HAVE ONE WEEK TO GET NEW EVIDENCE

Technicality Hoists the Cain Case One Week—Looks Hopeless.

At a meeting of the sub-committee of the O. H. A., held yesterday afternoon, the protest of the Barrie Hockey Club against De La Salle, junior champion of the O. H. A., in reference to the age of John Cain, one of their players, was considered.

The evidence showed that the boy John Cain was born on March 25, 1899, was baptized under that name, but registered at the Parliament Buildings under the name of "Dennis Francis Cain," the original intention of the parents being to call the boy that name. This fact was confirmed by the parents, who were present, and also by documentary evidence.

THIRD CUP CONTEST ON CARD TONIGHT

The third game of the Stanley Cup series will be played at the Arena tonight. Toronto won the first game, played under eastern rules, and Vancouver took the second fixture on Saturday night with the western style of play in vogue.

Cyclone Taylor, who was slashed by Randall on Saturday night, will be able to play tonight. Taylor will not be out tonight, and it is expected that he will play under this style of play.

The Anglican League will stage their hockey finals at the Arena on Wednesday night.

A Montreal despatch says: "If the Vancouver Club gets protection, it has a good chance to win the world's championship series with Toronto," said Art Ross, back from Toronto, where he refereed the Saturday night match between the champions of east and west.

President Frank Calder of the National Hockey League says: "The match on Saturday showed that all we have uniform rules for east and west these cup series will always be unsatisfactory."

Jack Dempsey, Subbing for Fulton, Puts Over the Old Stepper.

New Haven, Conn., March 25.—Johnny Dundee and Willie Jackson, aspirants for the lightweight title, fought, slinking rounds to a draw here tonight.

Knocked Out and He Claims Toronto

John J. Mo., March 25.—Jack Dempsey of San Francisco, substituting for Fred Fulton, who cancelled his engagement after he was matched to meet Jess Willard, tonight knocked out Tom Riley of Toronto, in the first round of a scheduled fifteen round bout.

BASEBALL LEAGUE FOR THE VETERANS

Returned Men Will Organize Tomorrow Night—Many Good Players.

The veterans from France are going into baseball with a vengeance. On Wednesday night at the G. W. V. A. Club, corner Church and Carlton streets, an organization meeting will be held to get things into full working order.

The idea of forming a returned soldiers' ball team is a good one and it should prove to be a big attraction all over the country.

There are scores of players back from the front and are able to play ball. Many of them have played on teams in England and France.

Millions to Get in Baseball Game So the U.S. Government Urges

Washington, March 25.—Baseball will be played on an extensive scale in the army and navy training camps this year. It is estimated that there are over 4,000 companies in training in the various camps and multiplying this number by 12, which is the number of baseballs in the training camp commission is planning to furnish each unit, in addition to gloves and bats.

When the soldiers began arriving in the camps last summer they turned at once to baseball as the first means of amusement. Lack of equipment was no deterrent; in fact, the most serious lack of equipment was the catchers' mitts.

Similar plans for the naval stations are being made by Walter Camp, who is general director of naval athletics. Each station will have a representative team, which will be selected by elimination, and will play out schedules that are being drawn up with amateur, professional and college lines from adjacent cities.

It is also possible that the sailors may play teams from nearby army camps, and engage in inter-station contests, as the stations are much nearer one another than the army cantonments.

VETERAN JACK COOMBS SEES WHAT'S COMING

Hot Springs, Ark., March 25.—Jack Coombs, who has just returned to Manager Robinson of the Dodgers here, declared yesterday that this will be his last year in baseball.

He is a splendid player, and he decided to retire at the close of this season, when my contract with the Brooklyn Club expires," he declared.

Coombs has an interest in two banks at Palestine, Tex., and stated that they required his attention.

and muscle and judgment of distance like baseball. The truth of this statement is borne out by the fact that army leaders have found that in grenade throwing, where accuracy in the estimation of distance is essential, men who have played the national spot excel.

Combining as it does this maximum of recreation and military training, it is no small wonder then that the commissions on training camp activities should want every soldier and sailor to play ball.

A number of baseball celebrities have joined the colors since war was declared and a nine of which any major league club might well be proud could be picked from either the army or navy.

Among the diamond stars now in the service are: Marvyn Hargrett, Ernie Shore, Del Gainer, Chick Shorten, Herb Fenwick and John Barry of the Red Sox; Jack Coombs of the St. Louis Americans, and Jim Scott of the Chicago White Sox.

LEAF'S HEADLESS; MAYBE LEAGUELESS

Joe Kelley Named as Manager Again—Ed. Barrow, Most Popular.

By Ida L. Webster.

Listen, friends! There is a little argument on foot, or tap, whichever you prefer calling it, it has arisen over Joseph Kelley, one-time manager of the Toronto Ball Club, now scout for New York.

As we all know, Toronto must have a manager, and Joe has been suggested as a drawing card for the Leafs, who are, perhaps, legless. Kelley is most certainly a favorite with players and fans, and with baseball in so shaky a position as it is now, Toronto could not do better than take him.

Of course, being a scout scout (please do not get the impression that we are becoming familiar with the young man) we merely wish to emphasize the fact that, being a baseball scout, he is good—there is a possible chance that Toronto would not be able to annex him.

This possibility is quite too awful to contemplate, particularly as we cannot do better of anyone else to suggest as a successful manager of an aggregation of champs. No; taking it all in all, we cannot do better than officially nominate Joseph Kelley for our coming manager.

But now for the argument: James Jeremiah McCaffery, the blushing, Orange president of the Toronto Ball Club, when speaking on the subject of Joe Kelley, said: "I do not think that Toronto ever had a more popular manager than Kelley. He was with us seven years in all, and there was never a more devoted fan connected with him. Players and fans both liked him immensely. He is competent in every way to manage a club, and always manages to work his club to the satisfaction of both owners and fans. The fans, after all, are really the only ones who matter, and if we can satisfy them, we are satisfied."

Philadelphia, March 25.—Low Tendler, the Philadelphia Lightsight, scored an easy victory over Eddie Wallace of Brooklyn here tonight. The fight went the scheduled six rounds, the local boxer having the better of the bout all the way.
