While the missionaries had not been molested they had, on the advice of the British consul, sent some of the women and children to the ports where they could have the protection of British warships. The other women and children would follow and remain there until fear of danger was over. During the year 1911, the Gas Company has tried to keep abreast and somewhat in advance of the remarkably rapid growth of city and suburbs.

With unimpaired confidence in 1911, and with courage strengthened by the support and patronage received, we have made ambitious and costly plans for 1912.

The large sums invested in the gas property, and the still larger amounts probably yet to be invested, in the fulfilment of Toronto's destiny, ask no more than reasonable compensation.

reasonable compensation.

This compensation neither is exacted nor demanded. It is expected for the same reason that a man expects wages for his services, payment for what he has produced, reimbursement for the merchandise he has delivered.

Our business is bound up with the people and fortunes of our community. We cannot sell a man a bill of inferior goods and pass along to the next customer; we cannot sell gas service to a man who moves to another city. We must serve our customers month after month and year after year and do it right, or we lose business, reputation, good will and money.

It is our desire and intention always to give a full dollar's worth of service for every dollar paid to us, and to do our work mindfull of our obligations to the community of which we are a part.

STRUCK POLICEMAN IN FACE

Pinchesky Found Guilty of Assault During Religious Riot. Charles Pinchisky, 103 Agnes-st., was found guilty by a jury before Judge Winchester, last evening, of assaulting Police Constable Scott, while in the performance of his duty in keeping the streets cleared during the Jewish religious riot last July. The case will come up again before Judge Winchester at the end of the sessions Saturday. Pinchisky claimed he was standing at the steps of his shop on Agnes-st, cracking nuts for his child at his kneet of eat, when Scott came along and to eat, when Scott came along, and, after some words, pushed him roughly into the house, and then later, with more police constables, came in and arrested him. He denied striking Scott, and said he could not remember that the plaintiff's lips were bleeding at the time. Police Constable Scott, when sworn, said that Pinchisky struck him twice in the mouth with his clenched fist, when he was directed to move along.

MOTORMAN WAS EXONERATED.

That the late Robert Johnson of 3 Cu zon-street, who was struck by a King-street car at Queen and Leslie-streets, Dec. 19, and died the same evening at his home, came to his death thru his own negligence, and that the motorman, Henry Daniels, 1710 West Qu en-street, was in no way respon-sible, was the verdict of the coroner's jury last night at the inquest.

The inquest was conducted by Corener Dr. Gilmore at the city morgue.
