General Order.

In pursuance of the provisions contained in the 55th section of "The Exchequer Court Act," it is ordered that the following rules in respect of the matters hereinafter mentioned shall be in force in the Exchequer Court of Canada:—

1. Rule 116 of the Exchequer Court of Canada is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:

TRIALS.

Rule 116.

When any action is ripe for trial or hearing, a Judge may, on application of any party and after summons served on all parties to the suit, fix the time and place of trial and hearing, and may direct when and in what manner and upon whom notice of trial or hearing together with a copy of the Judge's order is to be served, and such notice and order shall be forthwith served accordingly.

Sittings of the Exchequer Court of Canada, at which any action ripe for trial or hearing may be set down for trial by either party thereto, upon giving the opposite party ten days' notice of trial, or by consent of parties, and without taking out any summons, may be held at any time and place appointed by a Judge, of which notice shall be published in the Canada Gazette.

Such sittings will be continued from day to day until the business coming before the Court is disposed of.

On the first day of each of such sittings, the Court will hear any argument of demurrer, special cases, motion for judgment, appeal from the report of the registrar or other officer of the Court, or other motion, application or business which cannot be transacted by a judge in Chambers.

2. Rule 120 of the Exchequer Court of Canada is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:

Rule 120.

In case the Judge is unable from any cause to attend on the day fixed for any sitting or for the trial of any issue, such sitting or trial shall stand adjourned from day to day until he is able to attend.
