London, Dec. 18.—Germany's way in the west is clear, inasmuch as a peace by negotiation with Great Britain is out of the question at present, Chancellor von Hertling asserted in an interview you fer director of the Wolff Bureau, the semi-official German-News Agency, as quoted in dispatches reaching London today. The interview was given in response to a request for a reply to the recent speech of Premier Lloyd George, who said he would regard peace overtures with Prussia at the moment the Prussian military spirit was drunk with boastfulness as a betrayal of the great trust with which he and his colleagues had been charged. Criticizes Lloyd George.

and his colleagues had been charged.

Criticizes Lloyd George.

"Lloyd George calls us criminals and bandits," said the chancellor. "Modern wars are not won by invective, but perhaps, rather, prolonged thereby, because it is clearly out of the question to negotiets with men of such temper. For haps, rather, prolonged thereby, because it is clearly out of the question to negotiate with men of such temper. For some time it has been impossible for an attentive observer to doubt that the British Government under Lloyd George's leadership is completely inaccessible to the idea of a just peace by understanding. His speech affords convincing proof of this."

The chancellor then discussed the origin of the war, saying that Germany's conscience was clear, and added:

"More than a year has passed since we and our allies offered the enemy the hand of peace. It was rejected. In the meantime our reply to the papal note has again set forth our standpoint."

After referring to the conclusion of the armistice with Russia, the chancellor went on: "Lloyd George's speech is the British answer to the papal note. Our way in the west is accordingly clear. It is not Lloyd George who is judge of the world, but history. As on August 2, 1914, so also today, we may look forward to its verdiet with equanimity."

At the Majestic Theatre today. This production is conceded to be one of the greatest of the age.

The Halifax disaster pictures now showing at the Majestic Theatre present in a graphic manner the terrible catastrophe that visited this great eastern seaport.

Scenes of devastation and destruction that cannot be adequately described are shown in these wonderful pictures. They will be shown again today and Tuesday.

Scenes of "The Judgment House"
Filmed at Oyster Bay.
Commodore J. Stuart Blackton, who is filming several of Sir Gilbert Parker's most famous novels for the Paramount, has taken many of the outdoor scenes at his estate in Oyster Bay, Long Island. The photoplay is said to be exceptionally beautiful, especially night scenes of a lawn party on his estate, and the arrival of "The Judgment House," joint work of a famous producer and a renowned author, which has been scheduled for today at the Majestic Theatre, will be one of the events of the motion picture "season."

NOTHER Christmas Day is but a few hours distant—the choosing of presents is almost complete—but there is still time for you to make certain that Music's Greatest Day will find the World's Greatest Music in your home. This, then, is but a brief, final reminder of the Gift Supreme-The Pathephone. Let it spread joy in your family circle all the year round. You have learned why the Pathephone is rightly called "the supreme achievement in musical instruments"-combining, as it does, all the best features of all other machines plus its own exclusive advantages (especially the Pathe' Sapphire Ball instead of the old-time scratching, needles that require constant changing). You have learned that there is a Pathephone to suit every home-a Pathephone to meet every purse-and that it may be secured on most attractive terms.

Let us, then, suggest that as Christmas is drawing so near, you see your Pathe' dealer NOW. He will gladly demonstrate the Pathephone, and, if desired, he will tell you about a plan of easy payments most convenient to
