

FOR THE FOURTH YEAR

Two Out Of Three

Victoria Seniors Defeat Vancouver at Rugby by Eight Points to Three.

Visitors Win Intermediate Match and Lose to the Home Juniors.

Benefit For Professor Bob Foster Sports Yesterday.

Don't you think so for a minute: these two boys are strictly in for a tussle.

Don't you think so for a minute: these two boys are strictly in for a tussle. You're far too slow, you won't do, you can't out-evade a learned bump on a Rugby.

Seniors-Victoria, 8; Vancouver, 3. Intermediates-Vancouver, 6; Victoria, 0.

Seniors-Victoria, 8; Vancouver, 3. Intermediates-Vancouver, 6; Victoria, 0.

Colonel Worsnop Has Retired

Colonel Whyte of Westminster Now Commands the Sixth Regiment.

Vancouver License Commissioner's Idea of Closing Up the Saloons.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—Lieut.-Col. Worsnop's time is up, and he has retired from the active service of the Dominion militia.

From the start the Senior match was a close one, and although the team won, the match was won in the first half.

One of the features of the match was the clever and tricky work of the Victoria players, who were playing at half back for the first time.

The Crown Prince of Slam will arrive on November 30 in the morning, and will be met by the Mayor and the members of the Chamber.

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. literary society last evening, Dr. Riggs gave a practical talk on first aid to the injured.

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. literary society last evening, Dr. Riggs gave a practical talk on first aid to the injured.

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. literary society last evening, Dr. Riggs gave a practical talk on first aid to the injured.

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. literary society last evening, Dr. Riggs gave a practical talk on first aid to the injured.

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. literary society last evening, Dr. Riggs gave a practical talk on first aid to the injured.

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. literary society last evening, Dr. Riggs gave a practical talk on first aid to the injured.

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. literary society last evening, Dr. Riggs gave a practical talk on first aid to the injured.

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. literary society last evening, Dr. Riggs gave a practical talk on first aid to the injured.

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. literary society last evening, Dr. Riggs gave a practical talk on first aid to the injured.

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. literary society last evening, Dr. Riggs gave a practical talk on first aid to the injured.

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. literary society last evening, Dr. Riggs gave a practical talk on first aid to the injured.

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. literary society last evening, Dr. Riggs gave a practical talk on first aid to the injured.

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. literary society last evening, Dr. Riggs gave a practical talk on first aid to the injured.

At the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. literary society last evening, Dr. Riggs gave a practical talk on first aid to the injured.

COLONEL PRIOR PREMIER OF B.C.

Minister of Mines Succeeds Hon. James Dunsmuir.

Who Will However Retain Seat as Private Member.

Brief Sketch of Retiring Minister and His Successor.

The air has been filled with political rumors of late, many of which were so wild and imaginative that they even passed for fact.

The new Premier is spoken of by a Colonist reporter last night and declined to make any statement for publication at present.

Lieutenant-Colonel the Honorable Edward Gawler Prior, the new premier, is the second son of the late Rev. Henry Prior, of Dalhousie, Yorkshire, England.

He has always been closely identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He was educated at Leeds Grammar school and studied mining at the Royal School of Artillery, and was gazetted lieutenant-colonel commanding the Fifth Regiment, Canadian Artillery, in July, 1888.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

COLONEL PRIOR PREMIER OF B.C.

Minister of Mines Succeeds Hon. James Dunsmuir.

Who Will However Retain Seat as Private Member.

Brief Sketch of Retiring Minister and His Successor.

The air has been filled with political rumors of late, many of which were so wild and imaginative that they even passed for fact.

The new Premier is spoken of by a Colonist reporter last night and declined to make any statement for publication at present.

Lieutenant-Colonel the Honorable Edward Gawler Prior, the new premier, is the second son of the late Rev. Henry Prior, of Dalhousie, Yorkshire, England.

He has always been closely identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He was educated at Leeds Grammar school and studied mining at the Royal School of Artillery, and was gazetted lieutenant-colonel commanding the Fifth Regiment, Canadian Artillery, in July, 1888.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

COLONEL PRIOR PREMIER OF B.C.

Minister of Mines Succeeds Hon. James Dunsmuir.

Who Will However Retain Seat as Private Member.

Brief Sketch of Retiring Minister and His Successor.

The air has been filled with political rumors of late, many of which were so wild and imaginative that they even passed for fact.

The new Premier is spoken of by a Colonist reporter last night and declined to make any statement for publication at present.

Lieutenant-Colonel the Honorable Edward Gawler Prior, the new premier, is the second son of the late Rev. Henry Prior, of Dalhousie, Yorkshire, England.

He has always been closely identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He was educated at Leeds Grammar school and studied mining at the Royal School of Artillery, and was gazetted lieutenant-colonel commanding the Fifth Regiment, Canadian Artillery, in July, 1888.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

COLONEL PRIOR PREMIER OF B.C.

Minister of Mines Succeeds Hon. James Dunsmuir.

Who Will However Retain Seat as Private Member.

Brief Sketch of Retiring Minister and His Successor.

The air has been filled with political rumors of late, many of which were so wild and imaginative that they even passed for fact.

The new Premier is spoken of by a Colonist reporter last night and declined to make any statement for publication at present.

Lieutenant-Colonel the Honorable Edward Gawler Prior, the new premier, is the second son of the late Rev. Henry Prior, of Dalhousie, Yorkshire, England.

He has always been closely identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He was educated at Leeds Grammar school and studied mining at the Royal School of Artillery, and was gazetted lieutenant-colonel commanding the Fifth Regiment, Canadian Artillery, in July, 1888.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

COLONEL PRIOR PREMIER OF B.C.

Minister of Mines Succeeds Hon. James Dunsmuir.

Who Will However Retain Seat as Private Member.

Brief Sketch of Retiring Minister and His Successor.

The air has been filled with political rumors of late, many of which were so wild and imaginative that they even passed for fact.

The new Premier is spoken of by a Colonist reporter last night and declined to make any statement for publication at present.

Lieutenant-Colonel the Honorable Edward Gawler Prior, the new premier, is the second son of the late Rev. Henry Prior, of Dalhousie, Yorkshire, England.

He has always been closely identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He was educated at Leeds Grammar school and studied mining at the Royal School of Artillery, and was gazetted lieutenant-colonel commanding the Fifth Regiment, Canadian Artillery, in July, 1888.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

He has been identified with the Conservative party of the Dominion, representing Victoria in the House of Commons from 1888 to 1901.

The New Premier

Eastern Press Compliments Colonel Prior on His New Appointment.

Grand Trunk Railway Making a Move to Tap Northwest.

Visit of British Board of Trade Delegates Removes Some False Ideas.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—Eastern newspapers compliment Colonel Prior on his accession to the Premiership of British Columbia.

Mr. Todd of Victoria had an interview with Mr. Prefontaine, and urged that the Government should consider the matter.

The Militia Department has gratified over a score of Canadians whose address is not known.

Montreal is to be given a dry dock. At any rate a commission is appointed to report on the matter.

A. S. Blackburn is gazetted second lieutenant in the Rocky Mountain Rifles, and is expected to return tomorrow.

John Sutherland, who was C. P. H. watchman on the night of the murder of Mrs. Mueller, has been arrested on a charge of perjury.

Edmonton, N. W. T., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The city of Edmonton is again building operations are again brisk.

Speaking at the reception tendered the British Chamber of Commerce delegates at the city yesterday, Sir Albert Rollett said the delegates had learned a great deal already, short though their time had been in Canada.

When the delegates read the despatches about the cold snap now prevailing in Britain, they laughingly said they would have to return all the furs they brought with them to help keep their friends warm.

Montreal, Nov. 22.—George McBean, son of the late Archibald McBean, of Winnipeg, and a secret service man, died suddenly this morning.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 22.—The Allan liner Bavarian, which sailed from Montreal on November 14, arrived here at 2:30 yesterday afternoon, making a fast passage.

Most of them Russians and Scandinavian, bound for the United States and Western Canadian points.

ALARMED FOR U. S. PRESIDENT

Man Jumped Through Guards to Shake Hands and Caused Excitement.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 22.—Some excitement was caused this afternoon just after President Roosevelt left the residence of ex-Postmaster-General Smith for a reception at the home of Edward T. Stotesbury.

The carriage containing the President and Secretary Cortelyou had just started flanked on either side by a squadron of the Philadelphia City troops and a secret service man was on the box seat of the carriage.

The roped off sidewalks were packed on either side for several blocks. Suddenly as the President's carriage arrived opposite, a man pushed his way through the crowd, darted under the rope and rushed straight for the carriage.

At the same time Secretary Cortelyou, who is ever alert upon such occasions, caught a glimpse of him, and springing up leaped far over