

PLAYERS CLASH AT CHICAGO

Macy Gallops Home Ahead of Imp, Storm King and Boanerges.

Big Crowd at Opening of the Lakeside Track—Summaries and Entries for the Day at Aqueduct and Latonia.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Lakeside's 15-day meeting began to-day, and the opening was a rousing one. About 4000 followers of the sport went to the track, and a majority, it is safe to say, went to see Imp and Macy come together again. They were not disappointed, as both started in the mile and a half race. Syndicate betting prevailed.
Leo Mayer and Barney Weller had the privilege.

In the fourth race Starter Dwyer had some little trouble in getting the field lined up, but after a delay of about five minutes the eighth post started to a good finish.
In fact, Macy and Boanerges third.
Down the back stretch Imp increased his lead, and on the far turn she seemed to draw away from Macy. When Burns got draw, he went to the back whirling in a circle, and when straightened away for home it was evident that Macy would win. About the eighth post she started to pull away from the field. She was a strong race, and she was a strong race, and she was a strong race.
