

Farming.

A PAPER FOR FARMERS AND STOCKMEN.

Managing Director, . . . D. T. McAINSH.
Editor, . . . J. W. WHEATON.

Farming is a paper for farmers and stockmen, published weekly, with illustrations. The subscription price is one dollar a year, payable in advance. Postage is prepaid by the publishers for all subscriptions in Canada and the United States. For all other countries in the Postal Union add fifty cents for postage.

Change of Address.—When a change of address is ordered, both the new and the old address must be given. The notice should be sent one week before the change is to take effect.

Receipts are only sent upon request. The date opposite the name on the address label indicates the time up to which the subscription is paid, and the change of date is sufficient acknowledgment of payment. When this change is not made promptly notify us.

Discontinuances.—Following the general desire of our readers, no subscriber's copy of FARMING is discontinued until notice to that effect is given. All arrears must be paid.

How to Remit.—Remittances should be sent by cheque, draft, express order, postal note, or money order, payable to order of FARMING. Cash should be sent in registered letter.

Advertising Rates on application.

Letters should be addressed:
