FACTS ABOUT HEALTH

It Is Easy to Keep Well if We Know How—Some of the Conditions Necessary to Perfect Health.

The importance of maintaining good health is easily understood, and it is really a simple matter if we take a correct view of the conditions required. In perfect health the stomach promptly digests food, and thus prepares nourishment. The blood is employed to carry this nourishment to the organs, nerves, muscles and tissues which need it. The first great essential for good health, therefore, is pure, rich blood. Now it is certainly a fact that no medicine has such a record of cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is literally true that there are hundreds of people alive and well today who would have been in their graves had they not taken Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is depended upon as a family medicine and general regulator of the system by tens of thousands of people. This is because Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure. This is the secret of its great success. Keep your system in good health by keeping your blood pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla, which absolutely cures when other medicines fail to do any good whatever.

Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

The volume of trade done on this market for the week ending today was light. Receipts of grain were not equal to the week previous, and this may be said of all lines except vegetables, in which there was an increase in deliveries, potatoes being the chief factor.

As to the demand it was about as usual, and this caused advances in some of the principal commodities. Oats, peas, eggs, dressed hogs and turkeys being the most important.

There was a decline in wheat, influenced by outside markets.

Potatoes sold 5c a bag lower.

The outlook for live hogs, buyers say, is lower.

The following list of prices shows current values at Tuesday's session. No receipts today, owing to rain:

Live Stock Markets.

EAST BUFFALO, Nov. 8.—Cattle—The trade was about steady on the basis of yesterday's close. This being a holiday, the demand was light and the market somewhat unsettled. There were no offerings of calves, and with only a moderate inquiry the basis of prices was unchanged; nominally $7 50 for the best veal calves, and $3 to $4 for heavy-fed calves. Sheep and lambs—The offerings were light, about 10 loads, including 3 left over and 3 loads of Canada lambs; the trade was light, and only part of the offerings were sold; the Canada lambs came in late, and a couple of loads were sold at $5 15; lambs, choice to extra, were quotable at $5 25 to $5 40; good to choice, $5 to $5 25; sheep, choice to extra, $4 25 to $4 50; good to choice, $4 to $4 25. Hogs—The market was slow and generally lower by about 5c; the offerings were 47 loads, including 35 loads left over; the demand was indifferent, and prices on any but desirable weights were lower; heavy were quotable at $3 60 to $3 70; medium, $3 60; mixed, $3 65; Yorkers, $3 45 to $3 55; pigs, $3 40 to $3 50; roughs, $3 15 to $3 25; stags, $2 50 to $3; at the close there was a few loads left unsold.

TORONTO, Nov. 8.—There was an exceptionally light run of stock at the western cattle market today. The total delivery amounted to only 27 loads. Of these there were only 400 hogs and 400 sheep. In spite of the very limited supply, it appeared to be about equal to the demand, judging by prices realized, which were no advance on last week, and in some cases lower. This is the low-price month, but the persistently slow demand in the export trade is remarkable. In view of the fact that the British market has shown an upward tendency the past week, good butcher cattle are in demand, and fetch prices equal to best exporters. Milch cows at $30 to $40, but for good ones $50 would be paid. Sheep are still a little off, and are quoted at $2 75 to $3; lambs at $4 and $4 25. Hogs steady, at $4 12½ for best. Export Cattle—Choice $4; light, $3 50 to $3 65. Bulls—Medium export, $3 25 to $3 40; heavy export, good quality, $3 50 to $3 75. Loads of good butchers' and exporters' mixed $3 60 to $3 75; stockers and medium to good $2 75 to $3 25. Feeders, heavy $3 25 to $3 60. Butcher Cattle—Picked lots, $3 75 to $3 85; butchers' good $3 60 to $3 85; butchers' medium, $3 to $3 45; butchers' common, $3 to $3; butchers' inferior, $2 75 to $3 85. Milch cows, each, $30 to $50. Calves, $3 to $6. Sheep, per cwt, $2 75 to $3. Bucks, per cwt, $2 25 to $2 50. Spring lambs, each, $3 90 to $4. Hogs, 220 lbs, each, $4 to $4 12½; light sows, $3 to $3 25.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Prices for cattle were steady at yesterday's advance of 10c to 15c, with sales of native beef steers on a basis of $4 15 to $5 for common to medium, up to $5 60 for the pretty good to extra shipping cattle; the greater part of the cattle sold at $4 75 to $5 40; there was a fairly active stocker and feeder trade at $3 to $4 50; bulls sold at $2 50 to $3 for bolognas, $3 to $3 50 for feeders, and $3 75 to $4 20 for exporters; most of the cows and heifers sold at $2 25 to $3 75. Calves were in fair demand at ruling prices. Trade in hogs was less active, at an average reduction of 2½c to 5c; the bulk of the hogs crossed the scales at $3 50 to $3 65, commonest lots selling at $3 25 to $3 45, and best going at $3 67½ to $3 70; pigs found purchasers at $2 50 to $3 40, lighter weights selling below $3 20. There was a good demand for sheep and lambs; generally steady at yesterday's prices; lambs sold at $3 30 to $3 65 for poor to prime, flocks selling at $4 30 to $5 25, and feeders at $4 70 to $4 90; the best lambs were 5c higher than yesterday; sheep sold at $2 50 to $4 50; westerns steady, at $3 60 to $4 45, and feeders at $3 50 to $4 30; yearlings brought $4 25 to $4 85. Receipts—Cattle, 3,000; hogs, 30,000; sheep, 14,000.

OLD COUNTRY PRICES.

Liverpool, Nov. 7.—Here and in London prices are strong and higher. American steers are quoted at 10c to 11½c per pound (estimated dressed weight); refrigerator beef is quoted at 9½c per pound.

STORY OF THE PARIS PLOT

Declared To Be Founded on Fact

Threats Received by Members of the Court of Cassation.

London, Nov. 9.—The Daily Chronicle makes a prominent feature of an astounding narrative received from a trusted correspondent in Paris, who declares that his story is absolutely true, however it may be contradicted. The gist of the narrative is that if the court of cassation pronounces for a revision of the trial of Dreyfus, and this is effected publicly, it will entail the disgrace of one general, and perhaps two, the cashiering of several other exalted officers, and the effectual dissolution of the monument of lies and forgeries erected by the general staff, with the more or less tacit co-operation of successive war ministers.

If the court of cassation simply decrees the quashing of the first trial, it will inevitably necessitate the immediate prosecution of certain individuals, the proceedings involving highly-placed personages in grave charges.

Therefore, organized efforts are being made to bring about, concurrently with the publication of the court's decision, a riotous outburst in Paris, preliminary to an attempt to overthrow the civil power. The promoters of the scheme are aided by those military and civil personages who have cause to dread the revelations.

MARKED MEN.

One of the contemplated features of the riot was the assassination of distinguished Frenchmen who have striven to avert the evils threatening the country.

The police are aware that these men have been marked for assassination, and have directly warned them that they run a great risk by even remaining in Paris. They have advised them never to go abroad without loaded firearms, notwithstanding the fact that carrying such weapons is illegal.

Among those marked for killing are an ex-minister of justice and several prominent men of letters and journalists. Meanwhile members of the court of cassation are inundated with threatening letters.

CONFIRMED.

The Chronicle, before printing the story, instructed its own correspondent to interview MM. Trarieux, Clemenceau and De Pressense on the subject. M. De Pressense told the correspondent that the story was quite true.

SILENCE ON FASHODA.

Paris, Nov. 9.—The French newspapers generally, approve the silence of the chamber of deputies on the subject of Fashoda, and congratulate M. Brunot on his withdrawal of the interpellation which he intended to address to the government on the subject.

FRENCH FLEET READY FOR SEA.

Paris, Nov. 9.—The Echo De Paris today publishes a dispatch from Toulon which says the entire French Mediterranean squadron is ready for seasea, and that Admiral Fournier, its commander, received a cipher dispatch yesterday evening, whereupon he signalled to the Forbin, a third-class cruiser, to bank her fires, and the fastest torpedo boat conveyed orders to the admiral commanding the squadron of French cruisers and torpedo boats to assemble immediately at Toulon, where all the vessels are prepared for action, and where the arsenals and ship yards have been worked all night.

Admiral Fournier has been summoned to Paris.

Montague, of Dunville, Cured of Ulcer ated Itching Piles.

Mr. Robert Montague, of Dunnville, Ont., writes: "Was troubled with Itching Piles for five years and was so badly ulcerated they were very painful, so much so, that I could not sleep. I tried almost every medicine known, when I was recommended to use Dr. Chase's Ointment. I purchased a box, and from the first application got relief. Have used two boxes and am now completely cured."

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at any drug store.

MR. STEAD SEES THE CZAR

And Certifies Him To Be All Right.

Indications of Britain Declaring a Protectorate Over Egypt—General Cable News.

London, Nov. 9.—W. T. Stead, writing to the Daily News from Sebastopol, after having had an interview with the czar at Livadia, reiterates his conviction of the earnestness and sincerity of the czar's purpose in proposing disarmament. Mr. Stead says it is impossible to repeat the conversation, but he adds: "But my opinion is summed up in a remark which I made to a princess of the court, who, meeting me as I was leaving, asked me: 'Well, what is your opinion?'

"I replied simply: I thank God for him. If he is spared to Russia, that young man will go far.'"

Mr. Stead adds that he found the czar possessed of exceptional rapidity of perception, united with a remarkable memory and a very wide grasp of an immense range of facts.

A PROTECTORATE.

Indications are increasing that England will declare a protectorate over Egypt. The majority of the British cabinet favors such a declaration, and it is believed that France is the only continental power that would offer any opposition.

ARMY CHANGES.

A special committee of the war office has recently been considering the position of quartermasters in the army, and his suggested that in place of the present quartermasters and ridingmasters, a new class of warrant officer of superior grade be created, to be called "the chief warrant officer," somewhat similar to the chief petty officers of the navy, but with higher duties, the pay being lower than that of the present quartermasters, but higher than that of other warrant officers.

MARCHAND'S GRIEF.

Cairo, Nov. 9.—Major Marchand, in a speech delivered at the French Club, expresses great sorrow over the abandonment of Fashoda. His expedition, he said, had started to carry the French hand-grip across French Africa to the French of Egypt, who, if few today, would be numerous tomorrow, forgetting nothing, and abandoning nothing.

UNCLE SAM'S POLICY CRITICISED

London, Nov. 9. — The Times says this morning: Whatever may be the result of the election in the United States, the administration has gone too far to retreat on the Philippine question. The American reply may perhaps modify the original proposals, but there is no doubt the main demand will be pressed to a successful conclusion. It is impossible not to feel sympathy with Spain; and we trust that on the financial side the Americans will show themselves generous towards a fallen enemy. We trust that America has learned to appreciate the fact that commercial restriction and imperial expansion do not thrive together. But it must be confessed that our sympathy with the Americans in their new course suffers a great strain for such blunders as the order for the regulation of trade at Porto Rico, which reads as if borrowed from the British navigation acts, which the Americans found so oppressive.

"BLOOD THICKER THAN WATER."

London, Nov. 9.—The Lord Mayor's show today was favored with fine weather and was witnessed by the usual crowds of people. The enthusiasm was divided between the car representing the Soudan with the soldiers of the regiments which took part in the battle of Omdurman, and the car representing the English-speaking race. The latter displayed, among other things, Britannia and Columbia seated beneath a canopy, while the American flag was borne by a British sailor and the British flag was carried by an American sailor. There was also an illustration of Admiral Tatnal's "Blood is thicker than water," and of Admiral Kimberley's repetition of the same expression to Capt. Lane after the disaster at Apia, Samoa. This car was warmly acclaimed.

Mr. Sutherland, of Lakeside, was married on Wednesday afternoon to Miss McDonald, of Braemar. Daniel McDonald, brother of the bride, was best man, and Miss Sutherland, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. These four left for Woodstock just after the ceremony in a two-seated buggy. They expected to catch the 5:38 train for the east on the G. T. R. Below the bridge a train was shunting, and as the train reached the bridge, the steam escape valve was opened. The horses started on a mad rush down the hill. About 25 yards from the bridge they crashed into the fence on the right side of the road. Its four occupants were sent flying through the air. The bride, the groom and Miss Sutherland were piled in a heap between the dashboard of the buggy and a fence post, while McDonald alighted on the pickets. Miss Sutherland was the only one seriously injured. An arm went through the fence, and the elbow was dislocated and fractured. The bride was somewhat bruised along one side, but the men got off without hurt.
