

January 19, 1926.

Dr. D.S. Likely,
180, West 59th Street,
New York City.

Dear Dr. Likely:-

Thank you for your letter of the 15th inst.
I am looking forward with great pleasure to meeting the McGill men on Saturday, February 13th.

It now so happens that I shall be in New York on January 30th. Shortly after our previous correspondence, the Metropolitan Life gave to us $25,000. and a few days later invited me to speak at a dinner held in connection with some convention of theirs in New York on January 30th. The Chancellor of the University and others thought that I could not very well refuse to go, and so at very great inconvenience I am going down then for the day.

In February I shall arrive on the morning of Friday, February 12th accompanied by my wife and shall remain until Sunday evening, February 14th. Please do not ask me now what the subject of my address shall be.

With all good wishes,

Yours faithfully,

Wilfrid Bovey.
