THE HUNT RACES

OPEN TOMORROW

On Friday afternoon, Saturday morning and Saturday afternoon, the Toronto Hunt Club will give, at the club grounds, Kingston road, the most comprehensive entertainment for horse lovers they have yet attempted. The program comprises five steepchases, twelve show classes, and a polo contest, with the several classes so grouped as to present a variety of events each day.

Such prominent owners as Mr. Geo. Beadmore, Mr. Amelius Jarvis, Mr. Jos. Kilgour and Mr. Hume Blake will start their horses, along with a host of others, and the most exciting contests may be expected.

A great deal of interest has been shown lately in amateur racing, and a good crowd should be on hand to cheer the winners.

THE TORONTO CHESS CLUB.

The usual meeting for the chess club will be held at the club room, 1147 of Commercial building, northward corner of King and Jarvis streets, on Saturday, Oct. 2, at 8 p.m. It is expected that the prizes and trophies won in the tourney will be presented.

The continuous handicap tourney will be continued during the coming month.

100% Beer Goodness

Says The Pure Food Expert—

"Of all the brews I have ever tested, O'KEEFE'S come nearest to perfection. I score them 100% beer goodness because

O'Keefe's Pilsener Lager
O'Keefe's Special Extra Mild Ale
O'Keefe's Gold Label Stock Ale
O'Keefe's Special Extra Mild Stout are brewed only with our good Canadian Barley, choicest imported Hops, and filtered spring water.

Because of the high percentage of nutriment they contain, I cordially recommend them as the best health-drink for the whole family."
