

against the manner in which these bills go through the house. There is nothing much that I can add, except that I recall that on the last occasion on which this question came up the Minister of Justice (Mr. St. Laurent) gave in my opinion a good explanation of how these divorce cases might be disposed of in the future. I sincerely hope that the Minister of Justice will not delay unduly in bringing down a bill for that purpose, so that these divorce cases can be dealt with in a proper manner. Just to give an example of the position we are in—and this is another reason why I protest now against these bills going through in this manner—the printing of these bills is not all it should be. In one of them, for instance, the name “Burton” is mentioned; I believe that should be “Turton”. I give that as an example of how parliament has got into the habit of passing these bills carelessly, and I wish to register my protest along with others that have been made previously against the manner in which these divorces are granted.

Motion agreed to, on division.
