

Matters in Nova Scotia.
The Globe's Halifax correspondent telegraphs that paper as follows on the 3rd inst. — On Saturday evening Gen. Doyle entertained a large party at dinner to meet Sir John and the other Canadian visitors. The members of the Local Government were invited, but did not attend. There was no demonstration when Mr. Macdonald or Carrier arrived, and the subscribers about coming to organize the Militia, &c., are laughed at. The prospect for conciliation is rather poor, even the Unionists admit there is too much violent feeling on the part of the anti-Unionists to admit of any satisfactory compromise at this time. The Anti-Union members of the Local Legislature and of the Commons are holding a caucus this evening to decide upon the course of action. There seems no possibility of the caucus favoring a compromise with the Dominion Government. There is some difficulty about the policy to be proposed to the Local Legislature, to maintain an attitude of hostility to the Union. They must do something. Some extremists are even proposing to refuse to pay Customs and duties. In some quarters an appeal to the United States is suggested. More moderate sections, however, are casting out for some plan of continuing the fight within the limits of allegiance. Another appeal to the Imperial authorities is proposed. An appeal to the people, to still another measure suggested. The press this evening has a significant article warning the Dominion Government not to ignore friends who have supported Union throughout. The conciliators have a difficult task upon them.

MISERIES IN THE CAPITAL. — The Canadian, of Quebec, says, that the want of labor there is such that many families in Roches and St. Saurveur have no food, and that they have actually no means to migrate and look for work elsewhere. This is truly deplorable, and the more so as it is difficult to devise any means of relief in such cases. The government cannot procure work nor find means for forwarding away all its subjects. The carpenters of Quebec were for the most part, at one time, farmers of the neighbourhood, who attracted by the exorbitantly high wages have sold their land and stock to come and enjoy city life and don city dress. This shows the great danger to a population of exercising only one kind of industry. The laboring population of Quebec are entirely dependent upon the building of wooden vessels; and that diminishing, they find themselves, without it being actually their own fault, in the truly alarming position our contemporary has depicted in vivid terms, but without being able to suggest a remedy. — Witness.

Mr. H. L. Bastien, one of the parties concerned in the late murder at Hamilton, was admitted to bail on Saturday. Efforts are also being made to get Slater jailed out.

The value of blooded horses owned by private gentlemen in New York is stated to be over $20,000,000.

There are at present seventeen lines of steamers, making 1,322 voyages per annum between England and America.
