

Weekly Colonist

FRIDAY, AUGUST 3, 1888. PUBLISHED WEEKLY. PRICE 10 CENTS.

PUBLIC WORKS SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

The Minister of Public Works has just issued a supplement to his annual report for the year 1887-8. It contains a number of interesting statements...

TWO-BY-LAWS.

Of the eight by-laws to be voted on by the ratepayers on Tuesday next, the two that ask $30,000 for sewerage and $30,000 for water supply are the most important.

A PROGRESSIVE COUNTRY.

Few countries during the last ten years have progressed as rapidly as the Argentine Republic. It has during the greater part of that period enjoyed almost complete domestic tranquility and its Government has devoted itself to the development of the magnificent resources of the country.

THE CHURCH CONFERENCE.

In an interesting historical sketch of the Church Conference recently held in London, the London Times points out that the practical impulse which gave rise to the first Conference in 1867 came, in the first instance, not from England but from Canada.

TRAINING OF HAND AND EYE.

One of the most interesting features of the Educational Convention, remarks the San Francisco Chronicle, is the display of public school and kindergarten work at the Pavilion.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

The return of St. M. S. Caroline from Port Eslington with the cheering news of a complete success in the determination of the position of affairs had changed but little from that which existed when the first reliable intelligence of the incident reached the provincial authorities.

UNDESIRABLE VICTIMS LIVED.

It was a large and beautiful ranch. Here he had large cattle ranches. Here he had a fine house. Here he had a fine garden.

IN A BAD FIX.

The crops in Victoria County, Ontario, fall have been a failure. The wheat crop is particularly poor.

THE HISTORY OF A CRIME.

How would New York's justice system deal with a crime like this? The case of a young man named Walter Lawrence is a good example.
