

in such vacancies as may happen therein; and that every person so presented to any such parsonage or rectory shall hold and enjoy the same, and all rights, profits, and emoluments thereunto belonging or granted, as fully and amply, and in the same manner, and on the same terms and conditions, and liable to the performance of the same duties, as the incumbent of a parsonage or rectory in England.

L. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every such presentation of an incumbent or minister to any such parsonage or rectory, and of the enjoyment of any such parsonage or rectory, and of the rights, profits, and emoluments thereof, by any such incumbent or minister, shall be subject and liable to all rights and authority, which have been lawfully granted by Majesty's royal letters patent to the Bishop of Nova Scotia, or which may hereafter, by his Majesty's royal authority, be lawfully granted or appointed to be administered and executed within the said provinces; or either of them respectively, by the said bisop of Nova Scotia, or by any person or persons, according to the laws and customs of the church of England, which are lawfully made and observed in England.

LI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the several provisions herebefore contained, respecting the allotment and appropriation of lands for the support of a protestant clergy within the said provinces, and also respecting the constituting, erecting, and endowing parsonages or rectories within the said provinces, and also respecting the presentation of incumbents or ministers to the same, and also respecting the manner in which such incumbents or ministers shall hold and enjoy the same, shall be subject to be varied or repealed by express provisions for that purpose, contained in any act or acts which may be passed by the legislative council or assembly of the said provinces respectively, and to every such act by his Majesty, his heirs or successors, under the restriction hereinafter provided.

CLII. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted
