

The Theological and Literary Society, to which reference was made in our first issue, has had a most interesting and helpful course of meetings this session. Thus far, the subjects under discussion have been the following: The Resurrection of the Body; The Christian Ministry,—its chief end; "Epistle of Khars-hish"; Miracles; The Bible Class; "Death in the Desert"; The Church and Amusements; The Atonement; "Saul"; Ritualism,—in Galatians and present day tendencies; "The Two Voices." Each meeting was voted a decided success. To the President, Mr. Falconer, the students feel deeply grateful for his active interest in the Society and the valuable contributions made by him to each discussion. The Executive Committee has in hand the selection of subjects for the meetings of next session, and the assigning of these to leaders who will study them at their leisure through the summer, and prepare papers. We anticipate for next session even more thoughtful papers and interesting discussions than those we have enjoyed so much during the current College year.

We wish to thank those of our subscribers who have remembered us in our need. Indeed, we feel very grateful. We only regret they form so small a minority—less than one-third. Will there not be others soon to follow their good example? This for a hint; we patiently await developments.
