SARNIA VS. CHATHAM.

Sarnia, Ont., March 8.—Four rinks of Chatham curlers were defeated by local players here Monday night. Score, 19 to 34.

HOCKEY.

HOW THE "FAMOUS" ONES WERE DEFEATED.

A Kingston dispatch gives the following account of Monday's game, in which the Guelph aggregation were so soundly beaten: The Frontenacs had an easy victory here over the Nationals, of Guelph, in the final match of the O. H. A. intermediate series. The Frontenacs tallied five goals, while the Nationals only scored two. Half a minute after the match opened Reyner, Clarke and Wilson rushed up the rink with the puck, and Reyner made the telling shot. It took exactly five minutes to secure the next one, and during the interval the Frontenacs had everything pretty much their own way. The Nationals then woke up, and before half-time sounded had evened up the score.

In the second half the Nationals were simply not in the game, making one shot only on goal. The Frontenacs were the aggressors from the outset, and poured shot after shot on the Nationals' goal, but a strong defense prevented them from scoring. It was not exactly a parlor game, as at one time or other nearly every man on the ice, the goal-keepers excepted, was sent to the roost. Chaucer Elliott, of Queen's, presided as referee, and his decisions were undisputed.

A HOCKEY PLAYER SERIOUSLY HURT.

Toronto, March 8.—Wm. King, aged 20, a member of the Mount Forest Hockey Club, is lying in a private hospital here, where he is being treated for injuries received while playing with the Mount Forest club against Clifford recently. He was hit with a hockey stick against the nose, which had been broken, the bone being knocked against the frontal bone. His left eye was injured so badly that a doctor found it necessary to remove the pupil.

AT GODERICH.

Goderich, March 8.—The most exciting match of the season was played here Monday evening, the Goderich club breaking even with the Stratford team. The tie was not played off owing to its being an exhibition game, and to the condition of the ice. The game was fast all the way through, but devoid of roughness. Score, 2 to 2.

PUCKERINGS.

Brantford and Simcoe hockey teams played an exhibition game last night. Score, 7 to 5 in favor of Simcoe.

At Napanee last night the Guelph "famous" Nationals defeated the local team 6 to 4.

WHEEL.

BRANTFORD WANTS THE MEET.

Simcoe, March 8.—Yesterday morning H. B. Donley, secretary of the C. W. A., received from J. B. Walker, chairman of the Brantford meet committee, that city's formal application for the Dominion championship meet, to be held next September. The only other applicants are the Associated Cycle Clubs of Montreal, who ask that it be brought off in connection with the Montreal world meet. To accept the Montreal proposal would necessitate a change in the bylaws of the C. W. A., as the date of the world's meet has been fixed for the second week in August.

FISTIC.

BOUTS.

Jack Bennett and George Plantie, both of Pittsburgh, Pa., met for a 20-round fight in a large tent outside of the city limits. Nearly 3,000 people witnessed the bout. Bennett won.

At New York last night, Gus Ruhlen, of Akron, O., met and defeated Joe Goddard, the Barrier champion, in the fifth round of what was to have been a 20-round bout last night, before the Lenox A. C.

At Dayton, O., Johnny Van Heest, of Hot Springs, won a hotly-contested bout last night over "Australian Billy" Murphy in the sixth round.

Eight hundred sports in Cleveland watched Joe Maxfield and Eddie Bowers box a 25-round draw at the Rockland Athletic Club. Louie Durand and Eddie Youngs boxed six rounds, and Durand got the decision. Tommy Foster knocked out young Monroe in the second round.

TURF.

YESTERDAY'S WINNERS.

At New Orleans—Eva Rice, Sir Florian, Laura May, Briggs, St. Sophia, Bright Night.

At Ingleside, Cal.—Espionage, Golden Rule, Avator, Aluminium, Imperious, Mary Black.

BASEBALL.

"BUCK" SIGNS "BAD BILL."

Camden, N. J., March 8.—There were symptoms of the near approach of the baseball season here, when "Bad Bill" Eagan, the crack second baseman, formerly of the Pittsburgh league team, was released, after being confined in jail for seven months. The manager of the Syracuse club, A. C. Buckenberger, who was camping on the doorstep, immediately signed Eagan for the season.

Hamilton Times: Brantford looks like quite a likely city for the Canadian League. Yesterday Messrs. Wm. Stroud and A. L. Richardson, of this city, went to the Telephone City, and met a number of the gentlemen interested in the organization of a professional club. They met with much encouragement. In the evening a meeting was held at which 75 and 100 people present. Assurances of financial support were given, and a strong committee was appointed to make a thorough canvass for subscriptions.

WRESTLING.

THE TURK DEFEATED.

Boston, Mass., March 8.—Ernest Roeb, the Graeco-Roman wrestling champion, defeated the "Terrible Turk" for the world's championship at that style of wrestling, winning the only bout, which under the conditions intervening, was also the match. The conditions were two falls out of three, strangle hold alone barred, shoulders to be pinned, flying or rolling falls not to count. After 2½ minutes Roeb had the Turk once again on all fours, the latter with his body arched, and with his face close to the mat, by a quick movement Roeb weakened the extended left arm of the Turk, and bringing it back quickly to the rear started a back hammer lock. Slowly the arm went back in the dangerous position, and the Turk's manager, to save his man's arm from being broken, gave up the match. Roeb weighed 191 pounds and the Turk 230.

TREED BY WOLVES

Thrilling Experience of John Burke of Mattawa.

Pembroke, March 7.—John Burke, of Mattawa, left Mackay's Station for Otter Lake, on the Dumoine, last week, and when about half way, and about 40 miles above Des Joachim's, he was chased by a large pack of wolves. He says he managed to get up a white birch tree, which was soon surrounded by wolves. Mr. Burke happened to have matches in his pocket, so he stripped the bark from the tree, ignited it, and dropped the lighted pieces of bark down amongst the wolves. This kept the ravenous animals away from the tree, but did not reach of them off; they merely kept out of reach of the falling bark.

Mr. Timothy Tomeny, a resident of Sheenboro, was in a camp about three miles distant, where Mr. Burke was to remain over night, awaiting the arrival of his friend. At last he shouldered his rifle and went out to meet Mr. Burke. He had not gone far when he heard loud shouts for help, and hurried to the scene. He found Mr. Burke up the tree, and the wolves surrounding it. Mr. Tomeny did some effective work with his rifle, and while the wolves were devouring the dead animal, then go on in pursuit of the men. In this way the men reached the camp in safety.

Engineer Laird, of Essex, has reported that the Talbot toll road is unfit for travel. Under the statute the company have four months to put it in repair or else it will lapse to the municipality as did the road running south out of Windsor.

John Argus, an old and highly respected resident of 30th street, died at his residence the other morning, at the age of 78 years. Deceased had been confined to his bed for nineteen and a half years, suffering from hip disease, which was caused by his falling off of attending the funeral of Mrs. Deacon, during which time he was being waited on by his wife, who survives him, she being now in her 80th year.

St. Thomas Times: John Dunn, an eccentric old cobbler, who formerly lived in Ingersoll, died a few days ago in Middlemarch. He lived all alone and the neighbors prepared the body for burial. During the night several boys entered the man's shop. They dressed the dead man and propped the body in the window. His clay pipe was placed in his mouth, and when the undertaker arrived to conduct the funeral he was horrified to see the corpse in the window.

William Tyler, a well-known old character who lived for many years in the Mooretown public school, died at the House of Refuge, Woodstock, on Saturday morning, aged 55 years. The old man was an Englishman by birth, and for many years followed the occupation of a tory maker and peddler. For many years he tramped around the country, selling his wares, making his headquarters at the House of Refuge.

Sarnia Observer: A case of considerable interest to school trustees was decided by Judge Mackenzie on Monday last. Marshall & Mason, of Sarnia, brought an action in the High Court of Justice against the trustees of the Mooretown public school to recover the amount of a mechanic's lien filed by them against the school for material supplied to one Maguire last summer, for painting and repairing the school. After hearing the evidence of both sides the judge decided on the authority of a case decided in Woodstock, on Saturday morning, that a lien will not attach against a public school building, as it cannot be sold under execution, and he therefore decided in favor of the defendants by dismissing the plaintiff's claim. CONDEMNS KILTS AS INDECENT

New Jersey Y. M. C. A. Secretary Won't Let the Halls to Highlanders.

Paterson, N. J., March 8.—The men of Scottish descent who live in and around Paterson are furious. They are ready to draw the claymore and wave the target and do the sword dance in their wrath for Secretary Hoagland, of the Y. M. C. A., who has declared that kilts are depraved and improper, and that those who wear them should be prosecuted by the police.

The occasion of all this was a visit to Mr. Hoagland by the executive committee of Clan MacDonald, an eminently respectable organization of Highlanders, who wanted to hire Association Hall in which to give an entertainment. The committee was headed by Justice Maybury, a man of family and the utmost respectability. When they stated the object of their call Mr. Hoagland leaned back in his chair and said abruptly:

"The last time you had the hall there were all sorts of goings on, of which no Christian man could approve. The affair, as described to me, was simply disgraceful."

"What!" shouted Justice Maybury.

"Yes," repeated Mr. Hoagland, "there were a lot of half-naked men prancing around in things they called kilts, and showing their limbs. You people can't give any such improper exhibitions as that in Association Hall."

The committee gasped. When they recovered their breath the justice exclaimed: "Why, man alive, the kilt is the national dress of Scotland. The servants of the Queen of England wear 'em—"

"Then all I've got to say is that the Queen of England is in a pretty bad business, and ought to know better," interrupted Mr. Hoagland.

"Excuse and Chalmers were kilts," cried the committee, "and they were better men than you. John the Baptist preached in them. Bobby Burns, the poet—"

"He was a rouse," the secretary cried, pronouncing it "roo," and adding: "I've said my say, and what I've said goes. We cannot afford to be connected with a concern whose members wear kilts."

Then there was a lively row. The sturdy Highlanders all talked at once. The secretary tried to pacify them by telling them that it was not their fault if association had hardened them so that they did not appreciate the indecency of kilts; but, strange to say, that did not mollify them at all.

They left the building very angry. Glen MacDonald will take official action looking toward obtaining a vindication, and will appeal the case to the trustees of the Young Men's Christian Association and try and get the hall.

IS IT A TRIFLE?

That Common Trouble, Acid Dyspepsia or Sour Stomach.

Now Recognized as a Cause of Serious Disease.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called heartburn or sour stomach, is a form of indigestion resulting from fermentation of the food. The stomach being too weak to digest it, the food remains until fermentation begins, filling the stomach with gas, and a bitter, sour, burning taste in the mouth is often present. This condition soon becomes chronic, and being an everyday occurrence is given but little attention. Because dyspepsia is not immediately fatal, many people do nothing for the trouble.

Within a recent period a remedy has been discovered prepared solely to cure dyspepsia and stomach troubles. It is known as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and is becoming rapidly used and prescribed as a radical cure for every form of dyspepsia.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been placed before the public and are sold by all druggists for 50c. per package.

It is prepared by the P. A. Stuart Company, Marshall, Mich., and while it promptly and effectually restores a vigorous digestion, at the same time it is perfectly harmless and will not injure the most delicate stomach, but on the contrary by giving the proper stimulation strengthens the stomach, improves the appetite and makes life worth living.
