

3. In the discussion following the introduction of a subject, no person shall speak more than twice or for a longer time than five minutes except by a vote of the meeting.

4. When a question is under consideration no motion shall be in order except the following:—(1) To adjourn; (2) to postpone; (3) to amend. These motions take precedence in the order named, and the first two shall be decided without debate.

5. Before the vote is taken on any motion or amendment the president shall ask "Is the meeting ready for the question?" The motion shall not be put so long as any member desires to speak and is in order. Any member desirous of asking a question on the subject introduced may do so verbally, but if he desires to ask more than two questions, he must submit them to the secretary in writing.

6. Unless otherwise decided upon no resolution shall be brought before a meeting until passed upon by the Board of Directors.
