

Continued by English Societies.—Growth of the Voluntary Ideal and Self-support.—Progress of the Roman Catholic Church in Popular Favor and Numbers.—The Church of French Canada.—Missionary Work in the North-West and Growth in British Columbia.—Bishop Taché.—Presbyterianism Grows in Strength and Unity.—Dr. John Black.—Interjection of Scotch Disputes into the Canadian Church.—Evangelization Work in Lower Canada.—Comparative Progress of the Denominations.—Journalism and Literature.—Record of the Provinces.—Position of Literature in a Pioneer Community.—Howe and Haliburton.—On the Pacific Coast.—French-Canadian Excellence in Literature and Journalism.—The Earlier Poets.—Slow Development of the Militia.—Military Spirit not yet Strong.—Tariff Independence.—Municipal Growth.—Artistic and Social Conditions.—General Progress of the Provinces.....	344
--	-----

CHAPTER XV.

THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE DOMINION.

Causes Making for Unity.—Pioneers in the Movement.—Sewell, Duke of Kent, Robinson, Durham.—Maritime Union Projects and the Charlottetown Conference.—Practical Steps Prior to that Gathering.—Policy of the Home Government.—The Manchester School.—Lord Monck.—Views of Johnston, Gray, Hamilton, and McGee.—Opposition to Federation from Joly de Lotbinière, Dorion, Holton, Dunkin, and Other Liberal Leaders.—Policy and Views of John A. Macdonald.—Assistance Given him by George Brown, Cartier, Tupper, and Tilley.—Conference at Quebec following the Charlottetown Meeting.—Delegates in London.—The Principle of Union Discussed in the Provinces.—The North American Act Passes the Imperial Parliament and Becomes Law.—Nature and Terms of the New Constitution.—The First Dominion Ministry.—Subsequent Accession of Prince Edward Island, Manitoba, and British Columbia.—The New Dominion....	375
---	-----

CONS

The Pa
Tries
Brow
—The Tupp
vativ Provi
field Canad and l Chang lier C of Pre trover of Ca
and tl Office.
Discon
the Pr
Agitat
Hudson
Rebelli
dougal Create
McGee
Canadi
Macdor
Admini
tive R
North-tion of cler in