday she Its special activities are devoted showed every evidence of the event- towards the completion of a splendid-

Selected Irish Potatoes!

Now due by S.S. Digby, and expected hourly:

Sacks of 112 lbs., at a Popular Price.

C. P. EAGAN,

Duckworth Street & Queen's Road

HOLBROOK'S EGG POWDER-

1-lb. Jars GREENGAGE JAM-

was iced up. The derricks were liminary work on which has already the decks and the commenced, and, which, when com

The Theatre-flat and building, gen-Many other ships were caught and looks forward, with confidence, to

Rev. J. J. McGrath, P.P., the was a native of Los Angeles, Califor- Spiritual Director, and Dr. H. A. Gio-

having her steering gear, which is with its fine new Hall as a monument somewhat damaged, repaired and her to the energy and enterprise of her bunkers replenished the ship will re- members-may well feel proud of her sume her voyage to Boston and Bal- daughter Branch on the Iron Isle!-

B. I. S. Meeting.

RESOLUTION OF SYMPATHY

The adjourned preliminary annual

"RESOLVED, that we place on re-His many sterling qualities had

President-Bro. Capt. Leo Murphy, profound sorrow. This Society sustains a distinct loss ary member, a Committeeman, or an tion and loyally supported its objects this right be conceded. during a membership of over a quar

RESOLVED FURTHER, that we Secretary-Bro. M. A. Dunn, elected. tender our deepest sympathy to his aristocracy of brains, but, when the The motion on being seconded by > was unanimously adopted. The nomination of officers then took place and resulted as follows:-President-W. J. Higgins, K.C. Vice-Pres .- J. C. Pippy.

1st. Asst. Vice-Pres.-W. B. Comer-2nd Asst. Vice-Pres -M J O'Mara Treasurer-John M. Walsh.

Chairman of Schools-J P. Crotty. Chairman of Charities-J. B. Chan-

Chairman of Review and Correspondence-M. J. Savage. Secretary of Schools-C. I. Merner.

'A Wise Fool," Cast Composed of Artists.

PLAYERS ARE HEADED BY JAMES KIRKWOOD AND REALITIFUL. ALICE HOLLISTER.

As the erratic Jean Jacques Bar-Truly Shattuck, a once famous comic little? opera star, plays Virginia Poucette. The cast is completed by Harry Duffield, Charles Ogie, John Herdnan and Lillian Leighton. Sir Gilbert Parker and George Melford colaborated on the scenario and William

Marshall was cameraman

Blackguardism.

Dear Sir.-For a specimen of black-

tion, his puny opponents have re

who are out to win by foul means when they have not the intelligence

means the triumph of Coakerism with all that means of repression and tyranny, of tribulation and misery for this country of ours, which Coaker wants to dominate, just as he now dominates and bullies those who wear

If Capt. Jesse Winsor's gospel of re duced taxation be right it matters

The character assassins of the Ad vocate do not stop to consider the morality of their act: they are the was near being lost, according to to the chair to conduct the election of cord an expression of sincere regret bonded mental slaves of another, and having her steering gear broken by offices being keenly contested in each won him a high place in the esteem their deity and like faithful lackeys mountainous seas, the American instance. Following are the Officers and regard of a host of admiring they serve him without intelligence. friends, who heard of his death with It redounds to a man's honor that he is able to follow the leadership of another, but not if he follows blindly by his demise, for, whether an ordinand perversely as a dull and stupid fanatic. It is right that human beings officer, he was imbued with an earnest be free to form and express opinions, desire for the welfare of this institu- the well being of man demands that

This liberty to one's opinion is not denied here, only the Advocate claims that autocratic right or assumes an expression of an opinion is in itself mischievous or an instigation to the Chairman of Schools, J. P. Crotty, violence or offends, that liberty has been outraged and must be circumscribed. To circulate mischevious statements through the press is a heinous offense, but how much more hateful when circulated through a medium which is the mouthpiece and organ of an institution 'dominated and controlled by the man in whose interest the violation is committed... Such offences should be amenable to outraged public morality through statutory law.

There can be no progress for country where opinions are moulded from custom, from prejudice or the dictates of another. The unanimity of opinion in the body of the F.P.U. is not wholesome, and if the members of that body persist in taking their breakfast food ready cooked and predigested they are violating their highest instincts and are a menace to the BRIGUS VS. GUARDS FEILDIANS. happiness of their country, for they will find themselves opposed to the intelligent will of the people. If the Councils of the F.P.U. were When George Melford's latest Par- reason and not inspired by some comes to the Majestic theatre to- er much good might be hoped for, original novel, of which the picture mob-like violence with which he is ers at the rink. is an adaptation, Mr. Kirkwood has a assailed, who ventures an opinion most delightful and entertaining role. foreign to the ideas of the Advocate Alice Hollister, a delightful actress, know-nothings is a disgrace to a civhas the leading woman's role. Ann ilized community. It is a challenge to schedule was played at St. Bon's Forrest, who played the principal reasoning and patriotic men and must rink yesterday morning between the feminine role in "The Faith Healer," be met with stern resistance till root- Montreal and Royal Banks. The is seen as Zoe Barbille. Alan Hale is ed out. By what prescriptive right do game was fast and furious right excellent as Masson, and Fred Hunt- those ignerami of the Advocate pre- through, and resulted in a win for the ley, as Sebastian Dolores, a scoun- sume to dictate to the intelligent peo- Montreal team by 7 goals to 2. A drelly Spanish exile, provokes amuse- ple of this country what their opinions large gathering of spectators assemment by his rascality. Edward Suther- ought to be? Who are they that pre- bled to witness the game. Mr. C. C. land has the leading juvenile role and sume to know so much and know so Robertson was referee.

ARTHUR ENGLISH.

At the STAR MOVIE TO-DAY

Dainty Little Edith Roberts, in a Universal Special, in six parts

THE FIRE CAI

A Picture that will please anyone.

Carmel Myers and Wallace MacDonald, in "Breaking Through," Pathe News.---The Always Interesting Film.

COMING---" Father Tom," in seven parts--and Frank Mayo in "Deadline" TO-MORROW:--HARRY CAREY in "THE WALLOP."

Terra Novas Win Over St. Bon's.

SCORE 4-3.

In the last game of the regular league series, the Terra Novas won over the St. Bon's in a rather patchy game last night. Only a small gathering was present and the brand of ed two goals and the St. Bon's one; Terras in this period while Fox period had elapsed, Phelan evened up the score. Play then became a little lively and both teams worked hard for the lead, and shortly before the

The final period saw both teams working well, and some good individual play was in evidence. Clarke for the Terras and Phelan for the St. Bon's each scored, and the final gong sounded leaving the Terra Novas the winners by 4 goals to 3.

Mr. Ern Churchill was the PENALTIES.

St. Bon's, Higgins (1) Terra Novas, Power (1) The following table shows the final standing of the teams:-

Goals P. W. L. F. A. Pts. 6 6 0 29 15 12 Guards Feildians 6 3 3 18 24 6 Terra Novas .. 6 2 4 17 22 4 St. Bon's 6 1 5 17 20 2

TO-NIGHT'S GAME.

A picked team from the Feildians and Guards teams will play the Brigguided by the immutable dictates of us sextette to-night. The Brigus team has a strong line-up and a fast game amount producton, "A Wise Fool," transient whim or desire of Mr. Coak- is anticipated. Mr. J. M. Tobin will be the referee. The following players night, the public will see one of the but so long as they are content to be will line up for the Guards-Feildians strongest casts ever assembled for a led by the nose and to follow sub- team: Goal, Hunt; defense, Paterphotoplay. James Kirkwood, an em- missively and without question the son, Rendell and Winter: forwards inent screen actor and director, is the idiosyncrasies of one who is obsessed Munn, Coultas, Ewing, Payn and Herwith the notion that he is the only der. The Guards-Feildians team wise one, well nothing but turmoil play under the Feildians colors, and bille, the hero of Sir Gilbert Parker's and hatreds can be engendered. The Guards players will get their sweat-

BANKERS' HOCKEY.

The first game of the Bank League

Personal.

The Prime Minister, Sir Richard Helen Channing, dances by the quires, returned from a visit to Can- Cross boys, songs by Mrs. G. ada by S.S. Sachem on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. H.D. Reid, who have Gibbs, Mary Jackman, K

Just Received

Loose and in Cartons

HARVEY & CO., Ltd.

Job's Fresh Frozen Caplin

FRESH FROZEN CODFISH. FRESH FROZEN TONGUES.

Walter Gosse.

SMOKED CODFISH. SMOKED SALMON.

are sold by the following grocers:

Ayre & Sons, Ltd. Bowring Bros., Ltd. W. E. Bearns. J. M. Brown. F. J. Callanan.

FRESH FROZEN SALMON.

M. F. Caul. J. J. Caul. A. V. Duffy. J. Dawson. C. P. Eagan. T. Fitzpatrick.

F. Fitzpatrick.

Mrs. I. Hamilton. Jackman & Greene. G. Knowling, Ltd., F. Lukins. W. J. Murphy. J. J. Mulcahy.

SMOKED FILLETS, KIPPERS F. J. O'Keefe. J. O'Keefe.

L. O'Keefe.

A. Parsons. Parade Stores. (East, Central & West.) Royal Stores, Ltd. J. J. Quigley. J. F. Wiseman. Wiseman & Hawkins. F. J. Wadden. P. F. Malone. Jas. Nugent. A. E. Worrall. Mrs. C. Truscott. J. J. Whelan.

JOB'S STORES, Limited

Distributors

Concert and Card Party.

ENJOYABLE ENTERTAINMENT AT ST. PATRICK'S.

On Tuesday night a most ful card party and dance was the old Convent School, Riv land; Misses G. Redstone, B

Monica Ryan acted as accompanists At the conclusion of the programm Mr. J. J. Rossiter thanked all for their attendance and announced the ceeded with and was an outstanding uccess. To Miss Kathleen Hayse, who organized the affair, much of the by the Furness Withy Co. Capcredit is due as it was through her bers said he expected to arrive ther Superior, Belvedere Orphange, of cheque for $250.00 from "A Friend March 2nd, and this port,"

Digby Reported

10 p.c. Youths' fir

Men's Wo

Men's Tar

Men's Tar

Men's Tan

Men's Tan

ined youngs s into everyth ted everyone ing herself at th

passage of arm he kept teasing he thing then fo terly refused er mother 3 The Last another n

for C Influe and a reve