

CHAPTER XI.

FETES AND FEASTING.

	PAGE.
Visit of the Governor-General—Civic and Military Display— Scene at the Wharf—The Public Reception—His Excellency's Reply to the Corporate Address—The Cortège—Concert at the "Crystal Palace"—Grand Review and Mimic Fight on Logan's Farm—Banquet at St. Lawrence Hall—The Levée— Dramatic Performance by Military Amateurs—Effects of a Sortie	211

CHAPTER XII.

KAKOUNA, "THE BRIGHTON OF CANADA."

Quitting Montreal—On Board a Steamer—Town of Sorel—Its Historical Interest—Cascade of Chambli—Rivière du Loup— Kakouna—Topography of the Place—French Canadian Lodg- ing-House Keepers—O'Neill's Hotel—Fashionable Life at this Watering Place—A Gifted Jehu—A Yankee Speculator— An "Artist" par excellence —An Indian Encampment—Visit to a Convent—The Catholic Church—Sunday Auction for the Benefit of a Soul in Purgatory—Drive to the Falls—A Strange Story—Atmospherical Phenomena in the Lower St. Law- rence	229
--	-----

CHAPTER XIII.

RETURN TO QUEBEC.

French-Canadian Pretensions—The Exodus from the States— "Skedaddling"—A Wo-begone Federal Soldier—Yankee Emissaries Discomfited—Outrages by Federal Sentinels at Niagara—A Volunteer Hero—The Turf Club Races— Description of the Race Course—Military Murders—Presen- tation of the Victoria Cross to Captain Burslam—Colonel Paynter Taking Farewell of the Garrison—His Observations on the Immoral Habits of the Troops	254
--	-----