Quiescat in Pace

The second time within a fortnight Sister Mary Walsh visited the Presentation Convent, Cathedral Square. A short time after her reception she was transferred to the Convent at Witless Bay, where she made her Holy Profession on October 2, 1862. For 62 years she continued to live and labor at this Convent, devoting all her energies to the welfare of the children and leading them by word and example along the straight way that leads to everlasting bliss. Gentle and unassuming, unknown to the world, she continued her glorious work, and though no deeds which men call great have secured for her a permanent niche in the temple of fame, the Recording Angel took count of years

St. John's 84 years ago, and while quite young entered the Presentation Convent, Cathedral Square. A short time after her reception she was transferred to the Convent at Witless Bay, where she made her Holy Profession on October 2, 1862. For 62 years she continued to live and labor at this Convent, devoting all her energies to the welfare of the children and leading them by word and example along the straight way that leads to everlasting bliss. Gentle and unassuming, unknown to the world, she continued her glorious work, and though no deeds which men call great have secured for her a permanent niche in the temple of fame, the Recording Angel took count of years of self-sacrifice, devotion to duty and love of God and her neighbor which we trust have won for her the crown of life. On Good Friday evening the remains of Sister M. Gertrude were laid to rest in the Convent Cemetery in the presence of the Nuns of the Community, which she loved and served, and of a large concourse of the people amongst whom she lived for so many years. The Very Rev. Dr. Greene, P.P., who attended the deceased Nun with untiring attention during her illness, and who was present at the moment of her death, recited the last prayers at the graveside, and the body of Sister Mary Gertrude was laid side by side with those of the late Mother M. Bernard O'Donnell, her co-worker in religion for over sixty years—united in life, they were not separated in death.

The late Sister M. Gertrude leaves three sisters to mourn for her. They are Sister M. Francis, Presentation Convent, Renewa; Mrs. Williams, Witless Bay, and Mrs. Miller, residing in the United States, to whom and to her Community sympathy is extended. May she rest in peace. Amen.

Canadian Trade

Although somewhat more favorable weather and the approach of Easter have benefited Canadian business, the operations of buyers still tend toward conservatism, and there is little anticipation of future requirements, according to dispatches to Dun's Review from branch offices of R. G. Dun & Co. in the leading cities. Orders for practically all kinds of staple commodities in small amounts are numerous, however, which would seem to reflect a general scarcity of stocks in the hands of retailers, and it is believed that the advent of real Spring weather will be followed by an active demand for seasonable merchandise. Business in retail lines at Montreal has been helped by the approach of Easter, but in only a few wholesale departments is there any particular activity. At the same time, a steady run of small orders covering a wide range of commodities is being received and conditions are expected to improve materially with the appearance of real Spring weather. Collections are about fair.

There has been no change of moment in the business situation at Quebec, generally quiet conditions being still the rule. The outlook is generally considered favorable, however, and an active demand for seasonable merchandise is looked for with the opening of Spring. Collections

Slightly more favorable weather and the approach of Easter have stimulated demand for seasonable commodities at Toronto, but orders are being placed cautiously and, as a rule, are little in excess of current requirements. Sentiment, based on the encouraging industrial outlook and generally prosperous conditions in the farming sections remains distinctly optimistic, however.

While business conditions in the Far West and Northwest are much the same, sales of Spring merchandise display an improving tendency, and advices from the chief wholesale and distributing centers indicate a growing feeling of confidence regarding the future. Collections are slightly better.—Dun's Review.

Northern Baptists TO LAUNCH MOVE FOR CREED EXPANSION. CHICAGO, April 14—The Northern Baptists of America, representing churches of that denomination in 37 states, will hold their annual national convention at Milwaukee, May 28 to June 3. Three or four thousand delegates, at least 1,000 of them laymen, are expected to attend and consider church problems. Stress is to be laid on laymen participating in the affairs of the convention as it shapes a programme of development for the next few years. A final report will be made on the outcome of the Baptist New World Movement, and a programme for future denominational expansion is to be launched.

Mount McKinley Sinking

BECAUSE OF EARTHQUAKES.

MCKINLEY PARK, Alaska.—(A. P.)—Tradition has it that Mount McKinley, the loftiest peak on the American Continent, sinks about 2 feet a year from its official altitude of 20,300 feet.

Residents of the region are convinced that this happens. They point out that there is an average of four earthquake shocks a year, and contend that the mountain settles about six inches with each tremor.

By way of attempted confirmation they refer to the Aleutian Islands. According to recent reports from scientific sources, no one can state the location or altitude of many of the small islands in the Aleutian archipelago. One day an island may appear well above water and the next day it may have vanished.

Numerous small islands, including Bogoslov, are reported to have disappeared without a trace. Bogoslov is recalled as the island which suddenly appeared while the crew of the coastguard cutter Bear looked on, in 1906.

For these topographical freaks the blame is placed on Mount Katmai and Pavloff volcanoes, which intermittently send out dense clouds of smoke and flame.
