

Contents.—Matières.

PROSE.		page.
1. Pathological observations on the brain,	-	129
2. Administration de M. Necker,	- - -	132
3. Account of the Bank of exchange &c.	-	137
4. Affaires de Pologne,	-	138
5. Remarks on the character of the Indians,	-	144
6. Idées sur le Mariage,	-	145
7. A Fable, by Linnæus,	-	149
8. Histoire du sénat de suède,	-	150
9. Directions for the study of English history,	-	152
10. Institutions politiques;	-	155
11. Covetousness its own punishment—A tale.	-	157
12. Histoire d'Henriette,	-	163
13. Account of the Creek Indians,	-	165
14. Eruption du Mont-Ethna,	-	166
15. Some account of Dr. Robertson.	-	167

VERSE.
An Epigram,	-	168
La prudence et l'Amour.	-	169

CHRONICLE.
Declaration of the Imperial and Royal Junta, charged with the administration of the conquered countries,	-	170
Remonstrance of the King and States of Poland, to the Russian Ambassador,	-	172
The funeral of Marat,	-	174
Some account of Marie-Anne-Charlotte Cordey, with a letter written by her in prison	-	ib.
Articles of intelligence from London Papers.	-	178
Speech pronounced by the Count de la Charte.	-	188

PROVINCIAL REGISTER.
Address of the Citizens of Montreal to Lord Dorchester,	-	190
Ditto of ditto to General Clarke,	-	ib.
Arrivals in the Port of Quebec,	-	192
Morts et Naissances à Québec.	-	193
State of Barometer & Thermometer ( behind title page. )	-	