

CERTIFICATES OF Dr. NEWCOMB'S FAMILY MEDICINES.

SUSSEX VALE, N. B., October 20th, 1875.

Messrs. R. V. BARKER & Co.,—Gentlemen—I have been using your German Condition Powders for the different diseases of Horses and Cattle, and found them superior to any other medicine. I had five horses sick with the Epizootic, which visited this Province in 1872, and used your Powders. My horses came out better than any in the neighborhood where I live, and I ascribe it to the beneficial effects of your Powders.

Yours truly,

THOMAS HEFFER.

People who have tried them say that they are invaluable for fattening cattle, cleansing the hide of all humor, cooling the blood and fattening the animal.

I was suffering from Dyspepsia in its worst form. One teaspoonful of Dr. Newcomb's Anti-Bilious Mixture relieved me within half an hour, and three bottles have made a complete cure.
