

Grand Prix Equestrian Team. In Munich in 1972, Canadian medals were won in the water: Bruce Robertson won a silver in the 100 meter butterfly, Leslie Cliff a silver in the 400 meter individual medley, Donna-Marie Gurr a bronze in the 200 meter backstroke, the men's relay team a bronze in the 4 X 100 meter medley relay and the soling crew a bronze in yachting.

OFFICIAL WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS

Canadian athletes distinguish themselves every year in official World Championships. This year Karen Magnussen became Canada's first World Figure Skating Champion since Petra Burka. George Athans Junior was 1971 Men's World Water Ski Champion and in 1972, the Richmond Hill Dynes Softball Team won the title of the world's best. In 1970, Betsy Clifford became the youngest skier to ever hold a world giant slalom championship title.
