KRITCHELL IS SOLD

President McCaffery wired from New York last night that he had sold Catcher Kritchell to Jack Dunn's Richmond Club.

AFTER A JOB

Second Baseman Hollander want to catch on with the Leafs. Clyme will likely get a seasoned middle-sack er for the position.

TIM JORDAN HAS HIS JOB CINCHED

Has Shown Grand Work at Durham-Graham as an Outfielder-Gossip.

DURHAM, N.C., April 12.—This Toront call team has burst into full speed fast than any aggregation we ever sent sout before. The reasons are various, but the ien on the field. Tim Jordan is like a young colt urging the ball around like a boy off the corner lots and swinging a ginger into his play that is not only infectious, but also inspiring. The Bronx boy came into camp a mighty doubtful factor for first base against his young rival. In four days Timothy had not only made good on his own hook, hustling the play around, winging the ball like midseason form, hitting freely and running bases like a colt, but also left the manager no other alternative but to have him as a fixture at his old place. The way Tim is speeding up leaves all anxiety out of the reckoning as far as first base is concerned.

Tim is speeding up leaves all anxiety out of the reckoning as far as first base is concerned.

Meanwhile Dawson Graham is a young giant full of life and willingness. More than that he has every appearance of being a cracking good right hand hitter, and that kind is scarce. As a fielder at first he was not a whirlwind last season, but one morning down here he showed not a little ability to pull down files in right field, and now he is being groomed for a job out there. Brown, the Washington youngster, has been playing in right, but apparently lacks ambition, and as he is a left hand hitter and would cost Toronto a pretty big purchase price, his chances of seeing Toronto have faded to practically nil. It only remains for Graham to show a little more in chasing files to give him the right field position. In fact he seems almost sure of it.

Bracket has no rival in centre. He has been handling himself nicely out there in practice and doubtless will do as well in games.

Bill O'Hara is the same as usual and looks to have left field to himself.

Bert Wilson is trying hard, but at the

Bill O'Hara is the same as usual and looks to have left field to himself.

Bert Wilson is trying hard, but at the present writing it is more than doubtful whether he will be able to face the starter this year. He is very lame in his running and in fact hasn't been able to do more than jog yet. It is a pity that as good a ball player and as fine a young fellow personally should fall by the way-side. However, where there is life there is hope—and here's hoping. Hunt is hard at it, but the youngster hasn't much chance to make it this year.

As has been said Tim Jordan has been going so strong that he can't be displaced. Manager Clymer came south with the impression that Tim was a forlorn hope. He is agreeably surprised to find him an asset of, the first quality. Roxy Roach is going like a house after at short. In fact these two veterans are the life and the pivot points of the infield work. They start and keep up the hurrying and skurrying, and the ball is always hot in fielding practice.

Besides the splendid work of these two on their own hook they have dragged the youngsters along at the same pace—and it is a merry one. Hollander is showing splendidly at second, and Pepe and Isaacs are performing all that could be asked or expected at third, Roach sandwiching in between and keeping things going at a lively pace.

But the next few days should see a decided change in this infield. Manager Clymer is hot after a second baseman, now with a big league club. He will have to be purchased at a pretty stiff price, but it should make a mighty shifty infield with him at second. If he lands one, well and good; if he captures both it will give Toronto the best, fastest and cleverest infield it ever had—bar none. If both men are secured one of them will be placed at third, it is figured, unless Isaacs can show enough to keep him off.

PROTESTS FIRST GAME.

CHICAGO, April 12.—Manager Schlafly of the Buffalo Federal team wired a protest today against the Brooklyn victory on the ground that Catcher Land, after surrendering his place on the base lines to another runner, resumed his part in the game illegally. Gilmore will await a letter from Schlafly before taking action on the protest, he said. n the protest, he said.
