

escape; and he had nearly given way to despair, when the horseman came near, and by the bright moonlight he distinguished the uniform of a gendarme.

Poor Pierre was now really in safety; he recounted all his history to the gendarme, who, taking him up before him on the horse, galloped off to the station of gendarmerie in the neighborhood, and soon returned with a troop, who surrounded the house. The miscreants had not yet discovered Pierre's escape, being still engaged at their supper, and they were seized with the old woman, and sent off to prison, whence in due time they were brought out to receive the reward of their deeds. The story made such a noise in the country, that many of the principle families interested themselves about the poor boy and his family. The landlord heard the story, and, as it was no longer possible for the poor widow to manage a farm, he set her up in a little business; and he, as well as others in the neighborhood, took care that the children should be sent to school. Pierre was prepared by the good cure for his first communion; he never forgot his father's last recommendation, to be devout to the Blessed Virgin; and never did a day pass without his thanking and blessing her to whom he believed he owed his deliverance from so great a danger. And when, to quote the words of St. Bernard, "was it ever known that any one having recourse to her protection, or beseeching her assistance, was abandoned?" When did any one ever put their confidence in this sweet and holy Mother without being rewarded? In recompense for his devotion to her, she inspired the little peasant Pierre with so great a love of virtue and horror of vice, that in a few years the good cure received him entirely into his own house, where he prepared him for entering the ecclesiastical seminary of the diocese; and Pierre, as a parish priest in catechising his little flock, never loses an opportunity of inculcating on them that love and veneration for the Immaculate Mother of God, to which he himself owes so much.

In a very old copy of a work, still extant on necromancy, is the following quaint passage:—"Question—How to raise the devil? Answer—Contradict yer wife."

There was once a crusty old bachelor who, when ever he saw among the lists of deaths that of a woman, was wont to exclaim—"Thank goodness, there's another of 'em gone!"

Uncle Sam had a neighbor who was in the habit of working on Sundays, but after a while he joined the Church. One day he met the minister to whose church he belonged. "Well Uncle Sam," said he, "do you see any difference in Mr. P. since he joined the church?" "Oh yes," said Uncle Sam, "a great difference. Formerly, when he went out to mend his fence on Sunday, he carried his axe on his shoulder, but now he carries it under his overcoat."

INOLENT SORRS.—Vitality is so weak in some systems, that any ulcerous diseases with which they are afflicted, lapse almost immediately from the acute or inflammatory phase into the chronic condition, becoming sluggish and indolent. But they are not the less dangerous on that account, while they are much more difficult to deal with. In no class of cases has BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA been administered with more signal success than in these. It supplies to the system and the constitution the vigor necessary to fight the disorder, while its antiseptic properties exercise a direct and most beneficial effect upon the sores. It is important to use BRISTOL'S VEGETABLE PILLS at some time with the Sarsaparilla, as they carry off from the system depraved and vitiated humors set free by the Sarsaparilla, and in this way hasten a cure. 508 Agents for Montreal, Devins & Bolton, Lamplough & Campbell, Davidson & Co., K. A PERFUME AND A COSMETIC.—The surpassing aromatic excellence of MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER has caused its qualities, as a cosmetic, to be partially overlooked. It is not only the most refreshing and delightful of all perfumes, but as a superficial application for the removal of blemishes on the skin, it is unsurpassed. In tropical climates, where the excessive heat causes annoying eruptions, and every sunbeam carries freckles, tan, and sunburn in its train, this soothing toilet-water is found exceedingly useful for cosmetic purposes. Its delicious fragrance is also a complete antidote to nervous headache and faintness. 529 Purchasers are requested to see that the words "Florida Water, Murray & Lanman, No. 69 Water Street, New York," are stamped in the glass on each bottle. Without this none is genuine. Agents for Montreal:—Devins & Bolton, Lamplough & Campbell, Davidson & Co., K. Campbell & Co., J. Gardner, J. A. Harte, Picault & Son, H. R. Gray, J. Goulden, R. S. THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.

The following is an extract from a letter written by the Rev. O. Z. Weizer, to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburg, Penn.:

A BENEFICENT.—Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our 'Sassy' to say, "A Blessing on Mrs. Winslow, for helping her to survive and escape the griping colicking, and teething sieges. We confirm every word set forth in the Prospectus. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. Away with your 'Oordial,' 'Paregoric,' 'Drops,' 'Laudanum,' and every other 'Narcotic,' by which the babe is drugged into stupidity, and rendered dull and idiotic for life.

We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her 'Soothing Syrup for Children Teething.' If we had the power, we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the Infant Race. 25 cents a bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

TRIUMPHS OF THE GREAT CATHARTIC.—From all quarters pour in continual proofs of the efficacy of BRISTOL'S SUGAR COATED PILLS. In districts infested with chills and fever and bilious remittents, their success has been wonderful. One letter from a Western physician says: 'They are breaking up intermittent fever in this region. I prescribe them in all bilious cases, and consider them the best family medicine we have.' No less extraordinary is their effect in indigestion, and the complaints of the liver and bowels to which it gives rise. The mildness of their operation surprises all who use them for the first time, while their searching properties are extolled with peculiar emphasis. They are rapidly superseding the old fashioned drastic purgatives; and the fact that they do not deteriorate by keeping, being put up in glass vials, gives them an immense advantage over the perishable pills. In all cases arising from, or aggravated by impure blood, BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA should be used in connection with the Pills. 421 J. F. Henry & Co. Montreal, General Agents for Canada. This long tested and unrivalled Family Medicine has been favorably known for about thirty years, during which time we have received thousands of testimonials proving it to be an almost never failing remedy for the above named complaints. It has been tested in every variety of climate and in almost every known portion of the globe. The missionary, the sailor and the soldier find it an inestimable friend, and the millions of bottles sold yearly are its best and strongest recommendation.

The great reputation the Pain Killer has won for itself has induced others to imitate and counterfeit it to a great extent. We should caution all purchasers against these imitations either in name or style of putting up such as Pain Destroyers, Pain Relievers, Pain Kings, Pain Remedys, &c., &c. Country Merchants and Druggists purchase these worthless preparations for one half the price of the genuine Pain Killer, yet charge the public the same as for the genuine, hence their object in urging these worthless preparations on the public. Send for a Pain Killer Almanac and Receipt Book for 1867 gotten up with the greatest of care and contains, aside from numerous testimonials, &c., of the Pain Killer, a very valuable collection of Domestic Receipts. The Pain-Killer is sold every where by all Druggists and Country-Store-keepers. PRICE, 15 cts., 25 cts. and 50 cts. per bottle. Orders should be addressed to PERRY DAVIS & SON, Manufacture and Proprietors, MONTREAL, C. E. June 22, 1866. 12m.

S. T.—1860.—X.—The amount of Plantation Bitters sold in one year is something startling.—They would fill Broadway six feet high, from the Park to 4th street. Drake's manufactory is one of the institutions of New York. It is said that Drake painted all the rocks in the Eastern States with his calistio "S. T.—1860.—X." and then got the old grumpy legislators to pass a law "preventing disgracing the face of nature," which gives him a monopoly. We do not know how this is, but we do know the Plantation Bitters sell as no other article ever did. They are used by all classes of the community, and are death on Dyspepsia—certain. They are very invigorating when languid and weak, and a great appetizer. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

"In lifting the kettle from the fire I scalded myself very severely—one hand almost to a crisp. The torture was unbearable. * * * The Mexican Mustang Liniment relieved the pain almost immediately. It healed rapidly, and left very little scar. CHAS. FOSTER, 420 Broad St., Philada." This is merely a sample of what the Mustang Liniment will do. It is invaluable in all cases of wounds, swellings, sprains, cuts, bruises, spavins, etc., either upon man or beast. Beware of counterfeits. None is genuine unless wrapped in fine steel-plate engravings, bearing the signatures of G. W. Westbrook, Chemist, and the private stamp of DeMas Barnes & Co., New York. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

WHAT DID I!—A young lady, returning to her country home after a sojourn of a few months in New York, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a rustic, flushed face, she had a soft, ruby complexion, of almost marble smoothness; and instead of 22, she really appeared but 17. She told them plainly she used Hagan's Magnolia Balm, and would not be without it. Any lady can improve her personal appearance very much by using this article. It can be ordered of any druggist for only 50 cents. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.

Helmstreet's Inimitable Hair Coloring has been steadily growing in favor for over twenty years. It acts upon the absorbents at the roots of the hair, and changes it to its original color by degrees. All instantaneous dyes deaden and injure the hair. Helmstreet's is not a dye, but is certain in its results, promotes its growth, and is a beautiful Hair Dressing. Price 50 cents and $1. Sold by all dealers. SARATOGA SPRING WATER, sold by all Druggists.
