FARM NEWS FOR FARMERS

An auction sale of Shorthorn cattle in Middlemarch. Elgin County, was a success. The stock was of extra carnia, test year. This mat with a buyer from Indiana paid $660 for a hold the fair annually, the only one four-year-old cow the pick of the bunch. Others brought $200 and down. The proceeds of the sale amounted to $11,000. The stock belonged to the estate of the late William J. Beatty. liam J. Beatty.

BEAVER BUYS MANY CLAIMS

The Beaver Consolidated Mines, Ltd., has purchased outright the group of ten claims, comprising 360 acres belonging to the Kirkland Lake Gold Mines, Ltd. Papers have been signed by both the parties to the agreement and it is expected that operations will commence within two weeks as there is a complete plant on the ground and no need of immediate further expenditure for surface improvements. The bargain provides for the expenditure of sufficient money by the Cobalt company to insure that the property will receive a good chance of becoming a mine. In the shaft of the Mc-Kane claim upon which all the work has been done to date, some very spectacular one was found. A syndicate of Halleybury men, including Messrs. A. G. Bagshaw, Arthur Ferland, J. H. Black and John Wood, hold an 85 per cent. Interest in the Kirkland Lake Gold Mines.
