ELECTIONS CAUSE MANY MURDERS

Political Contest in Hungary Accompanied Scenes Bloodshed—Party Pass Rise to Great Height

TROOPS CALLED IN TO KEEP ORDER

Government Apparently Won Decisive Victory and Legislature Struggle With Parliament Brought to Close

BUDAPEST, June 1.—General elections were held throughout Hungary today, and the returns indicate a clear victory for the government which will terminate the long struggle between the emperor and the Hungarian parliament. Most of the ministers were re-elected.
The dissolution of the Hungarian parliament and the subsequent general election have been marked by scenes without parallel since the country first received its constitution. The elections have been marked with unexampled bitterness from very first. The growing strength of the German party, the struggles of the Croats and Serbs to increase their power and the retaliation of the Magyars thus threatened, mingled in scenes of bloodshed. More than twenty murders and many murderous attacks are reported from various parts of the country where political passions have run high.
So great have the disorders come in many districts that the many governments have been unable to preserve the peace and troops have been hurriedly summoned.
It is estimated that over 500,000 of the regular army were engaged in the progress of the elections.

The present contract expires this year, and bids for the new service to be received up to November 1. The sailing dates are to be every two weeks from Vancouver, and the ports of Victoria, Honolulu, Suva, Auckland and Brisbane, and several alternative routes are proposed.

Jour at Mr. Roosevelt

LONDON, June 1.—Theodore Roosevelt's Guildhall speech is again the subject of long editorial comment. Most of the London morning newspapers. The new Bocha cabinet, which is to be sworn in tomorrow, is to release Dinanulu, son of famous Chief Cetewayo, who is serving a term of four years' imprisonment in Natal for harboring rebels and give him a yearly allowance of £500 subject to his good behavior. The London Radical morning paper sarcastically expresses the hope that this act of clemency will not incite Mr. Roosevelt's discourse on score of sentimentality.

Railway Company Ceasured

VANCOUVER, June 1.—The coroner's jury last night brought in verdict in the case of Shogoro Kanara, a Japanese workman killed by railway grade work in the east of the city yesterday, charging Great Northern railway with negligence in the management of work trains. The verdict states that the evidence showed the crew had orders to stay on work cars to protect the company in case of an emergency signal and flagmen at danger points and curves where men are at work.

Police Not Particular

MONTREAL, June 1.—Alfred Beterose, 75 years of age, was found early yesterday wandering in the streets part by two street railway conductors. He was under the influence of liquor, and complained having been robbed and lost ten dollars and afterwards shot by the assailants. The conductors turned the old man over to a constable, who took him to the station, where he was locked up. He again complained having been shot, and the police took it for merely a drunken rambling. This morning he was released, and was directed to his home. There was found that he had been shot, a bullet entering below the right eye and lodging at the back of his head. The police doctors say that he may live, and that in any event he will lose the sight of an eye. A full police investigation is expected to follow.
