

ARTICLE 6

Additional Information

If the Requested State considers that the documentation furnished in support of a request for extradition is not sufficient to enable it to make a decision under this Treaty, that State shall request that additional information be furnished within such time as it specifies.

ARTICLE 7

Simplified Extradition

1. Extradition of a person sought may be granted pursuant to the provisions of this Treaty, notwithstanding that the requirements of Article 5 paragraph 1, 2 and 3 have not been complied with, provided that the person sought consents to an order for extradition being made.
2. Article 13 shall apply in such cases unless the Requested State, before surrender, states that the rule of specialty shall not apply.

ARTICLE 8

Provisional Arrest

1. In cases of urgency, a Contracting Party may apply through the facilities of the International Criminal Police Organisation (INTERPOL) or through a channel established by Article 4 for the provisional arrest of the person sought. The application may be transmitted by any means affording a record in writing.
2. The application for provisional arrest shall include:
 - a) information concerning the identity, and if available, nationality, probable location of the person sought, and a physical description;
 - b) a statement that extradition will be requested;
 - c) the name, date and place of the offence and a brief description of the facts of the case;
 - d) a statement indicating that a warrant of arrest exists or a conviction was pronounced, with date, place and issuing authority; and
 - e) a statement indicating the maximum period of deprivation of liberty that may be imposed or that was imposed and, where applicable, that remains to be served.
3. On receipt of an application for provisional arrest the Requested State shall, subject to its law, take necessary steps to secure the arrest of the person sought and the Requesting State shall be promptly notified of the result of this request.
