

Criminal Code

25 per cent of his cases were sent to him by the welfare agencies in Montreal without charge. This was the price for protection in Montreal. This man, who had been trained in another country, believed that there was nothing wrong with performing abortions. In most cases he fitted the person with a pessary and told her not to come back. He was not interested in seeing her again. He believed he was doing a job for the young people. If we are not going to provide birth control pills in our high schools and in some of our public schools to all female students then we had better consider—

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Bécharde): Order, please. We will suspend the sitting until the lights come back.

Hon. G. J. McIlraith (Solicitor General): Mr. Speaker, I wonder if it would meet the wishes of the house to call it ten o'clock?

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Bécharde): Order, please. Since it is approximately ten o'clock and due to the circumstances, the house is adjourned until tomorrow at 2 p.m.

At ten o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
