

LITTELL'S

LIVING AGE

In 1891 THE LIVING AGE enters upon its forty-eighth year. It has met with constant commendation and success.

A WEEKLY MAGAZINE, it gives more than Three and a Quarter Thousand double-column octavo pages of reading matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a completeness nowhere else attempted,

The best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature, and from the pens of the FOREMOST LIVING WRITERS.

The ablest and most cultivated intellects in every department of Literature, Science, Politics, and Art, find expression in the Periodical Literature of Europe, and especially of Great Britain.

The Living Age, forming four large volumes a year, furnishes, from the great and generally inaccessible mass of this literature, the only compilation that, while within the reach of all, is satisfactory in the COMPLETENESS with which it embraces whatever is of immediate interest, or of solid, permanent value.

It is therefore indispensable to every one who wishes to keep pace with the events or intellectual progress of the time, or to cultivate in himself or his family general intelligence and literary taste.

OPINIONS.

"It is nearly half a century since the first volume of this sterling publication came from the press, and to-day it stands the most perfect publication of its kind in the world. There is but one LIVING AGE, though many have essayed imitations. While their intent has, no doubt, been worthy, they have lacked that rare discriminating judgment, that fineness of acumen, and that keen appreciation of what constitutes true excellence, which make LITTELL'S LIVING AGE the incomparable publication that it is."—Christian at Work, New York.

"It is indispensable to intelligent people in this busy day."—New York Evangelist.

"Indeed it may well be doubted whether there exists any more essential aid to cultivation of the mind among English-speaking people. . . . No one knows its value so well as the busy man who without it might well despair of keeping in any way posted as to the trend of modern thought in this day of immense activity."—Episcopal Recorder, Philadelphia.

"It is incomparably the finest literary production of modern times. . . . It embraces within its scope the matured thoughts, on all subjects, of the greatest authors and ripest scholars in Europe."—Herald and Presbyterian, Cincinnati.

"Biography, fiction, science, criticism, history, poetry, travels, whatever men are interested in, all are found here."—The Watchman, Boston.

"The readers miss very little that is important in the periodical domain."—Boston Journal.

"It may be truthfully and cordially said that it never offers a dry or valueless page."—New York Tribune.

"To read it is itself an education in the course of modern thought and literature."—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

"Coming weekly, it has a great advantage over the monthly magazines and reviews."—San Francisco Chronicle.

"For the amount of reading matter contained, the subscription is extremely low."—Christian Advocate, Nashville.

"It contains nearly all the good literature of the time."—The Churchman, New York.

"It would be cheap at almost any price."—California Christian Advocate, San Francisco.

"For the man who tries to be truly conversant with the very best literature of this and other countries, it is indispensable."—Central Baptist, St. Louis.

"In it the reader finds all that is worth knowing in the realm of current literature."—Canada Presbyterian, Toronto.
